The Editor's column

We started out Monday morning to find reasons why Arlington Heights village board should not annex 40 acres, bounded by Douglas, Thomas, Dryden and Olive streets.

We wanted to know if the $12,600 offered as annexation fee was a factor in the acceptance of the tract by a 4 to 2 vote.

Two of the aldermen who cast negative votes fear the additional load the development will place on the hard pressed village services.

Village engineers told us that with the double sewer systems now required, the sewer system in Arlington Greens and Eastwood would not be overtaxed.

With a $12,600 annexation fee and $24,000 for public improvements, there can be no cheap housing. The developer must sell his homes in the upper brackets.

We have not the answer to the water supply or the school load that the development will bring about, so we will just throw the decision back into the laps of the members of the village board.

Will the subdivider admit some responsibility to Arlington's school system as was suggested last week by the Veteran's Administration?

Believe it or not, county maps now on file give Rolling Meadows and the village of Palatine dual title to some industrial acreage along route 53.

We can understand the merits of a new provision of the state law that requires all deeds of land comprising 5 acres or less be subdivided. Metes and bounds are no longer accepted in the recorder's office.

The state police say that 60 per cent of the persons they are picking up for speeding on Rand road are the same persons who complained about the death trap.

As they pay their $20 fine, they say, "45 miles is too slow."

We found out Sunday morning that churches as well as movie houses can have waiting lines for the second performance. The ministers who operate double header services Sunday mornings hardly have a breathing spell. Perhaps their only remedy is a shorter sermon.

If there is any doubt that the northwest area needs its own hospital, read why Elmhurst hospital is seeking $600,000 for an addition: "On Wednesday, Dec. 7, Elmhurst Memorial hospital had the largest census in its history when 257 patients filled every available room and ward in the hospital. The previous record census occurred on Thursday, Oct. 27, when the patient count reached 251.

"Surgery cancels all but emergency and critical cases. Obstetrics has 8 mothers in hall beds. The nursery with a normal capacity of 42, uses every bassinet available for a total of 56 babies. The medical-surgical department places 6 patients in halls and, wherever possible, turns private rooms into semi-private rooms housing 2 patients.

"The pediatrics department can adequately care for 25 children. This number of child patients and an emergency admission for tonsils, appendix or other illness causes no difficulty. But when the number of small patients reaches 33, as it did on December 7, then the problem of space and care becomes serious."

As we predicted last week, Mt. Prospect voters gave their approval to a bond issue that will make possible recreational facilities, including a swimming pool. The vote was 3 to 1.

For the benefit of the youth of Mt. Prospect, we hope the park board can equal the building speed of Palatine which completed its new pool within 6 months after its authorization.

Let the slogan be "Swimming for Mt. Prospect youth by next July."

As a local taxing body was discussing possible discounts that could be secured in the purchase of a piece of equipment, one of the local bidders made this comment, "I have never asked for a discount on my tax bill." 'Nuff said.

The way 7 villages, between Park Ridge and Barrington, are sparing around the edge of the Lake Michigan water project, reminds us of a smart fox that would like the bait but is afraid there is a trap underneath.

We predict that Park Ridge autocommuters who are trying to get the county board to prevent the installation of a toll gate on the Northwest Expressway, will get no further than did those who tried to reroute the toll road. It is human nature for a fellow to want his cake and eat it, too.

Last week we said some nice things about the postmaster general, but we do not like his order that business mail should not be given preference over Christmas greetings bearing 3 cent stamps.

County Assessor Keenan evidently has decided there are two ways to skin a cat. He has gone over the head of local assessors and now asks all municipal building commissioners to report to him all building permits they issue.

He can't take the job away from the assessors, but taking away their responsibility is the next thing to it.

"WHAT HAPPENED HERE?" these two salesmen for the Branigar Realty firm seem to be asking as they glance at the wreckage about them. A car driven by James H. Kuykendall, 822 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, plowed into the realty office at the intersection of Higgins and Elmhurst rds. late December 7 after skidding across an intersection and going out of control. Growth Of Northwest Area 'Challenge' To Phone Company

The "days of waiting" for new telephone service in the Arlington Heights-Mount Prospect-Rolling Meadows area are "just about over," Illinois Bell announced this week.

In a letter to Village President Albert W. Goedke of Arlington Heights, Village President Theodore Lams of Mount Prospect and Mayor John S. Northcote of Rolling Meadows, General Manager Gordon Aller of Illinois Bell said:

"I wanted you to be first to know that this month Illinois Bell will catch up with the demand for new telephone services in your communities.

"BARRING unforeseen developments, this means the days of waiting for main service in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Rolling Meadows are just about over, and in a few months any customer with a two or four-family line can have an individual line, if he wishes.

"Trying to keep up with your phenomenal growth has been just about the most difficult peacetime challenge our company has ever faced. The telephone exchange serving your communities hasn't just grown; it has multiplied. From 1940 to 1947 the number of telephones doubled. They doubled again between 1947 and 1952. Since 1952 they've doubled once more. During the next few months we will add more telephone capacity than there were telephones in the entire exchange of 1940, and we're doubling the size of the building we put up less than four years ago.

"ANY PRIDE of accomplishment on our part is tempered by the fact that through these years, it was necessary to ask many people to wait for the telephone service they requested. It was only with their patience and understanding, and with the wholehearted cooperation of your municipal governments, that we could fulfill our responsibility to provide good, adequate telephone service.

"What we have accomplished, however, was through the efforts and ingenuity of the telephone people in your community headed by a crackerjack local management: William Lathen and his successor, Robert Kozeliski; J. W. Foley, the wire chief; and Miss Dorothy O'Malley, the chief operator. This management team is looking forward with great pleasure to saying 'yes' to every request for telephone service. It will be a source of satisfaction to all of us at Illinois Bell."

MANAGER Kozeliski told the Paddock Publications that all customers waiting for telephones will be served between December 17 and 31 following completion of the fifth major dial equipment addition since January, 1954. Another equipment addition will be completed by the end of next month to take care of the demand for service the early part of next year.

Still more equipment will be installed in the new addition to the exchange building to provide for future growth.

"To provide outside wire and cable in time to serve everyone waiting this month also was a major task," the manager said. "Telephone craftsmen under the supervising construction foreman, did a 6-months' job in 3 months."

Hospital Fund Nears $100,000

The Northwest Community Hospital center is a long step closer to realization as a result of the preliminary campaign for funds which began December 10 and is now almost concluded.

Board chairman Charles J. Walters has revealed that the initial solicitation of funds from 4 key groups in the hospital area has produced the impressive total of $82,780. Walters emphasized that this cannot yet be regarded as a final figure since pledges are still coming in. To date this sum has been achieved as a result of 68 pledges which means an average of approximately $1,200 per pledge.

The Advisory Board under the inspired leadership of Nicholas Lattof has been responsible for raising over $43,000 of this amount.

Treasurer Carl Hammerl reports that the gift fund as of the latest tally totals $13,000. However, Hammerl says that this figure is subject to almost daily revision upward because of the ever increasing number of spontaneous benefits sponsored by various special groups and individuals. These privately sponsored activities have been a source of great encouragement to the hospital board.

Ted Seiler, Financial Development Committee Chairman, expressed on behalf of the entire board of trustees, a deep appreciation to all those whose efforts and contributions have made possible the grand total of $91,000 for the hospital program.

As announced last week, the Board of Trustees now has options on 2 possible sites which are:

(1) ½ mile north of Algonquin road on the east side of Route 53 in Palatine township;

(2) at Rohlwing and Baldwin roads, also in Palatine township.

The final selection of the building site will be determined by those who become contributing members of the hospital association.

A most encouraging foundation has now been laid for the main campaign for funds which is to begin soon after the new year. This campaign will reach out into the home of every family in the area to give everyone the opportunity to have a part in creating the reality of a Northwest Community Hospital.

Driver Loses Control, Auto Plows Into Realty Office

Two occupants of an suto driven by James H. Kuykendall, 36, of 822 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, escaped serious injury Wednesday when their auto skidded across an intersection, hit a bump and went out of control into a field and finally plowed into a realty office.

Kuykendall was returning home about 9:30 p.m. from the Tung-Sol plant in Melrose Park where he is employed as electrical engineer. Also in the car was Jack W. Sherriff, 28, of 255 Sawyer, Glen Ellyn, who also works at Tung-Sol. Sawyer suffered a sprained ankle and was taken to Resurrection hospital. He was released later.

KUYKENDAL, who was going north on route 83, told county sheriff's police that he failed to see the warning sign at the intersection of routes 72 and 83. He said that when he saw the stop sign and slammed on his power brakes he skidded across the intersection, hit a bump and careened into a field. His car came to rest inside the realty office of the Branigar Organization, Inc. The office is set back about a half block from the northwest corner of the intersection.

A SPOKESMAN for the reality firm said the front and one side of the office were demolished and interior furnishings smashed. He estimated total damage at several thousand dollars, all of which is covered by Kuykendall's insurance. Police estimated damage to the 1955 Mercury convertible at $1000. They added that the road was dry and the weather clear at the time of the accident.

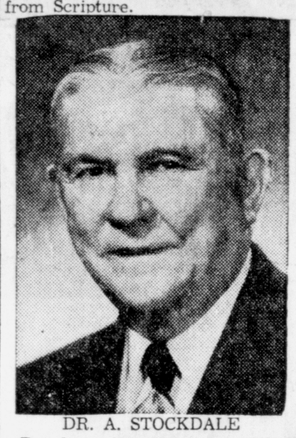
The realty office is again "open" for business.

NAM Spokesman Holiday Speaker At High School

Dr. Allen A. Stockdale, staff speaker for the National Association of Manufacturers, will address students of Arlington Heights high school at Christmas assemblies Monday.

His talk is entitled, "Christmas Challenges America."

Walter Christophersen, senior, will read the Christmas story from Scripture.



DR. A. STOCKDALE

Popular and sacred music will be provided by the a capella choir in the morning assembly for upper classmen, and by the combined freshman choruses in the afternoon assembly for underclassmen.

Widely known as the "Pitching Parson," Dr. Stockdale joined the staff of the NAM in 1937, has made more than 4,000 talks before audiences in all 48 states and Canada, and has appeared frequently on radio and television. The association regards him as one of the best-informed and most dynamic spokesmen for business interests in the United States today.

Burglars Strike! Loot Three Apartments, Home

Burglars broke into 3 Arlington Heights apartments and a home Friday to make off with a small amount of cash, 3 fur coats, a collection of jewelry, and an unopened Christmas present recently arrived from Germany.

Doris Black, 525 W. Euclid, a teacher at Arlington Heights high school, reported that her apartment was entered. A diamond ring, a black Persian Lamb fur coat valued at $600, and a fur cape valued at $50 were stolen.

Mildred Bopp, 501 W. Euclid, also a teacher, told police that her apartment was ransacked with a small amount of cash taken.

MRS. HARRIET Trude, 501 W. Euclid, was the third person to report a burglary. She told police that several items of value were taken. The apartments may have been entered by the same burglars since a pipe wrench was used at all places to force the front door. Time of thefts was between 9 a. m. and 3 p.m. for the teachers' apartments and between noon and 3 p.m. at Mrs. Trude's.

A three-quarter length white and black Persian lamb fur coat valued at $300 was reported stolen by Mrs. Gilbert Kroehn, 542 S. Dunton. The Kroehns returned home at 11:30 p.m. Friday to find their home had been broken into. A storm window in a utility room had been removed.

THE FRONT bedroom and kitchen had been ransacked for money. Six pair of earrings were taken as well as the coat.

What the Kroehns miss most is a wooden box just arrived from their daughter and son-in-law stationed in Germany. They obeyed the notice warning them not to open it until Christmas, so they still don't know what it contained. On the outside it was marked "clock" (perhaps a false clue) and has their address and that of the senders, "Lt. and Mrs. Richard A. Hartert, 44th FA Bn., A. P. O. 39, % Postmaster, N. Y."

MORE CARRIERS NEEDED

Arlington Heights post office can use 20 to 25 additional mail carriers to handle the Christmas mail. Ask for Mr. Herman at post office.

John Cummins Wins Local Speech Contest

John Cummins, senior, won the local Voice of Democracy Speech contest for high school students. A recording of his speech, "I Speak for Democracy," has been forwarded to Springfield for judging in the state contest.

The local contest was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce which awarded John a portable radio as first prize.

ON THE STATE and national level, the contest is sponsored by the national associations of radio and television broadcasters.

Winner of the state contest receives a television set, and his recorded speech is entered in the national contest. Four equal winners are selected in thi scontest, each receiving a $500 scholarship and all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg, Va.

Other Arlington high school students who entered the contest were Alice Olson, Walter Christophersen, Ron Blaschke, Caryl Sanders and Tom Olson.

Police Arrest Four In Rash Of Arlington Auto Accidents

Four men were arrested in connection with traffic accidents during the past week.

Facing most serious charges is Claude Arnold, 40, of 2700 W. Garfield, Chicago, charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, possession of an open bottle of liquor, failure to report striking an unattended motor vehicle and not having a chauffer' license.

Police said Arnold was driving a 1955 Chevrolet truck owned by William A. Rychlik, 2305 Robin Crest Lane, Glenview, north on State rd., at 1:10 p.m. Dec. 10. He struck a car parked in front of 27 S. State rd.

Fred R. Ainslie, 41, of 106 E. Rockwell, Arlington Heights, owned the damaged car.

RAYMOND F. LAMPING, 18, of Rte. 3, Box 111, Palatine, was booked for "driving too fast for conditions" after a collision at the intersection of Elm and Kasper December 11 at 2:22 p.m. According to police, Lamping's car struck another driven by Edward Zoellick, 59, of 7820 W. Olive, Chicago, in the right rear fender, spinning it around. Zoellick's auto struck a tree, and he was charged with destroying public property.

Guy L. Bush, 23, an airman stationed at Arlington airport, was charged with destroying public property — but that should be the least of his worries. His car, a 1949 Ford tudor, was demolished early Saturday morning by a freight train.

Bush was attempting to make a right turn off Northwest highway south onto Wilke, but he failed to make the turn, hit a traffic sign and drove on the North Western railway tracks.

BUSH AND A companion, Deiald McEnaney, 21, of Tarkio, Mo., were attempting to push the car off the tracks when they saw the headlights of an approaching train. Police said the pair fled when they failed to move the car.

Mrs. Doris P. Werner, 118 Tower rd., Barrington, was the driver of a car which struck a utility pole south of the railway underpass on Davis st. on Friday evening. She failed to turn after going through the underpass and hit the pole, causing considerable damage to the front end of her car. She was treated for a cut tongue and lip. Her 3 year-old-son, David, suffered a bruised leg.

High School Debaters Win Niles Tournament

Four squads of Arlington Heights sub-varsity and beginning debaters almost monopolized the top spots in a practice tournament at Niles Township high school last Saturday.

By winning 18 debates while losing only 6, all 4 squads finished in either first or second place in their respective divisions. Eleven suburban schools had teams entered in the tournament.

In the beginner's division, Sylvia Pfeffer and Juanita Blecke were undefeated to lead their squad to first place. Donella Hager and Mike Shannon completed the foursome, winning two and losing one.

A SECOND squad of beginners composed of Jan Rogozinski, Tom Reinsma, Carol Willie, and Tom Farrand tied for second place, each team winning two and losing one. The beginning debaters are coached by Clarence Feiereisel.

In the sub-varsity division, Mary Jansen and Mickey Harris helped their squad tie for first place with New Trier by winning all three of their debates. Eldon Kreider and Jeff Hanor, winners of two out of three, completed this foursome.

Ann Carlson, Judy Grose, Mimi McDonald, and John Cummins made up the second sub-varsity squad which held up its end of the honors by tying for second in the sub-varsity division. Each team won two and lost one.

IN A RECENT tournament at Northern Illinois State University at DeKalb, the varsity and sub-varsity squads compiled a nine and seven record.

In the varsity division, Alice Olsen, Mickey Harris, and Bob Seigel won three out of four, while Mary Jansen and John Peterson divided their four debates.

Debating in the sub-varsity bracket, Ann Carlson and Judy Grose won three while losing one. Jan Davenport and Eldon Kreider had one win against three losses.

Practice debates are being held this week to enable coach Larry Jenness to determine final varsity and sub-varsity positions.

Realtors Elect Wilson,

Charles H. Wilson, 834 S. Belmont, Arlington Heights, president of the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan association, has been elected vice president of the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. He was elected at the December dinner meeting of the realtors' group and will serve during 1956.

Donald D. Florence, 34 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, is new secretary and Neal T. Dean, 7 Northwest hwy., Palatine, treasurer.

Santa Here Saturday

The Arlington Heights chamber of commerce have again received word from Santa Claus that he will be at his headquarters at the village hall, from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday to greet children.

Izza Mistake...

Not lutefisk but pizza will be on the menu at the smorgasbord to be given Thursday to benefit the proposed Northwest Community hospital fund.

The pizza smorgasbord will be held at Fadaro's restaurant in Mt. Prospect beginning at 7:30 this evening.

Wheeling P.P. Assessments Up 1 Million

Personal property assessments for northwest townships were published last week in Paddock Publications. Throughout the county there has been an average valuation increase of 13 per cent.

Wheeling township jumped $1,000,000, making an increase of 20 per cent. Elk Grove township increased from $1,023,000 to $1,370,000; Northfield township doubled; Maine township showed an increase of $3,000,000 due probably to new manufacturing plants; Schaumburg increased $16,000, but still has the lowest assessment of over 30 townships in the county.

The figures are:

Barrington	1,260,639	1,641,874
Elk Grove	1,023,368	1,370,371
Hanover	965,662	1,146,032
Maine	8,920,905	11,826,769
Northfield	3,466,191	7,041,951
Palatine	1,810,489	1,805,007
Schaumburg	385,833	441,955
Wheeling	5,462,302	6,492,362

In previous years the board of tax appeals have made few reductions.

Officials Of 7 Towns Discuss Water Needs

Officials of 7 municipalities from Park Ridge to Barrington, met at the Palatine village hall last night to exchange ideas regarding the formation of a water district under the state statute. Mayor Howard Olsen of Palatine is acting chairman.

Several meetings have been held, but the villages have been reluctant to officially take the organization action steps that would bind their municipalities to the project.

Why No Interest In Color TV Sets?

Apparently few people are eager to win a new color television set—or help the hospital fund with a few pennies.

That's the conclusion of Arlington Heights Lions who on Tuesday will give away a new RCA 21-inch color TV. All proceeds are turned over to the Northwest Community Hospital center fund.

Although every resident in surrounding communities was mailed an invitation to participate, only 200 responded.

Prizes to be awarded are now on display at Neumann's Barber shop in Arlington Heights.

INTERESTED persons may use pre-paid envelopes if they still have them. Tickets are available from Ed Schmidt, CLearbrook 3-2220, or from any member of the Lions club.

The hospital benefit committee of the Lions, managing the affair, released 2 notes they received from persons interested in the project.

WROTE ONE resident on the back of a return envelope: "I am sorry not to take these tickets as we have so much illness in my home, and we have donated dozens of times to this good cause, but at the moment we just don't have the money."

And another person wrote the Lions: "Have never got anything by chance in my lifetime. Am now 74. Enclosed the $1 for hospital fund. Glad to give that."

Remarked Lions: "Why can't all citizens have this same spirit?"

Five Arlington Pupils In Spelldown Tonight

Four eighth and 1 seventh grade student will represent Arlington Heights Junior high school in the Daily News spelling contest.

The "sectional" contest is tonight at 8 p.m. at the school.

Local students will compete against 25 other pupils from Palatine, Des Plaines, Elk Grove and Wheeling. A wrist watch awaits the winner.

Three top spellers in tonight's contest will go to county finals in Chicago next month. A trip to Washington is top prize.

The following students will represent the Junior high school: Dale Goble, Judy Johnson, Barbara King and Warren Myers from the eighth grade, and Christine Bylski from the seventh grade.

Scouts Sell Yule Trees

Scout units sponsored by the Presbyterian Men's club of Arlington Hts., will again have Christmas trees available to the public at State rd. at Rockwell st. on the south side of the street.

IT IS HOPED that many will avail themselves of this opportunity to purchase top quality Christmas trees brought direct to Arlington Heights from the far north.

For best selection, scouts suggest buyers purchase trees as early as possible, beginning Saturday, Dec. 10. Revenue derived from this annual project will be used to support the cotinuation of scouting activities in the community.

Public Falls Down On Christmas Mailing

"You can't teach an old dog new tricks," is an old adage and in spite of every effort by the postal department and newspapers to have the public mail their Christmas cards and packages early, it appears that as great a load as ever will be placed on the postal service.

The heavy mail really didn't get started until Tuesday of this week. Packages mailed after this week may not be delivered in time for Christmas.

The flow of Christmas cards is running about normal, but parcel post is way behind schedule. The postal department suggests that all parcel post be used for packages that cannot be mailed until next week.

The increase in number of patrons at local post offices explains the waiting lines that start forming at the post office windows each morning before they are open.

Lions Christmas Party Tuesday

Arlington Heights Lions club dinner next Tuesday at the Lutheran school will be a double header. The bus shelter will be officially presented to the Arlington Heights Park District and the prizes in connection with the club hospital fund will be announced.

Win Honorable Mention

Three youngsters from Arlington Heights won honorable mention awards in the Chicago Daily News Boys and Girls Christmas coloring contest last week. They were among 250 children to receive Christmas coloring books: there were over 23,000 entries so parents of our local winners can be proud of them. The 3 contest winners from here were Jeffery Bischof, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Bischof, 34 S. Ridge, who is in the fourth grade at South school; Judy Ann Haid, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Haid, 2705 St. James, who is in third grade at Kimball Hill school; and Suzanne C. Noonan, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Noonan, 906 N. Pine, who is in second grade at St. James school.

ARLINGTON GREENS

Christmas Dance

Friday night's Christmas dance was a huge success, as everyone who was there will agree. Many houses in the Greens were alive with bright lights and glowing spirits before the dance since cocktail parties were the rule rather than the exception. To mention just a few: Jean and Gary Waffle entertained Eleanor and Bob Ryan, Emily and Jack Coward, Evelyn and Chet Korff, Donna and Chuck Thomposn, Rosemary and Gordon Baer, Jane and Walt Brown and Kay and Bill Baer who, incidentally, travelled from Rockford, where they recently moved, especially to attend the dance. Gert and Bill Miller's cocktail party began at 8:30 and to share in their Christmas cheer they invited Shirley and Jack Kerz, Nan and Whitney Jansen, Connie and Jack Flodin, Bette and Pete Johnson, Maxine and Len Smedberg, Doris and Ken Jennings, Lorraine and Bob Lantz, Virginia and Jack Parkin and Pat and Don Peterson. Guest list of Bette and Pete Bunnelle, in the new section of the Greens, included Evelyn and Ken Jahnke, Fannie and Woody Hudleston, Marge and Herb Riemann, Ann and Bob McLean, Mary and Walter Dahl, Dorothy and Carl Svoboda and Franny and Wally Brosseit.

Bob Scott and his Pastels supplied the musical accompaniment for the dance. Dance tunes ran the gamut, from romantic ballads to lively polkas and jazz. When it came to doing the polka, Isobel and George Fisher were hard to beat, let alone keep up with. Kay Summers and Gordon Baer took advantage of the fast numbers with their jitterbugging much to the delight of the audience. A huge pink flocked Christmas tree standing in one corner, large silver balls and white bells hanging from the ceiling of the Mt. Prospect county club put everyone in a festive mood, especially when the orchestra played "White Christmas" and 200 voices joined in singing. Another display of community singing brought happy birthday wishes to Fred Mensch. Thirty couples were presented gifts which were donated by the merchants in town. Some of the lucky persons were Pete Johnson and Will Hampel who received root feeders, Dorothy Braun took home a brandy decantur with glasses to match, Ruth Zenner received a silver candy dish, Bob Brown a lawn chair and Dottie Funk was given an electric iron.

Jaycees, Ned Shanahan and Jack Summers had very little sleep Friday night, reason being they arose at 5:45 a.m. Saturday morning to take orphan children to Chicago to shop and see Santa Claus. The stores on State st. opened their doors 1-hour earlier to accommodate more than 200 Jaycees and at least 200 children. Kay and Jack Summers picked up 4 girls from the Angel Guardian orphanage in Chicago and were on State st. at 7:41 a.m. Kay, Jack and Ned deserve a word of prase for their efforts to bring Christmas cheer to those unfortunate children in orphan homes.

Chriden's Christmas Party

Even though the dance is over, social chairmen Wally Johnson still cannot sit back and rest. The children's Christmas party is this Saturday afternoon at the park fieldhouse. The party starts at 2 and will last until 4. The party, of course, is for children of members only. Judging from the activities planned for the afternoon.

The children will have just as enjoyable time as did mom and dad the week before at the dance. Believe it or not, but 257 children are expected to attend. This number includes children of members between the ages of 18 month through 10 years. In case you are interested in statistics, girls outnumber the boys in this age bracket. The count is 139 girls to 118 boys, and the largest age group is 18 months to 3 years. "Red" Funk, membership chairman, reports that all members have been given tickets of admission for their children. If through some unintentional error you have not received your tickets please get in touch with Red. The date, this Saturday afternoon, and Santa has a gift for everyone. There will be refreshments and entertainment to keep the children delighted.

Association Meeting

December 6 was a lucky day for Grace O'Neil, Gene Whiting and Fred Mensch. They each received a 15 pound gobbler at the association meeting. Grace is just too lucky. She received her Thanksgiving turkey by bowling with the association's bowling league and now she has taken care of her Christmas dinner, too. This was really a give-away night; 2 examples of Christmas decorations were donated by Sauerland florist. A long needled pine centerpiece was given to Florence Horner and a large flocked door wreath to Mrs. Frank Rasek.

Special Delivery

Joan and Dan Gorey of Clarendon are announcing the arrival of their thrid baby and first daughter. Theresa Ann was born December 5 at Resurrection hospital and weighed 6 poinds 6½ ounces. Joan brought her daughter home in time tto celebrate big brother Tommy's second birthday Saturday. The Goreys have another son, Danny, who is four years old.

This N That

Anne and Oscar Josetti, 1156 Hickory have come to the sad conclusion that their patience has not been rewarded. The Josetti yard has become the "short cut" between streets. Children of Junior high school age and teenagers have done damage to the hedge and plants by their careless running through the yard. The Josettis tried kind words and patience last winter and spring even when their garden was trampled during the spring thaw, however, to no avail, and again this winter their words are getting no results, The Josettis state that they will be forced to take stronger action against trespassers if this word to the wise is not sufficient.

Lost and Found

A string of pearls, of comparatively little value except to the little girl who lost them, has been found by Maxine Elwart, 1013 Douglas. Although Maxine does not live in the Greens, she thought that one of the little girls might have lost the necklace on her way to or from school. The pearls were found December 5 and can be claimed by phoning CLearbrook 3-4588.

First Baptismal Held At Baptist Church

First Baptist church of Arlington Heights held its first baptismal service at 7 p.m. December 11 in South Baptist church, Mt. Prospect.

Eleven candidates were baptized by Rev. George I. Beckstrom. Immediately afterward they participated with the congregation in the observance of the Lord's Supper.

Invocation prayer was offered by Rev. Edwin Ira Stevens, pastor of South Baptist church. Directed by R. J. Truelsen, with Mrs. Truelsen at the organ, the choir sang "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken" and "Rock of Ages." Rev. Beckstrom spoke on "Changing Masters."

"Gratitude to Rev. Stevens and this neighboring church for the use of their church building and facilities, and their sharing in this service, is heartfelt by all of us," said Rev. Beckstrom.

Following the service a coffee hour was held in the church dining room.

This Week with PJA

Because of the shortness of time before the beginning of Christmas vacation, both Junior high and elementary school Christmas programs will be presented next week. What promises to be a varied and delightful array of festivities has been prepared by pupils of the several schools.

Texas Moves North For Christmas

Monday, Dec. 19, at 8:15 p.m., students of the Junior high school will present a 1-act play, "The Miracle of Derrick, Texas," on the stage of the gymnasium.

The story revolves around an orphanage, located in an oil-boom community in which the true meaning of Christmas has been lost. The spirit of Christmas is restored through a caroling contest, in which members of the Junior high mixed chorus will take the part of choristers.

The seventh and eighth grade girls' chorus and the sixth grade girls' chorus will sing Yuletide songs before and after the play.

Ridge School Program Monday, Dec. 19

Because of its large enrollment and limited production facilities, Ridge school will present only some of its fourth and fifth-graders in a 3-part program next Monday evening at 7:45.

The first part will consist of 4 short skits composed and prepared by fifth-graders with the direction and editorial assistance of Mr. Candelaria. The original character of these serio-comical skits promises an evening of surprises!

Under the direction of Miss Vivian Erwin, a selected group will accompany the skits by singing carols from other lands as well as old favorites. Some of Miss Maloney's fourth grade students will conclude the program with choral readings of 2 seasonal selections, including "The Night Before Christmas."

Dryden Students Perform Two Nights

To accommodate all parents and all grades, Dryden school will present members of the third, fourth and fifth grades Monday evening, and members of the kindergarten, first and second grades Tuesday evening, both programs to begin at 7:45.

Both programs will be in the form of a series of scenes accompanied by narration and singing. Monday's presentation is entitled "The Search for Christmas;" Tuesday's, "All About Christmas."

South School Presents Program Tuesday

Fourth and fifth grade students of South school will participate in the Christmas program to be presented Tuesday, Dec. 20, at 7:45 in the Junior high gymnasium. Music will be an important part of the program, with songs by a chorus introducing a play, which will be followed by more choral selections.

A pantomime, "The Night Before Christmas," will be presented, and as a finale, the chorus will join with the audience in singing grades are helping out by working on program and scenery.

North School Also Performs Tuesday

Tuesday evening at 7:45, Dec. 20, Christmas will be depicted at North school by means of 4 tableaux, narrated by 2 childdren, and accompanied with songs by a chorus.

Children from third, fourth and fifth grades will participate in the presentation.

Pre-School Films Interest Parents

Parents of "The Frustrating Fours" and "The Fascinating Fives" felt very much at home while viewing the films of these titles at the December 6 meeting of the pre-school study group at Dryden school.

Following the career of one small boy, the first film depicted the instability of the 4-year-old, with his apparent disobedience, wilfulness, and lack of ability to follow through on anything he starts; In the second film, this was contrasted with the behavior of the 5-year-old, who has made tremendous strides in a brief year.

While still not consistently reliable in these areas, the 5-year-old now takes pride in accomplishment, is interested in more things and wants to do more, is less selfish and quarrelsome, is more helpful and cooperative, the film demonstrated. Because of his growth in maturity, the 5-year-old is now ready to enter kindergarten

Filmed at the College of Montreal, and produced by the National Film Board of Canada, the films provoked lively discussion among parents who saw them. Robert Campbell, principal of Dryden school, led the discussion.

Those who have heard Dr. Franklin Fitch, a frequent visitor to Arlington Heights, are looking forward to the next meeting of this group February 7 at the Junior high School, when Dr. Fitch will discuss "Sex Education for the Young Child."

MAY THE BEST MAN WIN—That seems to be the one point on which agreement is reached as the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Kelly, director of the C.Y.O., discussed the C.Y.O.'s championship bouts which will be held at the International Amphitheater next Friday evening, December 16, with Phil Anselmo, coach of the St. Charles Borromeo boxers and Chief Petty Officer John Donofrio, coach of the Great Lakes naval training station entries. Proceeds of the bouts go to the C.Y.O.'s underprivileged youth fund.

To Erect Builders Professional Building At Palatine & Route 83

Following the building trend northward, Smith and Dawson original developers of Prospect Heights, propose to construct a new Professional Builders building of modern design on the southwest corner of Palatine rd. and highway 83. The building will be 150' long, fully landscaped and beautified to conform with the elegant residences in that immediate area.

It is the opinion of Dan Schueren, owner of Smith and Dawson, that the through traffic of Palatine rd., the proposed shopping center in Dunhurst Heights, and the hundreds of new homes going up north of Palatine rd., makes the proposed corner an ideal spot for this type of professional building.

The officers of Smith and Dawson, architects offices, builders offices and a builders supply and display store will be in the basic building. Ample parking facilities are provided for safe, off the highway parking.

"Value of property would be increased by this addition," says Dan Schueren, "as the very nature of having a high grade realty and builders office in the center of a growing community, is a fine service to those interested in buying, selling or building homes in this community."

"Smith and Dawson has served Prospect Heights as developers, builders, and realtors for over 20 years," continues Schueren, "and it is our plan to continue to serve this community in their best interests.

This new home would be a "dream come true" for the architects and builders in this area as well as the residents who could avail themselves of these serviecs in an atmosphere of friendliness, and integrity that Smith and Dawson has built up over these many years."

Navy Makes Arlington Post Of Call For Four Hours Saturday P.M.

The U.S.S. Minnesota will steam into Arlington Heights Saturday afternoon for a 4-hour stop.

The navy has invited the public to come aboard and inspect the ship. Crew members will be on hand to answer questions. The ship will be on view near the village hall.

Chief Fred J. Oehmke, in charge of the naval recruiting station in Arlington Heights, said that the ship is one of the smaller types possessed by the Navy. It is a full 12 feet long.

Teachers, Pupils Get Chest X-Rays At School

All students, teachers and employees of the Arlington Heights high school had chest X-rays by a mobile unit of the Tuberculosis Institute this week.

The unit was drawn into the vocatonal agriculture shop to avoid exposure to weather and to speed up processing of identification cards for more than 1800 x-rays.

Volunteers from the Teacher-Parent Council assisted Mrs. Ivah Hufnagel, school nurse, in processing the cards and preparing people for the unit.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Womens Auxiliary Meeting

December 8 the Prospect Meadows Home Owners Association Womens auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting followed by a Christmas party. The attendance was very good and everyone enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Lois Kandul gave a report on the progress she and her committee, Ginny Jenkins, Gloria Campbell and Connie Heurlin, are making in preparations for the Christmas stocking distribution to be made by Santa Claus in the Meadows the evening of December 23. This promises to be quite a task 230 children's names have been turned in to the committee.

The auxiliary meeting place was discussed again and it was decided to continue holding meetings at the village hall in Mt. Prospect the fourth Thursday of every month. The next meeting being January 26, 1956.

Plans were begun for the annual Prospect Meadows fair, and Dollie McGivney offered to take the chairmanship of the project. There was also a discussion of the summer round-up program for the children.

The Arlington Heights high school "Harmonettes" entertained the ladies with Christmas carols. Prizes were won by Dorothy Johnson, who received a salad bowl set consisting of a large mixing bowl, 4 small bowls and a fork and spoon; Anne Incinelli received a ribbon wreath; and Lois Kandul, a Christmas centerpiece. No one went home empty-handed however, as the grab bag supplied everyone with a surprise package. The evening ended with coffe and cake served by the refreshment committee.

Brownies and Cub Scouts

All brownies were present for their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon. After conducting the meeting the girls worked on their Christmas gifts for their parents. Next Tuesday the girls will meet at the home of Donna Walsh to practice Christmas carols.

All cub scouts of den 12 except Dean Valentine and Bobby Webber were present at their weekly meeting on Thursday evening. Boy scout James Gutzmer, who is den chief, gave a lecture on first aid. After their meeting the boys played games and had refreshments brought to this meeting by Evans Wells.

All cub scouts of den 13 were present at the meeting on Friday evening. Jay Chaiser filed application for membership to the den. The boys played games and enjoyed refreshments furnished by Tommy Seymour.

Birthdays

Little Billy Wilkins, son of Carol and Wayne Wilkins, was 2 years old last Tuesday, but Wednesday was really his big day as many of his relatives came to celebrate with him. In the afternoon his 2 cousins, Susan and Patty Keller and their mother Mrs. J. E. Keller of Palatine, were his guests. In the evening the following relatives came to extend their best wishes: grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. E.W. Kuhlmann and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Benson, Miss Mae Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Heck, Prospect Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nielsen, Long Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nielsen and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dahlgren.

Kathy Durec, daughter of Chuck and Rita Durec, celebrated her third birthday Saturday with the help of the following relatives: brothers, Chris and Micky, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mylewski, uncle Ed Mylewski and son Eddie Jr., aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Dankowski and son Chester and Mr. and Mrs. Krall and sons, Wayne and Greg, Mr. and Mrs. Jawarowski and Miss Mary Keller.

December 3, Chuck and Rita Durec entertained friends Marion and Frank Jerin who live in the city and whom they have not seen in more than a year.

There was also a birthday party at the home of Jack and Chris Pelletier Saturday afternoon to mark the fifth birthday of their son, Mike. To join him in the birthday festivites were his brother, Mark, and playmates, Jay Peregrine, John McGivney and Dean and Don Valentine.

Hello, New Neighbors

Meadowites are happy to welcome 2 new families into the subdivision--Robert and Shirley Dittmer and William and Wilma Canfield. The welcoming committee greeted them officially last week

Robert and Shirley Dittmer and their 3 children, Peter 7, Diane 4, and Daniel, 3 months, are residents of the new house at 616 Larkdale. They formerly lived on the northwest side of Chicago.

William and Wilma Canfield call the new house at 930 Prospect Manor, home. They lived on the north side of Chicago before moving to the Meadows. William and Wilma are both employed—William is a printer for Chicago newspapers, and Wilma is associated with Avon products and works in the Merchandise Mart in Chicago. They have a dog called "Snowy" to keep them company.

Recuperating

Everyone is happy to hear that Joyce LeBrun is home again after a 3-day stay in the hospital following the automobile accident in which the LeBrun family was involved December 3. Joyce is still having trouble with her leg and back, but her condition is improving every day. Ray was thrown from the car and suffered multiple bruises and he is gradually feeing better also. The children, Gail, Judy and Ritchie were unhurt.

Nine-month old Karen Murdock, daughter of Bill and Marge Murdock, has been very ill with whooping cough for about 4 weeks. Friends and neighbors will be happy to hear that she seems to be improving now.

Raymie Larson, son of Ethel and Raymond Larson, was confined last week with the 3-day measles.

J. C. Cassie, Mt. Prospect, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. R. Woodruff, has been in Resurrection hospital since December 3 when he was injured seriously in a fall in his home. Mr. Cassie fell when a ladder which he was ascending to his garage attic, slipped. He broke his back and suffered internal injuries. Reports are that he is recovering satisfactorily but must remain in a walking cast for the next 6 months.

Card Clubs

Bob-O-Link canasta club held their monthly meeting at the home of Marge Blim last Wednesday evening. Present for an evening of cards followed by refreshments were Ruth Burt, Vera Valentine, Chris Pelletier, Nora Roths and Lisa Wells.

Carol Wilkins entertained her bridge club last Thursday evening. Seven girls from Chicago spent the evening in the Meadows playing cards and enjoying refreshments served by the hostess.

Out-of-Town Guests

Daryl and Ruth Burt and their children, Billy and Cynthia Ann, are happy to have grandfather, Roy Burt, Smiths Ferry, Pa., visiting them for the holidays.

Ray and Nora Roths entertained an out-of-town guest for the weekend. Bob Wallace of Williamsburg, Ia., an Army buddy of Ray, spent a pleasant weekend visiting Ray and Nora and their boys, Marty and Ray. Sunday afternoon the 2 men attended the football game at Wrigley Field between the Chicago Bears and the Philadelphia Eagles.

Jim Cummins has been in New York to attend the National Association of Display Industries convention. Evelyn Cummins and Gail and Millie Webber saw him off at O'Hare airport Saturday evening.

Jim Cummins Jr., is expected home this weekend from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, to spend the holidays with his family.

Housewarming

A small planned party turned into a big, wonderful surprise housewarming December 3 at the home of Bert and Dorothy Johnson. Instead of the 5 couples Bert and Dorothy invited, 20 couples arrived and brought a lovely clock as a house-warming gift. The guests included both parents of the couple-Mr. and Mrs. James Shoberg and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson.

Ray and Ethel Larson and their children, Linda, Terry and Raymie, spent a pleasant day last Sunday. First they had dinner at the Union hotel in Wheeling and then drove on to Antioch to visit Ray's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larson and children Chuckie, Kenny and Diana.

Chris Pelletier, a member of the League of Women Voters of Arlington Heights attended the first membership tea of this organization at the home of Mrs. Law of Prospect Heights, last Wednesday evening. The League has approximately 100 members, was formed 1 year ago and hopes to be recognized by the National League in the next few months.

Christening

Sheryl Katheryn, 6-month' old daughter of Art and Kay Sepke, was christened Sunday at St. Mark Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect. Her sponsors were Millie Webber and Ed Hollasch. Following the ceremony Art and Kay entertained the following guests at their home for dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Art Sepke Sr., Gail and Millie Webber and sons Larry and Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hollasch, Mrs. June Junkrowski, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Leazer, Miss Phyllis Katz and Mr. Larry Lolli.

$514 To Hospital

Can Any Driver Resist Appeal Of This Letter?

The following letter was written to the Elmira (N.Y.) Advertiser and brought to the attention of Paddock Publications by the safety committee of the Arlington Heights Lions club:

DEAR DRIVER

A few weeks ago, I saw a little girl struck by a car as she tried to cross the street. I saw a father race toward her and hold her to him as she struggled in the agony of death. I saw all the plans that had been made for her dashed and I saw the look of despair that came over his face. I could only offer a prayer that such a thing might never happen again.

Today my daughter, who is 6 years old, started off to school. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Scoot, watched her leave and whined his belief in the folly of education.

Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, a girl with yellow curls, and about the boy across the aisle who makes faces; about the teacher who has eyes in the back of her head; about the trees in the school yard and the big girl who does not believe in Santa Claus.

We talked about a lot of things — tremendously vital and unimportant things.

NOW, as this is written, she is sound asleep with her doll "Paddy" in her arms.

When her doll gets broken or her finger gets cut or her head gets bumped, I can fix them. But when she starts across the street — then, Mr. Driver, she is in your hands.

Much as I wish I could, it's not possible for me to be with her all the time. I have to work to pay for her home, her clothes, her education.

So, Mr. Driver, please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully. Please drive slowly past schools and at intersections. And please remember that sometimes children run from behind parked cars.

Please don't run over my little girl.

With deepest thanks for whatever you can do for her, I am,
Very sincerely yours. (B7

Keenan Clashes With Township Assessors

Telling the township assessors that their offices were "one of the worst things in local government," county assessor Frank Keenan has started a war that promises to grow into a full size battel with the township assessors of the county.

Keenan is asking the county board for an appropriation of $150,000 to enable him to hire 30 "co-ordinators of assessments," one for each township in the county. Keenan says these "co-ordinators" are needed to see that all the new buildings are put on the tax rolls.

He seems to lay the blame for all the faults of the assessment machinery at the door of the local assessors and says their offices should be abolished.

The township assessors fired back with the charge that Keenan was trying to build up a political machine of political flunkies, who would usurp the function of the duly elected assessors and take over the local governments. They feel that this move is one more effort toward the dictatorship of a centralized government and they are prepared to fight this latest move to the limit.

THE ASSESSORS point out that the reason that property is not on the tax rolls is the fault of Keenan's office, not theirs. They report all building permits to the county assessor's office, and if the property is not put on the rolls for years at a time, it's the fault of Keenan's office, as his office has the full say about improvement valuations.

The laxity of the county office in getting property on the rolls has become notorious and a scandal throughout the county. The assessors say that even with his 30 "co-ordinators" the personal property assessment would still be their grief as the new co-ordinators will only be supposed to be real estate experts.

John Gutknecht has entered the picture by promising prosecution of any assessor or assistant who fails to perform his duty. In a letter to Assessor Keenan, Gutknecht adds "I see no reason why the township assessors cannot do their part in remedying the situation, the only alternative (in addition to prosecution) is to try to get the legislature to pass legislation concentrating the assessment job in the hands of one official for each county. Such a drastic measure, however, could not be considered until we prove by enforcement that the present laws are unworkable."

The township assessors claim than it is done under the present assessing all property, they could do the job just as well and better han it is done under the present system.

The assessors plan to fight Keenan's bid for the $150,000 appropriation before the county board when the budget hearings come up before that body.

KEENAN gives as a reason for his action the complaints of many school districts that great amounts of improvements do not get on the tax rolls when they should and he seems to try to dump all the blame on the local assessors who retaliate with the charge that if Keenan's office were on the ball and working efficiently, it wouldn't take up to 5 years to get improvements on the tax book after the permits had been reported by the local assessors.

Twenty-six out of the 30 township assessors met with Keenan last week in a 2-hour meeting that was anything but friendly.

Home Owners Question Box

Q—Is there any way to remove squeaks from stairs?

A—Yes, usually one or more nails through the tread into the riser will stop the squeaking. Screws will do a more permanent job.

Q—How can I replace old windows and still maintain the authenticity of an early-American hours?

A—Ponderosa pine double hung windows come in a wide variety of different styles. Among these are a number of early-American type windows, with small "Mullioned" panes. All ponderosa pine windows are chemically treated to keep them from sticking and warping.

Q—HOW CAN I prevent cold water pipes from "sweating"?

A Cover them with insulation Insulating warm water pipes gives another benefit. It prevents heat loss and protects adjacent woodwork.

Q—The lights in my kitchen occasionally dim. What does th mean?

A—This probably means there is not enough electricity coming into the kitchen. When the lights dim, this indicates that an appliance is taking some of the electricity needed for keeping the lights bright. The remedy is to have an electrician install an additional electric circuit in the kitchen.

Q—IS THERE any reason a thermostat must always be in the living room? I'd like to move mine somewhere else, where it won't be so noticeable.

A—The room that is most frequently occupied by the family is recommended by the Coleman Heating and Air Conditioning Institute, Wichita, Kan. The living room, dining room, or den might be equally satisfactory places. The thermostat should be at least two feet away from an outside wall and not more than four feet above the floor. Don't put it in the kitchen, for heat from the range or oven might affect it. Keep it away from lamps, the radio, or the television set.

Chest X-Rays At Arlington Thursday

Free chest X-rays will be offered residents 15 years old and over, Thursday, December 15, when a mobile unit is parked at the village hall, 101 W. Davis st., Arlington Heights.

X-raying hours are from 12 noon to 6 p.m.

The service is being provided by the suburban Cook county tuberculosis sanitarium district in cooperation with the Christmas Seal-sponsored tuberculosis institute of Chicago and Cook county and municipal health departments.

On The Prowl

Tuberculois can be prevented, yet every day in Chicago alone, 11 people fall victim to the disease.

Debators Win More Citations In Contest

Arlington debaters continued to show promise as 2 teams earned citations for excellence during a tournament at Northern Illinois State university last Saturday.

Bob Seigel, Mickey Harris, and Alice Olson defeated varsity affirmative teams from East Aurora, Rock Falls, and Thornton-Fractional before losing to Niles. .....

The Arlington sub-varsity affirmative of Judy Grose and Ann Carlson by defeating East Aurora, DeKalb, and Niles while losing to East Rockford.

Debating in the varsity division for the first time, Mary Jansen and John Peterson showed well by defeating West Aurora and LaGrange and dropping close debates to Downers Grove and DeKalb.

The sub-varsity negative of Jan Davenport and Eldon Kreider downed New Trier, but lost to East Aurora, Downers Grove, and LaGrange.

This Saturday, 4 squads of sub-varsity and frosh-soph debaters will participate in a practice tournament at Niles.

Following that tourney, intra-squad debates will be held to determine varsity and sub-varsity positions for important tournaments coming up after Christmas.

Junior Cotillion Uses School Colors For December 10 Dance

The Arlington Heights seventh and eighth grade Junior Cotillion Christmas dance was held December 10 in the high school cafeteria. Color scheme for the dance was red and white, the school colors. Table cloths were white crepe paper trimmed with red satin ribbons and the centerpiece was a large cotton snowman. The stage was outlined with large red and white canes and in one corner a white flocked Christmas tree with red satin bows. The flocking for the tree was donated by Bob Anderson.

A dance contest was held and the following were the winners: seventh grade, Carol Severson and Bob Jacobson, first, and Mercedes Condy and Craig Haase, second; eighth grade group 1, Diana Waterman and Chuck Rehfelt, first, and Judy Keith and Job Johnson, second; eighth grade advanced group, Larna Lide and Bruce Law, first and Linda Close and Steve Dahl, second.

December 21, 25 eighth grade Junior Cotillion couples will appear on Band Stand Matinee on channel 9 at 4 o'clock. Try outs are to be held at the field house Thursday from 3 to 5.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

A Christian, however, is never free from the demands of his conscience. There may be some weakness in our own position which has led to the state of affairs in which we begin to ask, "Put Christ back into Christmas."

IF THE WORLD ignores the Babe of Bethlehem in the commercial advantages of Rudolph and Uncle Mistletoe and Mamma kissing Santa Claus — perhaps this is one way in which the world says that the Babe of Bethlehem is not a particularly exciting event of the Christmas season. Or at least, that the world does not find Him exciting — possibly because Christians do not show enough evidence of excitement.

We ought to be willing to say, as churchmen, that the Nativity is not important and does not deserve the world's attention except as it is seen as part of the gift of God in Jesus Christ — in birth, life, death and rising again.

There is some danger that the churches have taken Christ out of the Nativity first, and that the department stores only followed the example and took Him out of Christmas. Possibly we have substituted a baby for the Babe.

WE MAY HAVE received the Nativity "under separate cover' as pleasant and picturesque little tales chiefly valuable for the display of our children in pageants and programs. Where children are usually born in antiseptic hospitals with all manner of scientific care for mother and child, it becomes quite easy to grow sentimental over a baby born long ago in a barn behind a hotel in a faraway country.

It is only in the light of the Scriptures, of the revelation of God to His people, that this event is filled with meaning. The Birth is inherent in the prophecies of Isaiah and Micah and Zephaniah; the Birth is reflected in the letters of Paul and John; the Birth is an incident in the Gospels of Luke and Matthew.

BEYONG THE spotlights shining on the manger crib, let us look to see the Light of the world. Beyong the words of "Joy to the World" as a seasonal song interspersed with "Jingle Bells" and "Deck the Halls," let us look to His life and death and rising to discover why "the good news" means "Joy to the World."

It is not enough to sit in judgment on the world for not making Christmas sufficiently Christian; we must find the Savior for ourselves. "And when they had seen, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child." When we find Him and tell about Him so that others may also find Him "in the fulness of His glory," we shall have no reason to despair of the degree of Christianity in the Christmas preparations.

Releases New Recording Of Yule Song

Merigail Moreland

Only 12 years old, Merigail Moreland of Rolling Meadows has accumulated an impressive list of accomplishments.

Latest success is a Christmas song she has recorded for Target Records.

The record, "I Want My Mommy and Daddy Together for Christmas," is now on juke boxes and being played by local disc jockeys. As a result of her successful recording, Merigail will soon appear on Jim Lounsbury's Bandstand Matinee on TV.

Merigail is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Moreland, 2007 Eastman st., Rolling Meadows. The Moreland family formerly lived in Park Ridge, but they have made their home in Rolling Meadows for nearly 2 years. Her father is a free lance radio and TV artist.

The young singer appeared on Morris B. Sach's Amateur Hour in April and won second prize. Last spring, she sang a leading part in the Kimball Hill school operetta. She's an active member of Junior Hi fellowship club and was selected queen of the Sadie Hawkins Day dance. She's also been selected as "Mrs. Santa Claus" for the club's caroling tours before Christmas.

Up And Doing Bakes Cookies For Veterans

Members of the Up and Doing 4-H club are baking cookies to serve as Christmas cheer for the hospitalized veterans at the Hines Veteran hospital. All cookies are to be turned over to Mrs. Alvin Moehling, December 17.

At the last meeting held at Judy Moehling's home, lessons and practical demonstration of how to make Christmas decorations was an enjoyable "how to do it yourself" program. The next meeting, December 27, will be held at Sharon Garlisch's house. Wishing all our members and friends a "Merry Christmas."

Charlotte Keller, Reporter.

Tractors And Tommy Don't Mix, But Police Save Day

Tractors are a weakness of Tommy Wagner, 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wagner, Kirchhoff rd., Palatine.

His mother was hanging wash Monday while Tommy played quietly in the yard. She turned her back for a moment, and the boy, gaily dressed in a red snow suit and brown boots, was off.

WHEN Mrs. Wagner looked for Tommy, he was gone. Gone, in fact, for 2 and a half hours.

"I was frantic," explained the mother. "I looked everywhere, but he just vanished."

Although she lives outside the jurisdiction of Rolling Meadows police, she phoned Police Chief Tom Ullock who immediately dispatched a searching squad. Meanwhile, trucks of Kimball Hill and Mrs. Wagner's neighbors joined the hunt.

TOMMY was found by Rolling Meadows police. He was watching tractors working on excavations half mile from his home.

"I'm so grateful to the police and Hill Homes," said Mrs. Wagner. "They were wonderful."

And Tommy?

It may be quite a while before he gets a chance to wander off to watch tractors again!

Arlington Teens Plan Easter Trip To Seaboard

The Easter season is giving thoughts of Christmas a hard time in winning the attention of 82 Arlington Heights high school students planning a trip to Washington and New York next spring.

The students will fly via Capitol Airlines for a 5-day tour of spots of current and historical interest. The trip is both educational and entertaining..

In Washington, students will tour the White House, the FBI offices, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Library of Congress, the Capitol, the Smithsonian institute, and the National Archives.

They will see the city from the top of Washington Monument, as well as visit such national shrines as the Lincoln and Jefferson monuments and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

A boat trip around the island and a tour fo the United Nations building are 2 high points of the stop in New York City.

SOCIAL ASPECTS of the trip have not been overlooked, and students will have dinner and see a show in one oi New York's leading night clubs.

Other social high points include the Easter show at Radio City Music Hall, a trip to the "Tonight" TV show, and a swimming party at the group's New York hotel headquarters.

Students will leave O'Hare field Monday, March 26, returning to Chicago Friday evening, March 30. Total cost of the trip to the student, including travel, lodging, meals, and tours is aproximately $125.

Students may still make reservations for the trip by leaving a $10 deposit with Larry Jenness. Deadline for reservations is Wednesday, December 21. Mr. and Mrs. Jenness will accompany the students on the trip.

Parents are invited to call Mr. Jenness for any additional information they may desire. He may be reached at the high school or at CL 3-3441. AMC

New Business Block On South Dunton St.

Krause & Kehe announced the sale this week of property at the northeast corner of Dunton and Sigwalt to Alan Briel. He is planning on the erection of 3 stores, the largest one to be used for the sale of poultry and eggs, a business in which he is engaged on his farm on Rand rd.

Two residences are being demolished to make room for the new building. The Dunton Court shopping center, originally planned by Krause & Kehe on the west side of Dunton, has transformed the appearance of that block into a downtown business center.

The only blot of the Dunton st. landscape are the 3 houses supposed to have been replaced by a parking lot months ago. Nobody seems to have a knife sharp enough to cut the legal red tape.

Northwest Area To Hit 100,000 Mark By 1980

Unprecedented growth in northwest suburbs will push population in this area to more than 100,000 by 1980 it was revelaed this week in a study made by Chicago Regional Planning association.

Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, and Palatine will have a combined population of 85,000 within 25 years.

MOUNT PROSPECT is expected to hit the 26,000 mark, Arlington Heights 44,000 and Palatine 14,000.

Giants of northwest Cook county will be Des Plaines with 53,000 and Park Ridge with 47,000.

Barrington will be 9,800 and Bartlett 2,000 by 1980.

POPULATION figures released for Wheeling are probably too conservative in light of current building. The study foresaw 1,600 by 1960 and 5,000 by 1980. It was estimated that Wheeling was at the 1,200 mark last year before building began and may hit the 1,600 mark within the next year.

Wedgewood Terrace

Children's Parties

Folks in Wedgewood Terrace, it is to be surmised, are as busy as everyone else getting ready for the approaching holiday season, but mothers realize that the youngsters of the family cannot be slighted when birthday time comes around.

Kathy Schafer was 3 December December 11. Her aunt, Miss Betty Schafer, came to see the family from Marengo as did Miss Schafer's fiance, Fred Hohmeier, who is also her brother Bobby's godfather. Just before Thanksgiving, Nov. brother Bobby's godfather. Just 23, the youngest one in the family, Jimmy, had his birthday. The family is happy that Jimmy, 1-year-old, who was born prematurely, had reached a weight of 20 pounds for that date.

Laura Lee Sailer was another 3-year-old in Wedgewood. She had playmates for her guests at a party December 1 Louanne Cisewski, Janice and Micheal Kwiecinski, Pat Schwinn and Karen

Arlington Terrace News

The Arlington Terrace Owners' association meeting was held at the field house December 7. Final arrangements are all set for the Children's Christmas party to be held in the North School auditorium. December 18, from 2 to 4 p.m. Santa Claus will be there and entertainment is planned for the kiddies.

The next association meeting will be held January 17 at the field house at which time plans for the forthcoming spring social event are to be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henry, 834 N. Hickory, had as Sunday guests Mr. Henry's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krueger, and two children of Chicago. Mr. Krueger is leaving Wednesday for Saipan for a 1½-year army assignment. Mrs. Krueger and children will remain with her parents in Edgar, Neb.

Mark Johns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Johns, 1017 N. Douglas, celebrated his second birthday December 7. Grandparents, aunts and uncles were on hand to wish Mark a happy birthday.

Mrs. Robert Carter, 1002 North Beverly left by plane Friday for California. Mrs. Carter will spend the Christmas holidays with her son and family at Ventura, Cal. The Robert Carter Jrs. are former residents of Beverly lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Quill, 921 N. Douglas, attended the St. Priscilla Christmas dance at the Bunker Hill country club Saturday evening. Several couples from Chicago accompanied them.

Eastwood Events

The December meeting of the Eastwood association brought out a lot of new faces, and it was most encouraging to the officers and directors who try to plan these gatherings with the thought that they must bring out the members. Many thanks to the hostesses, Mrs. Robert Burrow and Mrs. Norman Johnson, who set such a lovely table in the Christmas theme.

This Friday evening at 7:15 the annual children's Christmas party will take place downstairs in the field house. A numbering system will be used this year to avoid confusion in talking to Santa. Those arriving at the party early will receive the lowest numbers. In other words, first come, first served. Mrs. Frank Patton is in charge of this arrangement, and will distribute the tags on arrival. A magician will entertain the youngsters, after which Santa will arrive with his bag of toys. Refreshments will be served and of course Christmas Carols will be sung too. Members are urged to come and bring a neighbor.

New Arrivals

Becoming grandparents twice in 2 days was the reason for all the excitement around the Al Baier home last week. December 8 their daughter, Nancy, Mrs. James Kreiger of St. Joseph, Mich., gave birth to her first child, a girl. The next day, December 9, Mr. and Mrs. John Eiserman, who reside at the Baier home, became parents of their fourth child, a boy, whom they named Mark Andrew. The baby, born at St. Francis hospital, weighed 7 pounds 3 ounces. The couple's other children are Steve, 3, Pat, 2, and Janet, 1. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eiserman of St. Joseph, Mich. and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Anetsberger of Arlington Heights are the great grandparents.

The arrival of another citizen has been announced, the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nielsen. The baby, named Teri Lee, was born at Grant hospital December 9, and weighed 6 pounds 10 ounces. Her brother is Scott, 3 years old.

Moved

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Derus moved from their home at 501 N. Douglas to take up residence in Crestwood, N. Y.

Mrs. Irene Campbell of Los Angeles arrived by TWA Monday to spend a month visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Anderson, 218 N. Beverly.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newquist and their children, Kenny, 5, and Kristin, 2½, are busy moving into their new home at 407 N. Hickory this week. The family has been living with Mrs. Newquest's parents, the L. M. Gustafsons, 211 N. Beverly, while waiting for their house to be completed. Kenny has been attending kindergarten classes at the North school, so they have been pretty well established in Arlington Heights. However, we do want to wish them well in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Gustafson had as dinner guests Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Arnold of Lincoln, Neb. The couples became acquainted through their Burlington railroad connections.

Christmas Music Festival Sunday At Faith Lutheran Church

A Christmas music festival will provide the setting for the worship service and sermon at Faith Lutheran church, 431 S. State rd., Sunday, Dec. 18 at 10:45 a.m.

The vested Junior and Senior choirs, under the direction of Donald Busarow, will sing Advent and Christmas music by Bach and other famous composers. Miss Margaret Johnson of Concordia college, River Forest, has chosen Handel's "He Shall Feed His Flock" as her vocal number. The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens will conduct the service and give an advent meditation. Neighbors and friends are invited.

Coal Chemicals

Among the many contributions of coal chemicals to better living, and undoubtedly one of the most popular, is the "squeeze" bottle used today for lotions, shampoos and other liquids and made from a coal chemical called polyethylene, produced from coke oven gas.

Our Saviour Sunday School To Present Yule Program Sunday

The Christmas program of the Sunday school of Our Saviour United Lutheran church will be held Sunday morning at the regular Sunday school hour, 9:30. Parents of young people are invited as all departments of the school join in retelling the story of Jesus' birth in songs and recitations.

Boys and girls of the beginners' department will present the opening portion of the program. After a welcome to the parents by Diane Holditch, the following pupils will present Christmas prayers and recitations: Jacky Keeley, Steven Schumacher, Kenneth Machacek, Susan Brice, Scotty Blackwell, Debbie Carns, Bobby Behlke, Nancy Ellis, Sharen Petelle, Karen McReynolds and Heather and Bonnie Gerrard. All children of the department will sing 2 Christmas songs, "Away in the Manger", and "O Little Children, Do You Know".

Primary and junior departments of the school will present a Christmas pageant, "Love Lights the Christmas Tree", as their part of the celebration. Participants in this pageant will be Robin Miller, Philip Neas, Roy Woodruff, Steven Sorgatz, Richard Stedry, David Gooding, Bob Schulte, Ty Miller, Dick Ekstrand, Steve Heim, James Brettner, Charles Krueger, Joan Gran, Nancy Heilig, Alene Posselt and Steve Carns. Mrs. Raymond Woodruff will be the piano accompanist.

THURSDAY, DEC. 15, 1955

Serving as the planning committee for the Christmas program are Mrs. Kenneth Machacek, Miss Arlene Mortenson, Mrs. Donald Petelle and John Pringsten Jr. The final rehearsal for the program is scheduled for Saturday at 10 a.m. at Dryden school. All taking part are urged to be present.

New members are to be received into the fellowship of Our Saviours at the 10:45 service Sunday morning. At the close of the service a special congregational meeting is to be held for the purpose of securing congregational approval of a permanent revised financing plan for the parsonage property.

As part of the morning worship the Rev. John P. Petersen, pastor, will dedicate the pledges made by members last Sunday afternoon during the every-member visitation. According to the report of the stewardship committee every family reached during the visitation made a definite pledge toward the financial support of the church during the coming year.

Christmas eve service at Our Saviours will be a candlelight vespers to be held at 7 p.m. Dryden school. The senior choir will present special anthems. The time and kind of service have been chosen especially to provide a meaningful family worship for both children and adults of the congregation.

The showing of a film depicting the Christmas story will be a part of the Sunday school service Sunday, Christmas day, at 9:30 a.m. The festival service will be at 10:45 a.m. wit the Rev. Mr. Petersen preaching the sermon.

Girl Scout News

Senior Scouts

Parents of senior scouts are invited to attend their investiture to be held at the home of Mrs. Flo Hendrickson. Badges earned by the girls will be given at that time. As a troop, the girs have decided to take on the mariner scout program in addition to their other activities. Tangible results of the work done by girls of this troop were seen at the Northwest Cook county council meeting where 5 of the 6 girls chosen for the senior rally were from this troop.

The rally is held in early summer north of Detroit. It is a group of senior scouts chosen from among troops in this country and 17 other countries. District 4 is proud of its representatives.

Troop 23

Troop 23 divided into patrols meeting at their leader's home to make candles to be sent to the Lake Bluff children's home. These intermediate scouts also made tray favors to be used at Resurrection hospital.

Troop 19

Eighth grade scouts of troop 19 are going to have a Christmas party December 27 in the home of Kay Krebsbach, 715 N. Belmont. The planning of refreshments, games and entertainment are done by the girls.

Troop 11

As a service of project, girls of troop 11 made Christmas tree ornaments to be hung on the Juliette Low Christmas tree. Girls donated their dues which were inserted in the decorations to be added to the birthplace fund. This fund is used to restore Juliette Low's home in Savannah, Ga. It will be a museum for girl scouting and also a scout hostel for all girl scouts to enjoy.

District 25 Nominating Committee Deadline Jan. 9

Chairman Samuel Wit this week reminded community organizations who wish to send delegates to meetings of the nominating committee for members of the board of education of the public elementary school that 2 representatives should be chosen before the first meeting, to be held January 9.

Any organization is eligible to participate, according to the by-laws, "... that is non-political, non-religious, civic and/or educational in interest, that has been in operation during the two previous years, and that has officers properly elected in conformance with its by-laws."

Each such organization may choose 2 delegates and the names of such delegates should be sent to the chairman promptly so they can be notified of the meetings of the committee. Names should be mailed to Samuel Wit, 643 S. Newbury Place, Arlington Heights.

Delegates of organizations which have not previously been represented on the committee may be seated by a two-thirds vote of the other delegates. Since delegates normally serve 2 years and since 1 of the 2 delegates are to be replaced annually, new organizations should, at the beginning, designate 1 of the delegates for a 1-year term.

Purpose of the organization is to secure the best possible candidates for the board, selected by broad community participation in the study of the qualifications of possible candidates. Last year's effort, first year this method of selection of candidates was in operation, was considered eminently successful.

Newcomers Hold Luncheon Meeting

Newcomers club of Arlington Heights held its regular monthly luncheon yesterday, Dec. 14, at Paul Peterson's Supper club. New officers for the next six months were installed at this time, and bridge, canasta and pinochle were played after the luncheon.

Members of Newcomers bowling league are reminded that there is no bowling December 22 or December 29. Bowling will resume again Thursday, Jan. 5, 1956. The next luncheon meeting of Newcomers will be held January 11, and the next business meeting will be held at 8 p.m. January 19.

Presbyterian Women Plan Yule Program

The Christmas luncheon meeting of the women's association of the First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights will be held in Fellowship hall Wednesday, Dec. 21, at 12:30 p.m.

After the luncheon, a program will be presented, entitled "Romance of the Christmas Carol," written and directed by Mrs. Thomas Grisell. Participating in vocal selections will be Mesdames J. H. Zimmerman, Thomas Perkins, H. E. Carlson and Elmer Zillen, with Mrs. George Hasbach as organist. Narrator will be Mrs. Howard Froyd.

Devotional part of the program will be given by Mrs. Enoch Jordan. There also will be consecration of secretaries.

A nursery for small children will be provided during the meeting.

Reservations may be made through unit leaders, or by calling Mrs. Benjamin S. Benson Jr., Clearbrook 3-1730, by noon Monday, Dec. 19.

A board meeting will be held prior to the association meeting at 10:30 a.m.

Evening circles 9 and 11 will have a combined Christmas meeting Wednesday, Dec. 21, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Wayne Holloway 1004 Oakton. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Ray Sederberg and Mrs. D. Orihel and Mrs. Robert Zabel.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS, Carroll tackle Jack Dee, Mt. Prospect, has been one of the principal reasons the Carroll team has been known as a "steam-roller" team, outgaining opponents by rushing. At 6' 2", 215 lbs., Jack is one of the biggest and strongest men on the Carroll line and can be depended on for opening that hole for the ball-carrier. Coach Mickey McCormick labels him "one of our better linemen" and "a good, steady ballplayer."

Last year Jack was given honorable mention on all-opponents teams by several colleges, including St. Norbert (Wis.) and North Central. As a sophomore Jack operated as a defensive tackle until the rule change necessitated his playing both offensively and defensively at left tackle. One of three 215-220 lb. veterans at tackle, Jack has been a regular starter for three years and won his third varsity letter this year.

A sociology major, Jack was just initiated this month into the Carroll chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon, national social fraternity. He lettered three years in football at Sullivan high and was a member of the All North Section title team in his senior year. He is the son of Warren Dee, 707 S. Ioka, Mt. Prospect.

JOHN BUSCH OF PALATINE is expected to see plenty of action with Dubuque university cagers . . . There's a Rip Van Winkle on So. Cal football team, but he's no sleeper . . . He played first string guard as a freshman in 1945, joined the navy for 9 years, is now back as a sophomore . . . First 6 tackles with the 49ers average 252 pounds . . . One of the announcers at the CYO boxing championships at the Amphitheater Dec. 16 will be George O'Connell of Palatine . . . John Dolce of Inverness in Palatine will referee.

All-time record high 4,452 Michigan State students purchased in advance tickets for the Rose Bowl game with about 2,600 slated to travel on 6 special trains.

Frosh wrestlers at Grinnell include Griffith Pritchard of Prospect Heights at 123 and Bruce Wilkerson of Prospect Heights as heavyweight . . . Both are Arlington graduates . . . Elmhurst Travelers semi-pro gridders who won the Bi-State championship, held their annual banquet Monday night . . . Illini's last "part-time" football coach from 1907-1912, Artie Hall, died in Danville 2 weeks ago . . . Stories of how Hall practiced law in Danville and entrained daily for Champaign are legend . . . He was the coach of the famous 1,000 per cent team at Illinois in 1910 which won all 7 games over Millikin 13-0, Drake 29-0, Chicago 3-0, Purdue 11-0, Indiana 3-0, Northwestern 27-0 and Syracuse 3-0.

Hall tallied a 100-yard TD against Carlisle in 1897 in the only night football game Illinois ever played.

Let's hear from you Michigan alums . . . One sports writer cites the record of All-American Ron Kremer as playing "outstanding ball against Missouri, average against Michigan State, missed half the Army game after injury, sat out NU and Minnesota, great for 3 quarters against Iowa, just another player agains Illinois, played well against Indiana, thrown out of the Ohio State game" . . . Libertyville's new gym with "half" seating capacity installed had 3 full houses in the first 4 nights, may install additional bleachers for another 1,200 persons.

NOT ALL ALL-STATERS are going into physical education schools . . . 2 plan pre-med, 4 engineering, zoology, math, pre-theology and 11 phys ed . . . Oak Park's George Rantis, by the way, can speak French, Greek and Spanish fluently . . . Took it up as a hobby . . . Wrestling starter at 130 pounds for Illinois is Arlington's Norb Sargent . . . Some pro footballers feel J. C. Caroline won't make the grade because of a neck injury suffered his junior year at Illinois which prevents his lifting 1 arm above shoulder heighth . . . That was probably why he will be shifted to linebacker instead of halfback with Toronto.

Newest honorary award for athletes in these parts are "best training" tropies at Libertyville where an adult committee watches the activities of high school athletes.

Bradley U. cage starter is Chuck Sedgwick of LaGrange, smallest man at 6-1 on a team that averages 6-6 . . . Two LaGrange boys at DePauw expected to be heard from are Dave McKeag and Joe Lawlor with the cage team . . . From Southern Illinois comes word that the university has high hopes for a good wrestling season "in spite of grades and wives" . . . Evidently some wives don't want their husbands to compete.

WE'VE BEEN CHASTISED for not devoting more space to wrestling, so here's the "inside story" on what's happening on the grappling front at Arlington Heights high school . . . Three boys are still undefeated in matches thus far, Al Rose, Capt. Jack Ebert and Ed Beier . . . We erred last week in saying Vic Carllno is still at Heights . . . It's his brother, Ralph . . . Both boys were among the winners in Waukegan Christmas tournament last year, with Vic copping the 112 pound division, Ralph taking third at 95 . . . Other Heights boys taking places a year ago were Floyd Burns 2nd at 165, Johnny Heintz 3rd at 154, and Wally Mulso at 145.

First gymnastics meet for Arlington Heights high school has been scheduled at home against Leyden Friday night, Jan. 6 . . . Gymnastics exhibition will be given between halves of Friday night's Downers game, by the way.

York wrestling coach A. J. Stefani appears to have another winner in the making with Allesi at 95 pounds . . . Penna of York was last year's 95 pound state champ . . . Glenbard cage coach Bob Metcalf practices what he preaches . . . He's playing for Wheeling Blackhaws, semi-pro basketball team, and scored 20 baskets in 38 shots for the 'Hawks Monday night to total 47 points . . . His team whipped Cary, Ill., 116-87 . . . He tallied 13 buckets and 28 points Sunday night . . . And to think we were the ones to place him with the team.

Athletic officials association meeting at Bismarck hotel in Chicago Thursday night, Dec. 15, will feature Otto Kuehn, basketball interpreter, discuss officiating technique . . . It's a good opportunity for young officials to learn "how to be at the right place on the floor at the right time," with all officials interested in joining welcome to attend.

Arlington Wrestlers To Compete Dec. 22-23 In Waukegan Tournament

Waukegan's second annual invitational wrestling tournament is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, Dec. 22 and 23, with Arlington Heights grapplers joining those from Elgin, Evanston, New Trier, Oak Lawn, Proviso, York and the host school slated to compete.

Times of the matches are 8 p.m. Thursday night, Dec. 22, and 2:00 and 8:00 Friday. Competition will be on 2 mats, side by side, until the finals when just 1 mat will be used. Tournament places shall count 10-7-4-2 towards the team trophy won by Proviso last year. Arlington finished fourth last year behind Oak Lawn and Thornton.

Admission prices will be 60 cents for adults, 35 cents for students.

Plan Halftime Shows In Double Weekend At Home

Arlington's basketball Cardinals, outscoring 6 opponents by 40 points while losing 4 of the games, have a double weekend at home on tap this week, both West Suburban conference games. Downers Grove will come to town Friday night, La-Grange Saturday.

The Cardinals lost to Maine by 2 points, and Leyden by 1 last week. They'll be out to reverse that procedure this time and chalk up some wins. It will be about the busiest weekend in sports history in Heights gyms with varsity and frosh-soph basketball both nights at home, JV and frosh basketball against York Saturday morning, varsity and frosh-soph wrestling against Glenbrook Saturday afternoon, and JV and frosh basketball against Leyden Monday afternoon.

THE CAGERS combined heart, determination and ability to almost whip favored Maine and Leyden last week, losing the 2 games by just 3 points. Gone from the scene was John Sujack, due to infraction of school rules. The team went on without him, ringing up the highest point totals of the year.

"The entire squad played their hearts out," stated Coach Howard Lester, "showing ability the boys, themselves, never knew they had." The squad looked good in losing games that could have gone either way. Shooting percentages were .380 against Maine, .334 against Leyden. Cardinals tallied 3 more baskets than Maine, but lost on free throws.

Bill Palmer pulled a muscle in the Leyden game, may not see much action this week. In that game the Cards scored 15-14-23-23 points in the quarters, a pace good enough to win most games.

The Heights frosh-sophs are in first place in the league, will be out to remain there with 6 victories already under their belts.

HALFTIME SHOWS are planned for between halves of this week's games, State gymnastics champs of Arlington will perform on the rings Friday night, led by state rings champ John Koeppen.

Dick Neiland, ranked second in the state, will also be on hand for the exhibition as will Bob Baas, Carl Krautwurst, Dick Kimbrough and Bud Holm. The group is determined to successfully defend the state title. Coach of the gymnasts is Gay Hughes.

The twirlers will put on the halftime show Saturday night, according to Fritz Schmoyer, music department head. The freshman corps of 8 girls will put on a show of 3 routines, always pleasing. Included will be Judy Schmoyer, Sue Shogren, Sherrie Warfsman, Sandra Peterson, June Hall, Bonnie Benson, Karen Brodahl, Marilyn Cheney.

The Heights frosh-sophs are in first place in the league, will be out to remain there with 6 victories already under their belts.

To Award 7 Trophies At Pontiac Tourney

Arlington's basketball team will have a chance at 7 trophies in the approaching Pontiac holiday tourney Dec. 27-28-29. Four awards will be given in the championship division, with 3 to be made in consolation round.

The tournament is a double elimination affair, with 16 schools slated to compete. A team losing in the championship division will then play in consolation. Two games will be played each morning, 3 in the afternoon, 3 in the evening, all in the national guard armory.

Admission prices for the tournament are 50c and 35c for mornings, 75c and 40c afternoons, $1.00 and 50c evenings. Season tickets, both students and adults, are $5.00.

Actual pairings still haven't been released.

Palatine Gets Regional, Heights The Sectional

Arlington Heights high school will again be host to a basketball sectional in the spring, with Palatine entertaining the regional for the area. In addition, the Arlington Heights sectional winner will oppose the city of Chicago winner in Northwestern university's McGaw hall in first round game of the Sweet Sixteen tournament.

Those were the main features of an announcement by the state high school association office listing district, regional and sectional sites throughout the state. Districts are of little interest as far as the West Suburban and Northwest conferences are concerned except for St. Edward at Elgin.

BUT REGIONALS are, with Palatine, York, Riverside-Brookfield, Evanston and Hinsdale, all earmarked for regionals. Sectionals will be held at Arlington and Hinsdale. District play will start Feb. 20 with regionals the following week, then the sectionals. Sweet Sixteen games will be played Tuesday, March 13, in 8 sites about the state, then down to Champaign for Friday and Saturday games.

The work of assigning 678 schools to district and regional tournaments is now underway and will be announced about January 15. Other regionals for this end of the state include West Aurora, Crystal Lake, Joliet, DeKalb.

Regional winners at Crystal Lake, DeKalb, Evanston and Palatine will meet in the Heights sections. Hinsdale sectional will include regional winners at West Aurora, York, Joliet and Riverside-Brookfield. Hinsdale first round of Sweet 16 game will have Hinsdale sectional winner meeting Kankakee sectional winner.

At Kankakee sectional the four teams will come from the regionals at Bradley, Fairbury, Gardner, and Hoopeston.

THE LINEUP of teams for the various regionals has not been named and will as usual come out early in January when the coaches will rate the teams in their area for regional first round seeding. It is expected that the same teams will compete in the Palatine regional as at Glenbrook last year and Palatine in 1954 with the eight team set up including Arlington Heights, Barrington, Libertyville, Grayslake, Ela-Vernon, Wauconda, Glenbrook and Palatine.

This should be a good tournament as Ela, Wauconda, Libertyville and Glenbrook are all much stronger than a year ago. Arlington, who took last year's tourney is just as strong and Barrington is good enough to be a contender. The regional will start Tuesday February 29.

AT CRYSTAL LAKE the host school plus Elgin, Antioch, Dundee, Grant, Woodstock, McHenry and the St. Edward district winner will make up the teams entered. At this time Crystal Lake and Elgin would appear to be the main contenders. At Evanston probable teams are Zion-Benton, Warren, North Chicago, Lake Forest, Waukegan, New Trier, Highland Park and Evanston. Where Niles and Maine Twp. would be placed is a question.

Bensenville of the Northwest conference will likely play in the Lisle district or the York section- and 23, varsity wrestling, Waukeal to which it is connected. (Spgan holiday tourney.

Palatine To Host Wrestling Tourney

by JOE GODDARD

The 1955 Christmas holidays will allow Palatine township high school to present its first invitational wrestling tournament to be held December 27 and 28 at the high school gymnasium. First round matches will start at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, 27, the semi-finals the final afternoon at 2 p.m., and the finals at 7 p.m. that night.

Eight schools, including Palatine, have accepted. Other teams represented will be Aurora West, Crystal Lake, Glenbrook, McHenry, North Chicago, and Wheaton Academy.

Referees, timers, and scorers have been selected with a team trophy presented to the winning team. Medals for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in each weight will be awarded.

THE STANDARD tournament scoring system will be used in which 7 points is awarded the first place team in each weight bracket they've won, plus an additional point for each match taken by a boy. Second place in each weight receives 5 points, third place 3 points and fourth place 1 point.

There will be 12 individual weights and a four pound allowance will be permitted to qualify.

Each school must enter a man in each weight. All matches will be six minutes in length, divided into 3 periods of two minutes with no rest between periods.

Arlington JVs Win Over Maine, N. Chicago

Arlington's JV basketball team tallied 2 victories over the weekend, both at home. Maine succumbed Saturday, 65-58, and No. Chicago Monday, 61-45.

Tom Jacobsen led the way for Coach "Bus" Ormsbee's JVs Saturday with 7 baskets and 8 of 10 free throws for 22 points. Dan Vittum scored 15, Wayne Haemker 13 and Dick Seich 9. High for Maine were Gehring with 14 and Hawk with 13.

Arlington JV	17	33	47	65
Maine JV	14	26	48	58

A 20-19 third period gave Heights JVs the game Monday, after No. Chicago had kept even most of the first half. Tom Jacobsen again led the scoring with 20 points. He has scored 68 points in 3 games to date, a 23 point average.

Dick Seich counted 14, Pat Brownell 10 for the Cardinal reserves. For No. Chicago it was Jenkins with 14 and Michalski with 13.

HIGH SERIES of the year was rolled at the new Jeffery Lanes, Wolf road, Wheeling, Friday night by Art Cameron, Jr., who calls Wheeling home but is a Palatine businessman. Art bowls for the Amvets in Friday Night league at Jeffery Lanes, and hit games of 245-235-225 Friday night for a 705 series. Night before in Thursday league he notched 609 series. —Staff Photo

Saturday Eligible Date For Paddock Bowling Tourney

History might repeat itself Sunday, Jan. 8, at Beverly Lanes when the Minute Men might walk off with top honors in Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament. That is the day of the men's tournament when an expected 52 teams will vie for 9 trophies and $390 in prize money.

The Minute Men of Barrington are currently leading the Palatine House league at Hi-Way Recreation. Three other squads are still in the running with all of them having a chance to make first place by Friday night, Dec. 16 and become eligible for the big event.

FIRST PLACE squads of all men's leagues as of Dec. 17 at bowling establishments within the area served by Paddock Publications are eligible for the fifth annual Inter-League tournament. Deadline for entries is at publication office Saturday, Dec. 24, with entry fees of $16.50 due. These blanks can be secured from the various alleys, as well as from tournament promoters.

Time reservations are all-important. Beverly Lanes, just east of the Arlington Heights water tower, has 16 alleys with automatic spotters. Squads will roll at 1:00, 3:15, 5:30 and 7:45. Last year's list of 42 teams is expected to grow to 52 this time. Four squads will mean up to 64 teams can be handled.

FIRST OFFICIAL complete entry, names, averages and money, was received from Our Lady of the Wayside league with House of Duro carrying league honors. Last year's men's tournament champ was Haseman Truckers of Palatine, second time they won the event.

Women's tournament will be held the week following Sunday, Jan. 15, at Trausch - Linden Recreation with first place teams as of Dec. 24 eligible. Deadline for entries in the ladies half of the tourneys will be Dec. 31.

Same entry fees will be due for the ladies, with complete details given on posters in all of the various alleys. Women's leagues of 4 bowlers per team can add a fifth lady kegler from the league for the tournament. Though Paddock Publications sports department is asking for first place teams in the tournament, it is actually up to the league officers to select their loop's representative in event of dispute or tie.

BOB COATES appears to balance the ball on his fingertips in this brief moment of the Palatine-Fenton basketball game Saturday night on the Pirate court. Actually, a basket had just been made for Palatine with Coates tipping the ball out of bounds as the Bisons prepare to take it out.

Move Sophs To Starting Spots For Palatine

by G. A. MCELROY

Northwest conference goes into a double weekend of basketball before the layoff for the Christmas holidays with games both Friday and Saturday night. After the shooting is over Saturday night there will not be more than one undefeated team possible in the conference. Undefeated Ela-Vernon is host to Wauconda Saturday night and even if they whip Grayslake and Fenton on Friday one will have to relinquish the top spot on Saturday.

Saturday's game at Lake Zurich should be quite a battle with Wauconda height against Ela speed and ball handing. Wauconda's Gene Jaskot who is leading the league with 68 points in three games will be aided by six foot seven Ed Okpisz and six two Bill Winberg in the front court while sharpshooting little five foot five Koko Svec and husky Bob Pintozzi will be at the guards. Ela has in Al Bathrick the second high scorer with 64 points teaming up with speedy Ronnie Soos at the guards. Lee Bathrick barely six feet is at center with Lyn Becker, only tall boy on the squad, and either Ken Stanciu or Ron Meyer at forwards.

SIX TEAMS have given evidence of being in the running this year. Of this sextette Fenton and Antioch have the most rugged schedules this week which could make or break them. The Bisons play league leading Wauconda on the road Friday and then come home to meet Antioch on Saturday. Antioch likewise has its hands full with Glenbrook at home on Friday and a 50 mile trip to Bensenville to meet Fenton Saturday. Neither team can stand worse than a split for the weekend.

The way the Bisons are rolling along no one can tell what they will do. At Palatine last Saturday they looked like anything but contenders the first quarter but after that they looked like champs. Fenton is gaining momentum and may be the surprise team of the season. Johnson, Heinrich, Tecza, Henriksen, and Helms make up a combination which may be the best since the championship days of the late forties when Bob Tholander was going great guns for Bensenville.

PALATINE COACH Gene Moylan moved up Jim Eldridge and Jerry Segebrecht, a pair of rangy sophs who tower above 6 feet, to team with Chuck Wisner and Jordan Danforth who were moved earlier from the soph team. A building job is on and the 4 sophs will see a lot of action the rest of the season in varsity uniforms. Dave McClung and Roy Hahnfeldt, juniors, and Bob Coates, Roy Burns, and Pete Trenchard, seniors, will be the upper class players who will, with the sophs, bear the brunt of the playing the rest of the season. This group of 9 might develop into a pretty good ball team before the season ends.

This weekend the Pirates face a real task meeting rangy Grant at home Friday night and traveling to Glenbrook on Saturday. Grant may become the best in the league before long with a veteran team of Tom Bossow and Bob Neuman at forwards, 6-5 Pat Tierney at center, and Denny Hodge and Ronnie Madden at guards. After playing at Palatine Friday night Grant will play at Grayslake on Saturday with a fine chance of copping a pair and moving up in the standings to 3-2.

Like Palatine, Grayslake has a suicide schedule for the wekend. The Rams take on Ela-Vernon and then Grant with little chance of escaping that cellar tie with Palatine until the two meet at Palatine on January 13.

NEXT WEDNESDAY Palatine will entertain the Barrington Bronchos who have slowed down to a trot in comparison with other years but are still a factor in the North Suburban race. Barrington has split four games winning from Libertyville and Zion and losing to Crystal Lake and McHenry.

With John Walbaum back in the lineup after being laid up two months with a broken ankle in football, the Bronchos are beginning to move and are expected to be much too tough for Palatine's Pirates. Barrington has only Walbaum and Miller from last year's team and they are not tall as basketball players go so Barrington is having what they call an off year.

Arlington Jr. Hi Cagers Split

Arlington Heights junior high school basketball teams split with Algonquin of Des Plaines Thursday of last week in the Heights gym. The heavies, coached by Bob Spinks, succumbed, 23-19, but the lights won, 32-12.

A scoreless second period stopped Arlington in the heavies contest, with Algonquin getting just 1 bucket that period. Fred Empkie tallied the 1 Heights basket the third quarter. The 17-10 third period margin was enough to whip Arlington.

Scoring for the locals was equally divided with Empkie snagging 2 buckets, and Mike Kent, Warren Myers, Bruce Ficthe and Ricky Johnston 1 apiece. Kent and Johnston each sank 3 free throws.

FOR THE LIGHTS Jim Kennady scored 7 times from the field with Bob Inman hitting 6 times. Arlington took a 10-0 opening segment lead, were 14-3 at the half, and stretched it to 24-9 going into the home stretch.

Bill Spomer dropped in 4 free throws in 6 attempts to lead the locals in this department.

Local Teams Lead YMCA Cage League Play

Competition has opened in YMCA church Li-Y basketball league in games at Algonquin junior high school, Des Plaines. Last year's 3 top teams have already suffered defeat. Two of these, Arlington Presbyterian and Des Plaines Congregational, are still looking for initial victories.

Strongest showings thus far have been made by Arlington Hi-Y Red Devils, Arlington Hi-Y Bruisers and Mt. Prospect Boobs.

Arlington Presbyterian cagers tripped St. John's of Mt. Prospect Tuesday night, 34-22, with Denny Hackbarth's 7 baskets and 1 free throw tops for the winners. Fox scored 9 points, Kirtz and Smith 4 each, Burgess 2. For St. John's it was K. Grams with 8, Boedecker 7, Sonstrum 4 and McGrath 3.

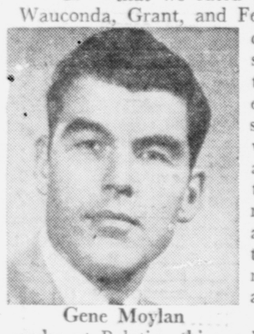
MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

PLAYING FOR THE PAST WEEK has convinced us that we rated Glenbrook and Antioch too high and Wauconda, Grant, and Fenton too low in our pre-season forecast. Ela-Vernon and Wauconda are showing their heels to the league with three straight wins but a double weekend coming up may scramble up the standings. We think a team might win the title with as many as 4 losses and certainly a 11-3 record should cop the trophy. It looks like a real 6 team race with every one of them having a chance. Only Grayslake and Palatine appear to be really out of the race and Grayslake has been making a good showing in defeat.



Gene Moylan

A shakeup all down the line is in order at Palatine this week as the 2 teams have taken 1 victory in 12 games. It appears that Gene Moylan will move up several more sophomores to the varsity team and build for the next two years in hopes of a good team 2 years hence. Art Zimmer will counter by bringing up more freshmen to the frosh-soph unit which has taken only 1 win in 6 starts. A number of seniors and possibly some juniors on the varsity squad may be cut from the group as an intensive building program gets underway.

PALATINE HAS HAD only 3 second division varsity basketball teams in the past 25 years. The worst was the 1931-32 team which won only 1 conference game as Carl Megel took over a squad with only 1 returning member. After Megel won 2 championships and moved away, Palatine, in 1935-36 era, faced a season with no varsity squad members returning and with the best 2 sophs injured in football. Palatine lost all games before Christmas but finally took 4 conference victories and a win over Arlington Heights.

Basketball was on the upgrade thereafter with 4 straight championships in 1939-43. Since 1943 Palatine has not had a varsity title in 12 years but has been below fourth only once and has nearly always been a contender.

Barrington has John Walbaum back in action on their cage team after a prolonged layoff with a broken ankle early in the football season. The Bronchos celebrated his return by whipping a strong Zion-Benton team to gain a 2-2 league mark. Barrington will be tougher with Miller and Walbaum of last year's team working together. The Palatine fans will get a look at the 1955 edition of the Bronchos next Wednesday night when Coach Bob Madding brings his outfit to the Palatine High gym. Madding states that this is Barrington's off season but the long string of Broncho wins over the Pirates seems due to be extended one more game.

THE ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL coaches clinic will be held at the University of Illinois December 18-19 with Ray Meyer of DePaul and Blair Gullion of Washington University of St. Louis heading the instruction program. High school coaches who will participate in the clinic are Alex Saudargas whose West Rockford team won the state title last year, and Jim Vopicka of Morton High of Cicero. Milt Sprunger will represent the Illinois High School Association on the program as its assistant executive secretary.

Among the 29 letter winners in football at Northern Illinois State college was Eddie Bauer of Grayslake winning his fourth varsity award. Up at Marquette university Jim Lumber, former Grant high football player, was one of 30 varsity lettermen named by athletic director Conrad Jennings. Ken Yaeger of Barrington was named for frosh numerals.

AMONG THE TEAMS coming to Palatine's first invitational wrestling tournament December 27-28, is Crystal Lake, one of the strongest which recently whipped another entry, North Chicago, by a 42-11 score. Palatine beat another of the 8 entries, West Aurora, 42- last Friday night and this week travels to Wheaton Academy, another entry. Others in the tournament are Oswego, Glenbrook, and McHenry.

Grant's holiday tournament scheduled for December 27-30 is still in doubt as finishing of the gym has hit the slowing up snag which seems to be peculiar to school construction in this area. Grant is playing all their games away from home for the time being and is practicing in their small cracker box gym, a real handicap to Coach Ray Collier who appears to have the makings of one of Grant's best teams.

Over in the North Suburban, Crystal Lake is still undefeated and in fact has not lost in or out of the league. No one seems capable of stopping the Tigers this season in their conference.

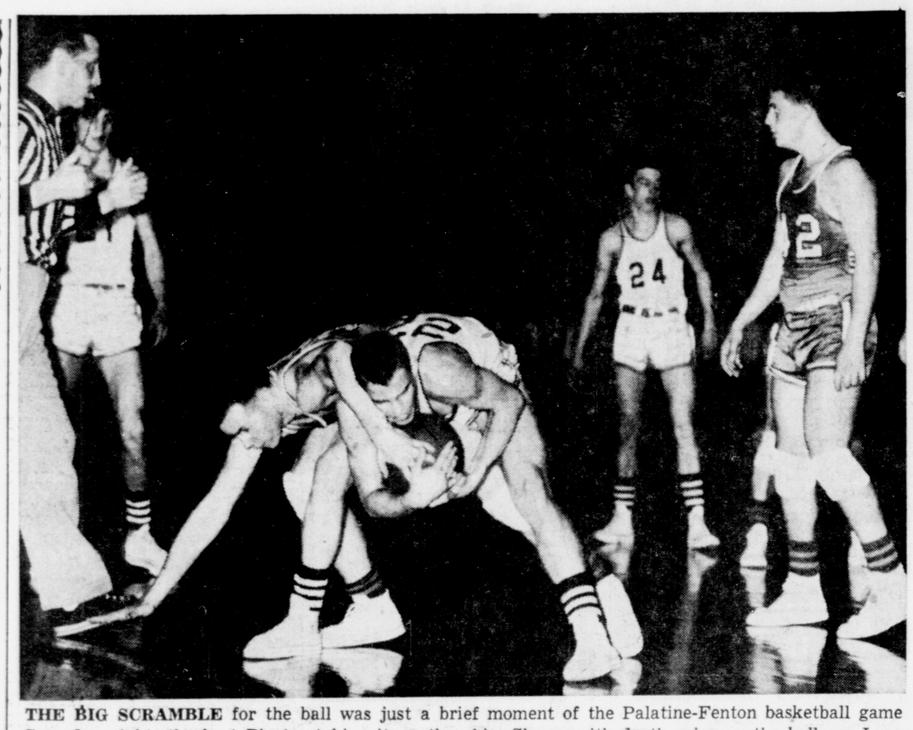
FENTON IS GOING to make a real bid for the frosh-soph championship. With a 6-4 center and a group of hustling boys who took the frosh tournament a year ago Coach Bill Jonkheer is going to have a tough contender. Antioch and Grant may prove to be the Bisons' toughest competition.

Fenton varsity has the size and rebounding but lack polish at this point to be rated a chance for the top spot. The Bisons are off to the best start in many years and will be in there all the way.



THE BIG SCRAMBLE for the ball was just a brief moment of the Palatine-Fenton basketball game Saturday night, the host Pirates taking it on the chin. Shown with death grips on the ball are Leon Langguth (31) for Fenton, and Bob Coates (22) for Palatine. Others watching the action include Palatine's Dave McClung (21) and Dick Wisner (24), and Fenton's Bob Heinrich (42). —Staff Photo

Fenton Drubs Palatine In Convincing Fashion, 69-48

by JOE GODDARD

A smooth, well-rounded Fenton Bison basketball squad headed by Phil Johnson and Lars Henriksen, ran up a convincing 69 to 48 score over the hapless Palatine Pirates in a game at Palatine Saturday which found 15 Bisons and 13 Pirates seeing action.

An inspiring shooting percentage of 46 per cent amazed Bisons fans as well as Pirates as a 28 point third quarter in which only three shots were missed was the highlight.

A TREMENDOUSLY effective fast break and an equally fine defense for Fenton was paced by Johnson's 25 points, high for the game, Henricksen's 20 points and fine ball handling, and Tony Tecza's fine rebounding and 11 points, nine coming on free throws. The Bisons trailed for only a moment at the beginning and slowly built up a strong lead until their third quarter eruption.

After a weak attack by Palatine's starting five had been repulsed, Coach Moylan inserted a complete underclass team which outscored Fenton's subs in the fourth quarter, 17 to 12, but the outcome had long since been established.

NINE PIRATES registered points but only Pete Trenchard succeeded in reaching the double numbers. His 10 points led Terry Moore and Rich Wisner who tallied 8 and 7 points in that order.

Once again a poor shooting percentage of only 28 per cent was registered by the Pirates. Statistics show Palatine's trouble is not in getting off enough shots but in finding the range on those shots.

Glenbrook's 12 Pts. In 65 Seconds Beats Grant

Glenbrook Spartans, having trouble living up to pre-season predictions, pulled one out of the fire Friday night with 12 points in the last 65 seconds to beat Grant 51-48 at home. Grant led all the way in a low scoring game for this day and age until the final minute of play. The Bulldogs were on top 12-5 the first period, 26-24 at the half, and 39-32 going into the last eight minute segment.

Neither team was on its scoring game and only 11 players got into the lineup. Sheldon Spalding, Glenbrook center, who scored 19 points was the deciding factor in the final stages when the Spartans rallied to win. Boyd of Glenbrook scored 15 and Madden of Grant got 14. Grant's center, Pat Tierney, was held without a basket from the field. (Sp

Pirate Sophs In 1st Win At Ela

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Palatine's frosh-soph team, with the help of 12 points scored by Terry Hicks, won their initial victory of the season by whipping Ela-Vernon 46-37 on Ela-Vernon's basketball court.

Palatine and Ela traded off baskets all during the first quarter, but at the end of the quarter, Palatine had the slight edge of 11-10. Palatine finally got rolling in the second quarter as Bruce King made 6 points to help Palatine compile a score of 22-14 as the half ended.

PALATINE was hot in the third quarter. They made 7 consecutive field goals in four minutes time to take a lead of 15 points. At the end of the quarter, Palatine still held this 15 point advantage and the score was 39-24. In the latter part of the fourth quarter, the Ela team began to click. Gallagher and Benjamin of Ela collected a total of 9 points to highlight a 14 point burst, but this was not enough. Palatine won 46-39.

Jerry Segebrecht and Bruce King scored 10 and 9 points respectively. Palatine made 48 per cent of their field goal attempts which is their best average this season. Wilson of Ela highlighted Ela's scoring with 14 points.

Ela Overcomes 1st Quarter Deficit To Beat Palatine By 22

by JOE GODDARD

One of the finest teams in the Northwest conference, Ela-Vernon, overcame a 15 to 12 first quarter deficit and romped to a 67 to 49 victory over the Palatine Piraes at Ela Friday. It was the Bears third conference victory in as many games and tied them with Wauconda for first place.

Ela's fast break combination, led by Al Bathrick, and an effective full court press were enough to pull them far enough ahead to allow substitutes to play. Twelve boys saw action for each team.

AFTER PALATINE had led in the first quarter, a strong Ela defense could net the Pirates only 5 points in the second quarter while an acute Bear offense poured in 20 points. A 19 point third quarter by the Bears built up a substantial lead allowing free substitution in the final period.

Balanced scoring by the Ela boys was evidenced when captain — guard Bathrick popped in 18 points and Pohlman, Stanciu, and Becker hit for 12, 11 and 10 points respectively. Pohlman and Stanciu played only half the game as they entered as subs.

BALANCED but weak scoring by Palatine had only 2 boys with 10 or more points. Bob Coates with 12 and Roy Burns with 10 were the two. A weak shooting percentage of 28 per cent and free throw percentage of 50 per cent by the Pirates were meager compared to Ela's 42 per cent and 72 per cent.

Wauconda Upsets Antioch Five, 69-63

Wauconda's Bulldogs notched their third straight Northwest victory and remained undefeated for Antioch 69-63 Friday on the home court. Gene Jaskot and Bill Weinberg led the attack for the league leaders with 17 points though Jaskot sat out most of the third period with four fouls and left on five before the finish. Frank Walso and Jerry Huml had 16 points apiece for the Sequoits.

Wauconda ran up a 16-4 margin in the opening quarter as Antioch could not find the range. Coach Leon's team came back strong in the second period to tally 26 points to Wauconda's 19 and narrowed the lead to 35-30 at half time. In the third period Antioch crawled up to one point behind the Bulldogs 51-50 but Jaskot led a last period surge to keep Wauconda on top.

Antioch's frosh-sophs won their second in three league games 58-44. (Sp

Palatine Frosh Edge Fenton

by JOE GODDARD

Palatine's freshman basketball squad evened up their season at 2 wins and 2 losses with a narrow 33 to 31 victory over Fenton at Palatine Monday.

Palatine dominated the first half and led 15 to 11 at half time, but a 14 point third quarter gave Fenton a two point lead at that time.

PALATINE'S Dick Welty gave the Pirates a tie breaking basket with five minutes remaining and the Pirates never lost the lead after that. Two following baskets built up their lead but a Fenton last minute rally put a scare into Palatine's victory picture.

However, a last second shot by a Bison fell short of the mark and Palatine had captured their second conference win, both by one basket.

Welty's 14 points and Dave Hodgson's 8 points were high for the winners but DiOrio's 17 points was high for the game.

Palatine's "B" squad won their game, 74 to 20.

Fenton Too Much For Grayslake

by BILL RIPPERGER

The Bisons scored "70 plus" points for the second time in 6 games Friday night at Fenton. Led by a junior guard, Lars Henriksen, they netted 25 field goals and 22 of 32 free throws to defeat the Grayslake Rams, 72-61.

Henriksen received the night's scoring honors for his 24 points, 5 baskets and 14 of 16 charities. Fenton's Bob Heinrich and Phil Johnson followed with 17 and 16 points, respectively. Ritta also collected 16 points for the Rams.

THE BISONS did not hit their strida until the second and third periods. Grayslake was able to stay close behind them during the first quarter. Bob Heinrich hit 3 jump shots for Fenton while free throws by Anderson and Ritta kept the Rams in contention. The score at the end of the period was Fenton 16, Grayslake 14.

As the second period opened, the Rams went ahead for the first time in the game, 18-16. Soon, however, the Bisons started a torrid scoring pace. Tony Tecza, Heinrich, and Henriksen piled up points for the "big orange" as they surged ahead to a 35-26 halftime lead.

CONTINUING after the intermission, Fenton kept increasing their lead. This time Henriksen and Phil Johnson carried the bulk of the scoring. 6'4" Phil drilled in 10 points and Lars connected for 3 baskets and 2 free tosses.

Grayslake, facing a 57-42 deficit, fought back in the closing stanza. LeDain scored 7 points for the Rams in the period but the Bisons reached the 70 point mark before the quarter was half over. Fenton's coach, Frank Novatny, then emptied the bench of substitutes, and, with little more than a minute remaining in the game, Bob Lang parted the cords with Fenton's last basket, a 25 foot jump shot. As the game ended the score stood, Fenton Bisons 72, Grayslake Rams 61.

Palatine Wrestlers Maul West Aurora

by JOE GODDARD

Palatine's wrestling team rebounded in splendid fashion from a Niles loss earlier in the week and thoroughly drubbed Aurora West's grapplers, 42 to 6 at Palatine Friday night. The win was their second in three meets.

Five pins and four decisions were registered by the Pirates as four Palatine boys, Jim McCreery, John Dilks, who has one tie, Andy Anderson, and Leonard Rhode, succeeded in maintaining their undefeated records. Eric Bessemer, also undefeated, did not wrestle.

McCreery, Karl Schwenk, Denny and Richard Lundgren, and Rhode pinned their men while Anderson, Richard Schollz, Dilks, and Frank Kiraly decisioned theirs.

Bill Sweet was awarded a forfeit to begin the match and, after Aurora's Johnson won his match, Palatine's lead was never in jeopardy.

Exhibition matches were won by Beyer, Manning, and Econonakos. The frosh-sophs did not wrestle.

Last Second Shot Gives Ela Frosh Win Against Palatine

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Bill Luerssen's set shot from mid-court in the final seconds of the game gave Ela-Vernon's freshmen a 29-28 victory over Palatine in a conference thriller at Ela Saturday morning.

Palatine led throughout the game, except for a 12-12 deadlock at the half. They led all through the fourth quarter until with 30 seconds left in the game the score was 27-27. Peter John then made a free throw for Palatine that looked like the winning point, but then Luerssen made his terrific shot.

Bill Luerssen, Ela guard, collected 11 points to lead the Bears scoring. Only one Pirate got in the double figures and that was Peter John with 10 points. This was Palatine's second defeat in three games.

Fenton Frosh-Sophs Move Into 2nd In Northwest Loop

by MAX ZOLLNER

Fenton's frosh-soph moved into first place in the sophomore Northwest conference league by defeating the first place Rams 44-30 Friday night on the Bisons' court. With this win the Bisons are the only frosh soph team undefeated in the conference.

Chuck Christiansen, Bison center, paced the Fenton squad to their victory with 20 points. Bernie Sell, Bob Meyer, Bryan Seeman, and Terry Biefeld, all Fenton sophs, accounted for the rest of the Bison's scoring.

With only three minutes left in the first period the score was Fenton 3, Grayslake 2. Both squads then started to score with Christiansen sinking seven markers for Fenton. As the quarter ended Fenton was on top 12-8.

THE BISONS pulled away in the second stanza outscoring the Rams 16 to 7 and led at the half 28-15.

Coach Jonkheer's Bisons were tops defensively in the third period as they held Grayslake to a lone basket. Accounting for this was a tight defense and good rebounding. Offensively Fenton scored 12 points to take a commanding lead of 40-17

Fenton cleared the bench in the final quarter. The Rams tallied 13 points to Fenton's 4 but could not overtake the Bisons third period 23 point margin.

Fenton Sophs Beat Palatine

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Fenton's frosh-soph team sparked by Chuck Christensen's 20 points, delivered Palatine their 5th defeat of the season. The game was played on Palatine's court, Fenton winning 48-40.

Palatine could not get started in the first quarter. They were losing 10-7 when Terry Hicks of Palatine helped start a rally by scoring 10 points. But the rally was short-lived as Ron Sell and Chuck Christensen compiled 12 points to put Fenton in the lead 24-19 as the half ended.

CHRISTENSEN again became a nuisance to Palatine as he scored 8 points in the third quarter. Ron Sell helped out with 4 more points to give Fenton the commanding lead of 37-27. Ron Hess tried to get Palatine started on a rally by scoring 5 points. However, Fenton continued to find their range and increase their score by 11 more points. In the final quarter Palatine scored 13 points in a vain effort to down their opponents. The final tally was 48-40 in Fenton's favor.

Chuck Christensen, 6'5" center for Fenton, scored 20 points including 12 free throws. Ron Sell was second high with 13. Terry Hicks, with 12 points, again highlighted the scoring for Palatine.

Arlington Frosh Trounce Maine Edged By N. Chgo.

Arlington's freshman basketball teams, both "A" and "B", are keeping Coaches Ken Schaller and Bob Baker, as well as the boys, hopping these days. The "A" squad whipped Maine, 55-28 but lost a heartbreaker to No. Chicago, 27-26. The "B" squad lost to Maine, 33-30, and to No. Chicago, 42-16.

The "A" squad had such an easy time of it against Maine Saturday, scoring almost at will, that overconfidence cost it the No. Chicago game Monday. All of these contests were played at Heights. Ten boys scored against Maine, led by Ed Whitelaw with 13. Don Smith, Allen Sander and Bob Bennett each tallied 3 buckets for the Heights cause.

Arlington "A"	12	22	38	55
Maine "A"	3	7	11	28

A bad first quarter when the "A" team tallied just 8 points to No. Chicago's 13 put the locals behind the 8 ball, from which they never rallied. Lee Magnuson tallied 4 baskets for Coach Schaller, Bob Barbour 3.

Arlington "A"	8	14	18	26
No. Chicago "A"	13	17	20	27

THE "B" TEAM fell behind by 5 the first period against Maine, rallied to within 1 at halftime, but fell behind by 8 going into the home stretch. Maine won, 33-30. Dwight Zeman scored 4 baskets for Coach Bob Baker, followed by Roy Garr with 3.

Arlington "B"	4	14	18	30
Maine "B"	9	15	26	33

The No. Chicago affair was a sad one as the visitors used their No. 6-10 boys against Arlington's No. 12-16 boys. Scoring for Heights was 5-3-2-6 in the quarters.

Second Half Rally Falls Short Cards Suffer Loss To Leyden

by PETE SWANSON

For the second time in 2 nights the Arlington cage squad saw a second half rally fall short. This time the game was against Leyden Saturday night on the Leyden floor. As the Cards proved against Hinsdale, it takes two good halves to win a ball game.

The Cards held the lead three times during the first period, but an Eagle flurry late in the quarter gave the home team an 18-15 edge. The Cards had trouble with a Leyden press in the period. Arlington also pressed but the Eagles were adept at handling the press. The Cards had an edge rebounding-wise in the period.

LEYDEN'S pressing tactics continued to bother Arlington in the second stanza and the visitors made mistakes and looked ragged. The Eagles pulled away to a comfortable halftime lead as Arlington seemed to be "down" from the Maine game.

The third period saw a Cardinal resurgence in the late minutes as the Lestermen learned to handle the press. Bill Randag garnered 8 markers to pace the Cards in the period.

ARLINGTON trailed 60-52 entering the fourth quarter and proceeded to fight its way back. Randag again paced a rally which narrowed Eagle margins to 64-63, 66-65, and 69-67. Leyden then opened gaps at 73-67 and 76-71. Baskets by Malzahn and Ashley narrowed the margin again but time ran out on the Cards.

Bill Randag was high scorer for both teams with 26 points, 20 coming in the second half. Bill Palmer was next for Arlington with 14 markers. Pacing Leyden was Ed Andres with 24 points. Tony Durante added 18 markers. The second half saw Arlington register 46 points.

Over the weekend the Cards lost 2 ball games by 3 points. They have dropped 4 games by 19 tallies. During six games they have outscored their opponents by 40 points.

Arlington Wrestlers Lose To Waukegan And York

Varsity wrestlers of Arlington Heights high school took it on the chin twice over the weekend, falling to Waukegan, 27-15, and to York, 29-19. The frosh-sophs won, however, tripping Waukegan, 31-19, and York, 35-10. Heights freshmen defeated Waukegan, 39-13.

"I'm not disappointed," insisted varsity mentor Dick Mudge. "It's never nice to lose, but the boys have improved so much in the past 2 weeks I am pleased the ydid as well as they did." Actually the York meet wasn't decided until the final match with Carl Klehm almost pulling a tie for the team until he was pinned.

JAC KEBERT, team captain, put it this way: "If we had wrestled Waukegan the way we did against Leyden, we'd have been skunked." The team now has a 2-2 record, will have to improve still more if the wins are going to out-total the los)ses.

This week the grapplers travel to Elgin Friday night, meet Glenbrook at home Saturday afternoon at 2, then compete in the varsity tournament at Waukegan Dec. 22 and 23.

JERRY BONN did a good job against York, though losing to Allesi, one of the best grapplers at that weight in the area. He won his match at Waukegan.

Ralph Carlino was not up to usual sharpness against Waukegan, but came back stron gagainst York.

One of the surprises was Clarence Trausch, up from the frosh-sophs for the first time. He lost and was pinned at 120, but performed well.

Roger Neunsinger was pinned at 127 by a good boy at Waukegan, then lost to York, 2-0.

Ed Beier and Capt. Jack Ebert both won matches, with Ebert winning by phenomenal 8-2 and 13-1 scores.

Another local wrestler improving though losing is Fred Steingraber at 145. He still lacks experience but shows plenty of fire and aggressiveness.

Al Rose won a decision at Waukegan and gained a pin at York, continuing his unbeaten string, and looking outstanding in the process. Carl Klehm did well at Waukegan, 9-6, but was pinned by York.

Arlington Loses To Maine, 59-57, After A Hard Fight

by PETE SWANSON

A gallant Arlington team, showing more desire than any Arlington team in years, went down to defeat Friday night on the Maine court. The game was a bitterly fought affair which saw the courageous Cardinals rally in the final quarter only to fall short in the end.

That final quarter began with Maine holding a 49-41 lead. A basket by Jim Summers, a jump shot by Ron Ashley, two free throws by Denny Striegel, and another jump shot by Ashley tied the score. The Demons forged ahead twice more but the gutty Ashley tied the score at 51-51 and 53-53. Maine then went ahead to stay on baskets by Kessler and Nelson. Ashley and Summers scored again for the Cards but time ran out.

AFTER MAINE took an early 4-0 lead, Arlington scored the next twelve points. The Cards pressed on defense and the Demons couldn't handle the press. After calling time out, the home team started throwing to their forwards and solved it. Arlington's margin was cut to 2 points late in the period, but a last minute flurry hiked the edge to 20-14 at the first period's end.

Scoring nine consecutive points midway in the second quarter, the Demons caught the Cards at 25-25 and took a 29-25 lead. Arlington tied it on a basket by Palmer and two free throws by Summers, but a last second tip-in by Glassenapp gave Maine a 31-29 halftime lead. Arlington dropped the press in the quarter and failed to work the ball in on offense. The Cards' shooting suffered and the Blue Demons outrebounded the Cards the entire first half.

SAME PATTERN continued up to the fourth period. Arlington didn't move the ball well, didn't get close-in shots, and its shooting suffered. Maine increased their lead to 8 points at the three quarter mark.

Ron Ashley, playing the greatest game of his career, led both teams in scoring with 20 points, many of these coming on jump shots of 25 feet or more. Jim Summers added 16 for the Cards. Maine was paced by Jack Glassenapp and Bill Liedholm with 16 and 14 respectively.

For the second game in a row Arlington outscored its opponent from the field but lost the ball game.

Wheeling Blackhawks Win 3rd; Metcalf Hits For 47 Pts

Wheeling Blackhawks basketball team opened their 1955-56 season with a double-header win over Richmond, and a crushing 116 to 87 rout of Cary. Paced by George "Boom-Boom" Newman, Larry Brumm and newcomer Ken Meyer, the 'Hawks had little trouble in gaining a 54-39 win over Richmond in the first game of a twin-bill Sunday night. Newman, was with the 'Hawks for the last three seasons until entering the armed services last January and currently has rejoined the club on his 20 day leave from Fort Bliss, Texas. The Fort Bliss soldier led the scorers with 20 points, and was followed by Brumm with 13 and Meyer with 10. Bill May was high for the losers wtih 13 points.

In the second game, 'Hawk Captain Hans Schmidt's two free throws with 15 seconds left gave Wheeling a dramatic 79-77 victory over the hosting Richmond five. Richmond grabbed a 21-13 lead over the locals in the first quarter. Paced by newcomer Bob Metcalf, former Valparaiso great, who tallied 13 points and the strong rebounding of Gino Dal Ponte and Ken Van Sickle, the 'Hawks came roaring back in the second quarter to hold a 36-35 half-time lead.

AFTER PLAY had ended in the third quarter, the 'Hawks had increased their lead to six points, with the score standing at 60-54 going into the final segment of play. The 'Hawks cooled off momentarily, enough for Richmond to forge ahead 73-71 with two minutes left in the contest. The two teams traded a pair of baskets, before Metcalf scored the equalizer.

Richmond gained possession and missed their attempt for the basket, with Schmidt getting the rebound. He was fouled by Nichols and with only 15 seconds remaining, the 'Hawk captain scored the winning margin from the charity line. Richmond missed a final shot with Van Sickle getting the rebound and Wheeling retained possession until the end.

Bob Metcalf led the scorers with 28 points on 13 field goals and 2 free throws. Runners-up were Judson and Tibbetts of Richmond with 20 and 18 points respectively, while Vic "Pop" Lesch and Hans Schmidt had 15 and 14 points.

MONDAY EVENING, the 'Hawks traveled to Cary, where Bob Metcalf set an all-time 'Hawk scoring record with 47 points as Wheeling routed Cary 116 to 87. After a close first half, that saw the locals leading 33-28 at the quarter and 56-52 at the intermission, the 'Hawk defense finally stopped Cary center Don Sheehan, who had virtually held Cary in the ball game single handed with 34 points in the first half.

While Sheehan was blanked from the field, the 'Hawks broke the game wide open, as Metcalf hit for 15, Lesch for 8, and Vic "Bevo" Heimsoth for 6 to give Wheeling a 89-71 lead as they entered the final quarter. After four minutes of the final quarter, Coach Gene Bell cleared the 'Hawk bench and the locals continued on to a 116-87 victory. Ken Meyer led the 'Hawks last quarter attack with 9 points.

SHEEHAN took top scoring honors with 49 points on 16 field goals and 17 charity throws, while Metcalf, playing slightly more than three quarters, hit 20 baskets from the field and 7 free throws for 47 points and runner-up honors. Metcalf's 47 points broke the team scoring record of 44, set by 'Hawk captain Hans Schmidt in 1952. Gino Dal Ponte and "Pop" Lesch followed with 14 and 12 points respectively.

Next week, Coach Bell's charges enter the Loyola Holiday Tournament in Chicago, where the locals hope to gain their first victory in A.A.U. competition.

3 In One Game

During the 1955 major season, The Sporting News pointed out, no hitter tied the mark of 4 home runs in one game. But 8 men socked 3 four-baggers. In the National League, 3 homers in one game came off the bats of Duke Snider of the Dodgers, Gus Bell and Smoky Burgess of the Reds, Del Ennis of the Phillies and Ernie Banks of the Cubs. American Leaguers to turn the trick were Al Kaline of the Tigers, Mickey Mantle of the Yankees and Norm Zauchin of the Red Sox.

Coaching Helps

Duffy Daugherty quote of the week:

"The week of the Wisconsin game I worked hard on Walt Kowalczyk to quit that kid stuff of shifting the ball from one arm to another and trying to straight-arm people. That's for high school players, I told him. Hang on to the ball!

"So against Wisconsin Walt ran 72 yards for a touchdown and on the way shifted the ball three times and knocked loose three or four tacklers with the prettiest straight-arms I've ever seen. It just shows what great coaching can do for a kid."

Good Average

Soph halfback Walt Kowalczyk led his Michigan State teammates in rushing during 1955 with 584 total yards and an average gain of 7.1 yards per carry.

2nd Year Cards Edge Leyden, 53-50

by PETE SWANSON

Arlington's Frosh-Soph cage squad journeyed to Leyden Saturday night and came home victorious 53-50. The Cards came from behind in the second half and hung on to take the game.

The Klotzmen took a 14-12 lead at the first quarter's end. The taller Leyden five dominated the boards but couldn't find the basket from close in. Arlington started slowly but picked up near the end of the period.

SECOND PERIOD was all Leyden. The home team controlled the boards and kept the Cards from getting many shots. The visitors failed to move the ball well and made mistakes at the wrong times. Trumbull bagged 11 markers in the quarter to help the Eagles to a halftime lead of 5 points.

Bob Lockwood picked the Cards up in the third stanza as he hit for 10 markers to pace Arlington to a 38-37 lead at the end of three quarters. The Cards worked the ball in more during the period and fared better under the boards. The home team's shooting suffered and the Cards scored eight consecutive points at one time.

MORE AGGRESSIVE defense and accurate shooting from the foul line helped the Cards open up a larger margin in the final seven minutes. The Cards scored nine straight points and twice enjoyed 10 point advantages. But an Eagle press hurt Arlington and a 53-43 edge was reduced. Time ran out before Leyden could catch the visitors, however and Arlington won by 3 points.

Leyden's Stan Trumbull, who had scored 30 points the previous night, garnered 20 to pace both teams in scoring. The young Cards were led by Lockwood with 13, Bjorklund with 12, and Caltagirone with 11. The Eagles outscorded the young Cards from the floor but the Cards made up this deficit from the charity line.

Maine Succumbs To Klotz-men, 45-38

by PETE SWANSON

Coach Maurice Klotz's sophs won another ball game Friday night at Maine. Although not playing their best ball, the young Cards led almost all the way and were the better team in the pinches.

Both teams were off in the early minutes before the scoring picked up. The opening period was nip and tuck with the home team once holding a one point lead, the only time the young Demons were ahead.

ARLINGTON pulled away to a 23-12 lead in the second quarter, but it was cut to 23-18 at halftime. During the first half the Cards shot better than their opponents, whose shotting was off the mark. Rebounding was about even in the opening half.

Maine showed a tough defense in the third stanza, and the Cards weren't able to work inside. The Blue Demons slowed their attack and moved the ball well, taking a shot only when they had a good one. As a result there was very little scoring in the period.

THE FINAL quarter started with both teams missing scoring chances. At one point the home team cut the margin to a single basket, but the young Cards held a lead of 4 to 6 points most of the time. Arlington controlled their defensive board in this period. The Demons pressed in the final three minutes and fouling became heavy.

Sam Caltagirone led Arlington with 12 points, 10 of these coming in the first half. Maine was paced by Ball, who also had 12 markers.

Frosh-Soph Grapplers Win 2 Over Waukegan, York

Wrestling victories continue to accrue from the frosh-soph grapplers at Arlington Heights high school with Coach Maurice Kellogg all smiles. His boys whipped Waukegan Friday night, 31-19, and York Saturday eve, 35-10. His freshman squad also nipped Waukegan, 39-13.

Coach Kellogg has been using just 1 freshman to date, Dave Schreiber, but more are threatening sophomores for starting positions. In addition, many inexperienced boys are showing plenty of improvement, including sophomores Ed Schumacher, Howard Berg and Gunther Reinke. Clarence Trausch, a sophomore, has been moved up to the varsity.

UNDEFEATED in frosh soph competition to date are Dave Schreiber, Bill Ferry, Jim Clark, Ernest Rodriguez, Roger Farleigh and Dean Schneck. The second year squad now has a record of 3-1.

Gaining pins against Waukegan were Dave Schreiber, Bill Ferry, Jim Clark, Roger Farleigh and Dean Schneck. Mike Zucchero and Ernie Rodriguez gained decisions.

Against York it was Schreiber, Ferry, Zucchero ,Rodriguez, Farleigh and Reinke in decisions with Berg, Schneck and Schumacher carding pins.

Many Batting Champs And 20-Game Winners On Block

When the annual major-minor league draft sessions began in Columbus, November 28, baseball men were angling for a number of rich prizes. Among the more than 3,000 players eligible for the draft, says The Sporting News, were 14 minor league batting champions, the minors' six leading home run hitters, their biggest winning pitcher and numerous other 20-game winners.

Probably the most coveted group of draft eligibles is contained on the roster of Montreal in the International league. Out of the Royals' 33 active players, 32 are subject to selection. However, under the rules, only one player can be taken from Montreal. Heading the list of the gems there is first baseman Rocky Nelson, who has had previous trials with the Cardinals, Pirates, White Sox, Dodgers and Indians. Rocky won the International triple batting crown last season with a .364 average, 37 home runs, and 129 runs batted in.

AS THE LAST-PLACE club in the American League this season, Washington will have the first grab. With Mickey Vernon traded to the Red Sox, there's speculation that the Senators may take Nelson as their Number One pick.

The Dallas club in the Texas league has 2 batting champions on its roster who carry draft tags. Both are outfielders. They're Eddie Knoblauch, the Texas League king, and Leonard Vandehey, top hitter in the Big State League.

OTHER BATTING champions coming up for grabs, and the leagues in which they won their titles this year, are Outfielder John Bella, Eastern; Third Baseman Charley Wilson, Southern Association; Catcher Sam Hairston, Western; Infielder Moises Camacho, Arizona-Mexico; Outfielder Bob Phillips, Piedmont; Hillis Layne, Western International; Tom Jordan, Longhorn; Outfielder James Moore, Evangeline; Outfielder Grady Chavis, Appalachian; First Baseman Dan Keith, Florida State, and Hal Gordon, Sooner State.

Keith Little, who was the top hitter in the minors last season, is eligible to be taken from the Corpus Christi club in the Big State League.

For an outlay of only $4,000, a major league club can acquire Organized Ball's biggest winning pitcher of 1955. He's Rene Vega, 32-year-old Cuban who had a record of 28 won, 6 lost with Corpus Christi.

OF MANY OTHER 20-game winners eligible, most pitched in the smaller minors and may not interest major league clubs.

Draft prices range from $15,000, which a major league club must pay for a man out of the Pacific Coast League, down to $700 which minors must pay for Class C players.

The club with the first pick is in a truly enviable position. But, says The Sporting News, the records show that the first choice isn't what it's cracked up to be. In the last 4 or 5 years, the Number Two pick has fared far better, both for himself and the club which selected him. Actually, of the 9 Number One picks since World War II, 7 are no longer in the major leagues. (Sp

Chrysler's wonderfully convenient Pushbutton drive is on the left side where no one but the driver can reach it.

Push this button and all other cars seem outdated!

15 minutes in the new "PowerStyle" Chrysler can change a lifetime of buying habits!

Push that "D" button and step on the gas. You're off like a shot. Now you're eating up the ribbon of road in front of you. A curve comes up and bends around behind. What was a hill has vanished. The scenery itself must be moving, not you!

What accounts for this magic? A whole new series of Chrysler engineering developments. Pushbutton PowerFlite transmission . . . a bigger airplane-type V-8 engine, more powerful than anything in its price class . . . full-time Power-Pilot Steering . . . and newly designed PowerSmooth Brakes that bring you to the world's safest, smoothest straight line stops.

Chrysler, with its low center of gravity, rivals the cornering ability of a racing car.

All this you see reflected in Chrysler's "PowerStyle" lines . . . the new Forward Look . . . the new look of power.

If you're now driving one of the other two major cars in Chrysler's price class, come in and make a direct comparison. Just see if Chrysler doesn't make everything else seem outdated!

About Your Health

two or more weeks before the normal nine-month development has transpired. Any deviation from the normal requires special care and treatment and so it is particularly true with the premature infant, the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society points out.

Many factors are involved in premature birth, some of which can be attributed to the emotional and physical health of the mother. That is why the prospective mother should be under the constant supervision of her physician. His attention to development, to weight changes and to mental and physical adjustment is important to the delivery of a full term baby in good health.

THE BABY BORN two or three weeks before term may differ but slightly from the full term baby, while the baby born a month or more earlier lacks sufficient stamina and proper development. Consequently it needs great care. This may be also true of babies who are born at full term, babies who are so very small and in whom special treatment is mandatory to preserve their lives. This is why all babies weighing less than five and one-half pounds at birth should be treated as premature infants are.

Because difficulty in breathing is one of the serious handicaps of the premature infant, care immediately after birth is very important. This problem calls for special supervision by the physician, and frequently by a nurse. Keeping the baby warm is the next essential. Removing the mucus or other fluid from the mouth or throat follows. When the physician is certain that the baby is breathing well, arrangements will be made to place it in an incubator or in some kind of a heated bed that can be kept at a temperature of from 80 to 90 degrees Fahrenheit. Then the umbilical cord which has connected the mother and child can be dressed and the eyes treated to prevent infection.

GREAT CARE must be taken to prevent chilling in the premature infant. The baby should be kept warm, but the blankets should be loosely wrapped about the tiny body. Since his main difficulty will be in breathing, this must be watched closely.

The diaper should be a small square of absorbent cotton covered with gauze or some other type of pad that is easily disposable. It should not be folded between the legs, but laid under the baby.

The skin of the premature infant is unusually tender and it is best not to bathe the baby with water or even with oil during the first twelve to twenty-four hours after birth. Bathing can be overlooked for a week or ten days. Later, for cleansing purposes, a little warm mineral oil can be gently applied to the skin. It is only when the infant is a little older and acquires more vigor that he is treated, with regard to bathing, as a full-term baby.

FOR THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION

We are stocking our store for the Christmas season. Last year we had an unscheduled night visit by some self-appointed 'Santa Claus' who filled his bag with expensive gifts. Is burglary insurance available to cover such losses?

A Break For Hot Rod Drivers

Drivers Express Interest In Developing New Sport

by TOM BRENNAN

Nine times out of 10 if you mention "hot-rod" to a next door neighbor, he'll tell about "some crazy kid in a hopped-up junk who almost ran me into a ditch."

But that 10th neighbor will explain there's more to "hot-rods" than kids who are crazy about cars, cars which are plainly a block away from the salvage yard and driving tactics which are heroic, if not wise.

That something more is the serious sport of 'hot rodding" and it is the serious kind that a number of folks in Arlington Heights have recently become concerned about. They want to set up a program so that the wrong kind of hot rodding never becomes a problem.

Boys are working with cars and turning them into hot-rods, and there's no stopping it. So these men want to organize groups which will provide facilities for boys to test cars. They will use recognized timing methods so teens will receive credit for their performances.

According to Robert B. Carney, 524 S. Mitchell, Arlington Hts., one of the most active in the new group, the first stirrings in the community began when the high school went into double sessions this fall.

SOME HIGH SCHOOL faculty members began to talk to various civic and men's groups to try to interest them in setting up a club for hot rod fans. Pointing out that boys would have more free time to work on and test cars, the high school stressed that a testing place should be provided for the boys.

"They build and remodel the cars mainly to get more speed out of them and if they don't have a track to run them on, they are like a hunter with a loaded gun and no place to shoot." They added that hot-rodders, being human, are likely to start trying them out on the highway sooner or later — if there's no place where they can run within the law.

Carney recognized the serious side of hot-rodding when he lived in California, where the sport attracts thousands of boys and young men. They organized into dozens of "speed timing associations" which are affiliated with a national organization.

CARNEY AND CARL Behrens, Kirchhoff rd., Arlington Heignts, heard about the idea at a meeting of the Presbyterian Men's club, to which both belong, and started talking to friends. A third member of the church group, John Heinz, 518 S. Vail, offered the use of his garage, Arlington Body and Fender shop, for meetings.

These men and others from service clubs held several meetings this fall, inviting some high school boys who are hot-rod fans to attend. Out of these discussions, the problem boiled down to one of finding a location for a "drag strip." This is the mile-long, hard-surfaced track where the cars will race against the clock.

Carney believes there are between 40 and 50 boys in Palatine, Arlington Heights, Wheeling, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights and Half Day who would join the group.

Before setting up the club, the men want to find a place to put a timing strip. They are willing to go 30 to 35 miles away in order to locate it out of a residential district. Already they have explored and ruled out a number of possibilities, including use of landing strips.

CARNEY EXPLAINED that once a club is set up, cars will be run only under fixed rules, at specified times, and at a place designed and regulated for the purpose.

"It is possible to provide a facility where these cars can be run under control, with safety and proper recognition of achievement and no little spectator appeal," he continued.

Hot-rod racing on local highways is not a serious problem now, according to Carney. If a dose of preventive medicine in the form of supervised racing on a timing stirp is given, the problem will never become serious in northwest towns. (B7

All About The Bobs

It isn't only American women who know their baseball. The Sporting News reports that in Tokyo's version of the $64,000 question, a 20-year-old Japanese girl was able to tell what four Yankee players, Cerv, Grim, Wiesler and Turley, had in common. They are all named Bob. As the first winner of Japan's 160,000 yen question, she won a prize the equivalent of 450 dollars. Not bad, when it's considered that 450 dollars is about ten months' wages for a skilled workman in that country.

Forest View School

Christmas Program

A reminder to residents that the school Christmas party is to be held this Friday evening at 7:30 at the Forest View school, ½ block north of Algonquin on S. State rd. The teachers are planning an operetta, "The Shoemaker and His Elves," as part of the program. Santa will be there in person, too. The public is invited. Parents are asked to bring a wrapped gift for each child with his or her name on it to be put in Santa's bag for them. This applies to those not having children in the school, also to all preschool children who have brothers and sisters attending this school. We do not want any child left without a gift from Santa.

Brief individual Christmas parties will be held in each room Thursday, Dec. 22. The children will be dismissed early December 22 for the Christmas holidays. School will resume again January 3.

School News

Students in all grades have been receiving instructional and educational material on the care of their teeth. Special movies and visual aides have been used to add emphasis to the program. In conjunction with this program, parents who have not returned the dental inspection cards which were mailed to them last spring are asked to do so in order that the school records may be brought up to date. Perhaps Christmas vacation will be a good time to make that trip to the dentist for a checkup, if it has not already been done. Please mail cards to Mrs. Vernon Westberg, school nurse, 520 E. Haven.

The rechecking on vision tests have been completed by Cook county nurse, Miss Ruehrdanz, and school nurse, Mrs. Westberg. Parents should have received notice if their child is in need of glasses.

Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jevne and children were Sunday dinner guests at Miss Grace Jevne's, Oak Park. Miss Jevne is Mr. Jevne's aunt.

Weekend guests at the R. C. Fisher home were Mr. and Mrs. James Fosnote from Madison.

The James Burtons were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Padgett, Cicero.

Anniversary Party

The Forest View Mothers club anniversary party held December 3 was a huge success. Thanks have been extended to the square dance caller, Tom Powers of Roselle, and also to all the following merchants who donated gifts: Charles Klehm Nurseries, Boettcher florist, Arlington Heights Pharmacy, A and P store, Jewel Tea store, Fred's market, Lunnings, Meyer dairy, Dunteman's dairy, Arlington dairy, Lantern grill, State and Golf Service Station, Parkway liquors, Country Elf, Elms shopping center merchants: Red Wing Cleaners, Oppenheimes bakery, Grocerland, Lorraine Anne, Terri Lee and Hampton House. A special thanks to Mrs. Shirley Smital, who donated all the gifts for the card players. Christmas decorations were loaned by Smital florist, 3256 N. Central ave., Chicago. Many thanks to the Mothers club president, Mrs. Laverne Koenig, all the chairmen and their committees ,to the mothers who donated gifts and groceries and to the upper grade youngsters who helped; in the wardrobe, Pat Hartman and Sharon Luczak, ticket sellers, Joyce Tapper and Jimmy Peterson, selling pop, Mike Koenig and Michael Consoer. With the proceeds from this party and the balance taken out of the treasury, the teachers purchased a piano for the school. Thanks to everyone who made this dream a reality.

Mrs. Shirley Smital and Mrs. Fran Connolley received the 2 grocery baskets and 2 turkeys.

Barbara Roeske Weds Earl Howard White

(Conley Photo

Miss Barbara Roeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Roeske, 529 S. Vail ave., Arlington Heights, became the bride of Earl Howard White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark White, Rand rd., Mt. Prospect, in an 11:30 a.m. service November 26 in Our Lady of the Wayside church, Arlington Heights.

White mums decorated the church and marked the pews. The Rev. H. O'Hara officiated at the ceremony.

For her marriage the bride wore a gown of white tulle, satin and chantilly lace fashioned with a high neckline and long tapered sleeves. The full skirt of her gown was of tulle over satin and the bodice was of chantilly. A jeweled headpiece held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a bouquet of orchids with lily of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Carol Ann Roeske was maid of honor and Gail Grundhoefer and Marlene Engelking were bridesmaids. Carol's gown was in powder blue net over taffeta with embroidery in a flower design. The bridesmaids' gowns were in shrimp color net over taffeta fashioned identically to the maid of honor's gown.

Loy White was best man and Victor Herman of Mt. Prospect and Thomas Bray of Arlington Heights, were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roeske, 606 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. The reception was held at Fred's Place in Mt. Prospect. Out-of-town guests included the groom's relatives from Iowa and Wisconsin.

Mr. White and his bride will reside in Arlington Heights.

Darlene Fowler Marries Bill D. Robertson

Community Camers

In a 7 p.m. ceremony December 9 in Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, Miss Darlene Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fowler of Arlington Heights, became the bride of Billy Dale Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Robertson of Terre Haute, Ind. The Rev. Edgar Behrens officiated at the ceremony amid a background of white mums and gladioli. "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were the nuptial selections.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned ballerina length. The dress had an illusion neckline with small lace Peter Pan collar with three quarter sleeves, molded bodice and scalloped hemline on the full skirt. She carried a white Bible with white roses and streamers. Her fingertip veil was fastened to a juliet cap.

The bride's sister, Miss Mildred Fowler, was maid of honor. Her dress was blue crystalette fashioned ballerina length, empire style with shrug jacket. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids were gowned identically in rose crystalette with large taffeta bows in back. They wore pink head bands and carried bouquets of pink carnations. Mrs. Mary Mikelson and Mrs. Leona Benson were the bridesmaids.

Robert Fowler was best man to the bridegroom and ushers were Clifford Benson and Henry Mikelson.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Elk Grove Inn where a buffet was served to 150 guests. Mrs. Fowler was dressed in navy blue with white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

After a wedding trip to Indiana, Mr. Robertson and his bride will reside with the bride's parents.

Yule Party Thursday For Stephens Alumnae

AAUW To Celebrate Christmas With Mexican Fiesta

A Mexican Christmas fiesta will be celebrated by members of the Northwest Suburban Branch of the American Association of University Women at their December 15 meeting. Beginning at 8 p.m., the Christmas festivities will be held at St. Martin Episcopal church, Thacker St., Des Plaines.

The creative arts group is in charge of presenting the fiesta and Mrs. A. R. Starr is chairman. Miss Margaret Lowery will be narrator.

Christmas carols will be sung by the AAUW choral group. Members are requested to bring new and used books for children from primary through sixth grade. The books will be additions to the Mexican Migrant school library.

Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. O. E. Gough, chairman, Mrs. H. L. Kinser, Mrs. O. T. Anderson, Miss Jane Downton, Mrs. H. Fox and Mrs. G. R. Perrill.

Yule Parties Planned By Moose Women

Four Christmas parties have been planned by the Women of the Moose organization, Des Plaines chapter 835. First will be the combined business meeting and Christmas party today, Thursday, with members bringing a $1 gift for the grab bag. Names of last year's secret pals will be revealed and new names drawn. Mrs. Sue Doremus is chairman.

December 18 will be the annual Christmas party for children of Moose members 12 years and younger. The party will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. in the new North school, Des Plaines, and will feature Santa Claus, entertainment and refreshments. The bowling group will hold a party after bowling December 19 to which the sponsors have also been invited. The academy of friendship will hold its Christmas party at 8 p.m. December 29.

Four new members were initiated into the chapter at the organization's social service night December 8. New members are Mrs. Sarah Melton, Mrs. Ella Blazek, Mrs. Frieda Kuhlmann and Mrs. Eloise Neihart. Mrs. Makarski was presented with a gift by Mrs. Mabel Vlasnik for her help in the bazaar.

Mrs. Emily Honickel is at Moose hall to serve dinners Saturdays and Sundays from 3 p.m. and Fridays from 7 p.m. The menu includes hamburger, steak and shrimp plates.

Gail Peterson And William King Wed

(Community Camera

In an 11 a.m. double ring ceremony December 10 in St. James church, Arlington Heights, Miss Gail Lorraine Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Peterson, 800 N. Forrest ave., Arlington Heights, became the bride of William A. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. King, also of Forrest ave., Arlington Heights.

Fr. Reicher officiated at the service amid a setting of white mums. Soloist Richard Clark sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a tulle and lace ballerina-length dress with lace jacket. The jacket buttoned down the front and had a peter pan collar and long sleeves. The tulle skirt of the dress was trimmed with patches of the lace. A headpiece of tulle and lace with flowers held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, and lily of the valley.

Miss Ann Darlene Peterson was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of yellow tulle fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice and shortsleeved jacket. She wore a halo of matching tulle and carried yellow carnations and and pink roses.

The bridegroom's cousins, Miss Dolores Klimek of Elmwood Park and Mrs. Robert Bork of Chicago, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were in aqua tulle and they also wore headpieces to match their gowns. Five-year-old Ann Rice, of Chicago, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl wearing a long yellow tulle gown. She carried a basket of yellow roses.

The bridegroom's brother, Gerald King, was best man and Harold Rice, cousin of the bridegroom and Robert Bork were ushers.

Following the service, breakfast was served to the bridal party and immediate members of the family at the Supper club. A reception at 7:30 p.m. was attended by 250 guests at the Bell Park Service club.

Mrs. Peterson received the guests in a blue brocade dress with blue accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink roses. Mrs. King was in a wine colored dress with brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations and yellow roses.

Mr. King and his bride are honeymooning in Rockford prior to the bridegroom reporting for duty in Norfolk, Va. He has just completed boot training at Great Lakes. Both he and his bride were graduated from Arlington Heights township high school. The new Mrs. King will reside in Arlington Heights for the present. She is employed at Equitable Insurance Co. in Chicago.

Favorites For Flavor

A festive Cherry Pudding which can appropriately be used as a Christmas pudding is our feature of the week.

A favorite recipe of Mrs. Glen D. Marz, it is one which she makes any time during the year, and highly recommends as a holiday dessert.

Simple to make, the pudding contains red cherries, chopped nuts, and is flavored with cinnamon.

Mrs. Marz tops it with whipped cream and swirls of cherry sauce. Or you can just use a rum sauce, if desired.

This dessert is economical to make, attractive in appearance and delicious to taste.

Not a rich pudding, it is excellent to serve following a dinner or for late evening refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Marz live at 232 S. Oak in Palatine. Mrs. Marz is House and Social chairman of the Palatine Woman's club, a member of the Plum Grove Garden club and publicity chairman for the WSCS of the First Methodist church.

Cherry Pudding

1½ cups sugar
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 beaten egg
2 tablespoons melted shortening
2 cups drained, red unsweetened cherries
1 cup chopped nuts (optional)

Sift dry ingredients together into a large mixing bowl. Add egg and shortening and stir well.

Mix in the cherries and chopped nuts.

Pour into greased and floured pan, 8 by 12 inches, and bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees.

Cover the pudding with whipped cream and swirl cherry sauce over the cream.

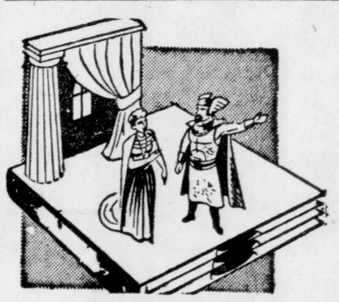
Serves 8 to 10.

Cherry Sauce

1 cup cherry juice
2 scant tablespoons cornstarch
½ cup sugar

Heat juice and sugar to boiling.

Mix cornstarch with a little cold water, stir into syrup and cook until thick.



Words & Music

WHITTEMORE AND LOWE

The second concert of the current season of Community Concerts was presented by duo-pianists Whittemore and Lowe to an audience made smaller, no doubt, by the preceding annual Christmas program presented by the music department of the high school.

The program really began about a third of the way along the printed selections, after the mysteries of house lights and panel switches had been successfully solved, with the presentation of Brahms Variations on a Haydn theme, familiar to most ears in its orchestral form.

While several of the variations are exquisite and even intricate in their musical workmanship, Brahms is by no means anemic; he demands full support in the bass and harmonic structure to achieve the "grand nobility" of his style. When presented by two pianos there can be no compromise with the pitch; the pianos must be strictly in tune.

Up to this point, the program consisted of delightful compositions of Dvorak and Schubert, written as piano duets, resulting in each performer presiding in his half of the pianistic domain, with the ever present treble harmonies on one instrument and the lower register on the other. When 2 beautiful instruments are together, as is not too often the case, then is the time to make music for 2 pianos, when the one complements the other, and the harmonies and musical workmanship are enriched by 2 full keyboards in the hands of capable musicians.

The second half of the program was 2 piano music in all its glory, running the gamut of composers from Bach to Bartok to "That Old Black Magic." Most of the music in this area has to be arranged for 2 instruments, yet when expertly done is refreshing to hear. A case in point is with the music of the beloved Fritz Kreisler, whose Liebesfreud and Stars In My Eyes are as fresh in 2 piano form as in any other of the many arrangements now in common use.

The "La Valse" of Ravel was really a highlight, an achievement in tone production. Whittemore and Lowe play beautifully together, and in moments kindle the bright sparks of artistry. Maybe some day will see their return, perhaps even with the great Sonata of Mozart, the Impromptu Roccoco of Schutt and even an Arensky Valse.

Ordinance No. 922

AN ORDINANCE REZONING LOTSLOTS 5 AND 6 IN BLOCK 32, OF THE TOWN OF DUNTON, NOW VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS ,AND AMENDING AN ORDINANCE ENTITLED: "AN ORDINANCE TO CLASSIFY, REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE LOCATIONS OF TRADES AND INDUSTRIES AND THE LOCATION OF BUILDINGS DESIGNED FOR SPECIFIC USES: TO REGULATE AND LIMIT THE INTENSITY OF THE USE OF LOT AREAS AND TO REGULATE AND DETERMINE THE AREA OF YARDS, COURTS AND OTHER OPEN SPACES WITHIN AND SURROUNDING SUCH BUILDINGS, AND TO ESTABLISH THE BOUNDARIES OF DISTRICTS FOR THE SAID PURPOSES AND PRESCRIBING PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF ITS PROVISIONS," PASSED ON THE 29TH DAY OF AUGUST, A.D. 1927, AND APPROVED ON THE 29TH DAY OF AUGUST, A.D. 1927.

WHEREAS heretofore a petition of owners and persons interested for rezoning and reclassification of the premises hereinafter described from Residence District B to Commercial District, was referred to the Zoning Board of Appeals for hearing thereon; and,

WHEREAS the Zoning Board of Appeals, after giving due notice of such hearing, held hearings thereon and has recommended to the President and Board of Trustees of this Village that said parcels of land and premises which are now zoned as falling within Residence District B, be rezoned by placing the same in Commercial District and classifying same as Commercial District property; and,

WHEREAS it appears that Lots 3 and 4 of said Block 32 of the Town of Dunton, described in said petition, were erroneously included in said petition, as they are and have ever since the year 1927 been zoned as falling within Commercial District, and that therefore only that portion of the lands described in said petition falling within Lots 5 and 6 of said Block 32 of the said Town of Dunton are subject to rezoning or reclassification, as prayed for in said petition; and,

WHEREAS said Lots 5 and 6 of said Block 32 are adjacent to the west line of said Lots 3 and 4 and therefore are adjacent to and border on the west line of the Commercial District, which by the original Zoning Ordinance, passed and approved on the 29th day of August, 1927, was fixed as the center line of said Block 32; and,

WHEREAS the petitioner and his proposed assigns propose to erect on said Lots 3, 4, 5 and 6 of said Block 32, an office building, together with automobile parking facilities to serve said office building; and

WHEREAS the President and Board of Trustees find that the erection of the building proposed and the facilities in connection therewith, will not be detrimental to the property in the neighborhood, and may tend to increase the value of such neighboring property; and,

WHEREAS the rezoning of said Lots 5 and 6 does not constitute the rezoning of isolated parcels or spot zoning, but constitutes an extension of the boundaries of the Commercial District now under development; and,

WHEREAS no owners or parties interested in adjoining or neighboring property appeared to protest or object to the inclusinn of said Lots 5 and 6 in said Commercial District; and

WHEREAS the petitioner has filed in writing with the President and Board of Trustees a commitment on behalf of himself and his assigns that said premises will be improved only with an office building and parking facilities, as represented at the public hearing before the Zoning Board of Appeals; and,

WHEREAS the President and Board of Trustees find that the requested rezoning of said Lots 5 and 6 is not contrary to the purposes and intent of the Act of the Legislature of the State of Illinois authorizing the zoning of property, and is in conformity with the development of the adjacent commercially zoned area, and will not deteriorate the value of other property adjacent thereto; therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS:

SECTION 1. That the ordinance entitled:

"AN ORDINANCE TO CLASSIFY, REGULATE AND RESTRICT THE LOCATIONS OF TRADES AND INDUSTRIES AND THE LOCATION OF BUILDINGS DESIGNED FOR SPECIFIC USES: TO REGULATE AND LIMIT THE INTENSITY OF THE USE OF LOT AREAS AND TO REGULATE AND DETERMINE THE AREA OF YARDS, COURTS, AND OTHER OPEN SPACES WITHIN AND SURROUNDING SUCH BUILDINGS, AND TO ESTABLISH THE BOUNDARIES OF DISTRICTS FOR THE SAID PURPOSES AND PRESCRIBING PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF ITS PROVISIONS," passed on the 29th day of August, A.D. 1927, and approved on the 29th day of August, A.D. 1927, and published according to law, as amended, be amended, and that the classification of the property hereinafter described, made under the provisions of said ordinance and any amendments thereto, be changed by taking out of Residence District B, as therein defined, and rezoning and placing the same in Commercial District, as therein defined, the following described premises, described in the petition for such rezoning, to-wit:

Lots 5 and 6 in Block 32, Town of Dunton (now Village of Arlington Heights), being a subdivision of the West Half of the First Baptist Church To Present 'Christmas Story' Next Sunday

"The Christmas Story" will be presented at 7 p.m. December 18 by the First Baptist church of Arlington Heights in the township high school, 700 N. Ridge.

Leading characters of the cast are the Virgin Mary, played by Mrs. George I. Beckstrom; Joseph, her husband, played by T. J. Rosenthal; Mary's Mother, Mrs. J. W. Berchmans Sr.; Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist, Mrs. T. J. Rosenthal; Zacharias, her husband, William Birchman Jr.; the innkeeper and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Retzke and King Herod, J. W. Berchmans Sr. Other roles include The Voice, the angels, the wise men, the children, and the innkeeper's son.

Directing the play is Mrs. R. J. Truelsen; Irv Berkhardt is in charge of lighting and stage properties; Don LeVine plans scenes and handles the curtain while Miss Sherry Peterson will act as prompter and aid with makeup. T. J. Rosenthal is in charge of taping and editing the special recording musical program by the choir. An effort is being made to make the play presentation a colorful one through the use of costumes and authentic settings.

The program will be completed with a children's program in which every Sunday school class will participate. At the close of the evening there will be Santa and a tree full of candy for all children present.

The public is invited.

Terry (Therese) Christensen celebrated her 7th birthday at a party given by her parents Art and Pat Christensen, 2200 Wing st. Enjoying games, cake, and ice cream were her brothers, Butch, Jan and Kimball Christensen, and her girl friends, Loretta Casey, and Patty and Linda Doyle.

Nancy Flynn celebrated her first birthday last week with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. William Flynn; her sister, Susie; her brother, Johnny; grandma and grandpa Curry; and Miss Pat Kelly and her mother, Mrs. N. E. Kelly of Chicago. The Flynns live at 205 Wing st.

Kathy Coffaro, daughte of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Coffaro of 2505 Fremont, observed her fourth birthday with 2 parties. On Friday, Kathy was hostess at a birthday party for the neighborhood children and their mothers.: Corinne Fromm; Billy, Jimmy and Carol Larson; Nanci and Patti Ann Waldron; Tommy and Mickey Valentine; and Petie Nester were guests. The children played party games and had refreshments. A second party was held December 3, when members of the family observed the important event.

On December 6, Artie Eggert, son of Pat and Art Eggert, 2413 Wing st., celebrated his fourth birthday at a party in his honor. Taking part in the merry making were Suzy Estrella, Georgia Fackler, Mary Mahoney, Greg Bickett, Greg Novak, Billy Mazonet, Brian Jaaski, Stanley Najmola and his cousins, Kenny La Jeunesse of Chicago, and Billy Staciak of Bensenville. Jimmy, Tommy, and Lee Ann, Artie's brother and sister, also enjoyed games and cake and ice cream.

A cute little miss named Peggy Caleva celebrated her second birthday at a especial party December 6. She's the daughter of Mike and Lois Caleva, 2408 Cardinal dr. On hand were Mrs. Jackie Eberly and 2 daughters, Susie and Lu Jene; Mrs. Rosemary Conley and son, Jaimie; and Jonny Markus. Her sister, Linda, also joined in the festivities.

Harold (Buddy) Smith Jr., 12 December 18, entertained friends Saturday night. Friends attending were Tom and Jerry Broderick, Les MacDonald, Carol and Beverly Bycroft, Kathy Newberg, and Bunny Olson. Buddy, son of Harold and Florence Smith, 2102 St James, shares the same birthday with that of his father.

The "sick list" delayed birthday celebration of Diane Broeske, born December 3. On Saturday, however, Diane's parents, Hazel and Herb Broeske, 2202 Campbell st., made up for the delay by giving their daughter a lovely party. Guests were David Knudsen; Richard, Kenny and Diane Kotlarz; Barbara Ann Baruth, Ricky Roeing and "Jany" Grunwald as well as Diane's brother Dennis.

It was a surprise birthday party December 8, for Nita Born, 2315 Park st. Her husband, Frank, effectively concealed all plans from his wife, and even the Born children, Pat, Pam and David, managed to keep the secret. Guests were Frank's parents and brother Mr. and Mrs. Frank Born Sr. and Donald Born of Chicago, Nita's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hilstrom and their daughter, Sharon of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thornton, 2309 Park st., and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tierney and their daughter, Debbie, of Westgate.

Women's Bowling

The tight race in the Rolling Meadows Women's Bowling League continues. There's still only the difference of 2½ games between first and last place teams. Standings this week are:

	Won	Lost
Parkway Liquors	22	20
Hedlin's Richer Milk	21½	20½
Bowen Hardware	21	21
Jim's Service Station	19½	22½

Special Note

Be sure to read the article elsenews concerning the series of burglaries recently in the city. There's important advice contaned in the article — advice all residents should carefully note. Be sure to make your home appear occupied when you're out for an evening — the slight expense of burning a few lights could avoid the expense of burglary.

Girl Scouts Work On Big Parade Float

Major project of busy Rolling Meadows girl scouts this week centered on a float for the Santa Claus parade Saturday.

A meeting of all girl scout leaders was held Thursday at the home of neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Richard Windsor, 2102 Bluebird lane.

All troops, both girl scouts and brownies, will contribute to the decorations on the float. Each girl scout and brownie has been asked to give a box of white paper napkins to the float project. These will be used to decorate the base. A large Christmas tree decorated with girl scout trefoils will be the main feature of the float. The 10 girl scout promises will be shown on large trefoils on the side of the float. These will be prepared by members of troop 302. All other troops are busily engaged in making the trefoil decorations for the tree.

Riding on the float will be a brownie, girl scout, senior scout and scout leader to represent various phases of the program.

Decoration of the float will be done at the home of neighborhood chairman-elect Mrs. Frank Zupan of George st.

New Hill Homes Are 'Dressed Up' Versions

Mahogany paneling for the living room is just one of the new features available in the latest group of homes to be placed on the market by Kimball Hill, developer of flourishing Rolling Meadows.

THE NEW models are basically similar to previous ones, with exteriors of pre-dipped cedar shingles with wood and brick trim in 142 variations. Interiors of the 2 and 3 bedroom homes have been dressed up considerably, and the central bedroom in the 3 bedroom model has been enlarged. The latter model home now boasts seven closets--2 extra large closets in the master bedroom alone.

A light-airy feeling is given to the large 12 x 13 feet kitchen by the three large corner windows which make an ideal setting for a dining table. Counter tops are of formica and a chrome flourescent light is placed above the sink in addition to the central ceiling light.

THE OUTDOOR storgae shed is been moved to the center of the back kitchen wall. This makes the attachment of a breezway and garage through the back of the house possible even on a 60 feet frontage lot. It also permits a more efficient kitchen furniture arrangement even with the added door.

Both the 2-bedroom and 3-bedroom models continue to boast floor plans easily adaptable to the addition of an extra bedroom at the back. The closet arrangement at the side of the bathroom is easily converted to a hallway leading to the new bedroom, and the closet space so lost can be included in the new construction.

The bathroom has been enlarged to more than 41 square feet. The linen closet has been moved into the bathroom for added convenience. The modern bathroom washbowl has a counter setting of formica and a more generous use of wall tile from previous models is also noted. In addition the medicine cabinet is far larger and more attractive with sliding mirror doors flanked by twin florescent lights.

Price of the basic two-bedroom home on a lot 60 x 130 is $12,690. The 3-bedroom standard model on the same size lot now sells for $14,190. In addition there is a small closing fee. The price includes a washer and drier installed in the kitchen. Floors are of asphalt tile with vinyl tile available if desired. Location of the furnace remains in the center of the home for maximum efficiency. The hot water heater has been moved to its own "closet" with a louvered door. The "closet" has ample space for a water softener if desired. RM

Ah, Sweet Mystery Of Voice! Ladies Will Sing Lustily

Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club plans a Christmas caroling tour for their neighbors next week.

Plans for the tour were announced this week by Alice Boyle, fine arts committee chairman. The club women will meet at the home of Mrs. Boyle, 2606 Sigwalt ct., bringing flashlights, lanterns and bells as part of their singing equipment.

Planned for the entertainment of the community and to add some Christmas spirit, the women have promised to sing lustily, if not well. To warm the cold carollers after their tour, club president Mrs. Robert Schultz has invited them to her home for hot chocolate and refreshments.

Junior Women Fete Families At Party

Highlight of the family party held by the Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club Monday at Kimball Hill school was the appearance of Santa Claus.

Entertaining husbands and children, the members provided a real "family" party. Exciting climax for the children was presentation of gifts by Santa Claus as well as extra gift stockings.

Later, children circled Santa Claus and sang carols. The central Christmas character was portrayed by George Schmidt ,husband of club program chairman Marge Schmidt, who planned the party.

Refreshments completed the evening. The club's welfare committee plans a Christmas party for underprivileged children later this month.

Thank Goodness, It's Official Now...

It's official now—the Masonic Fellowship club of Rolling Meadows.

The group adopted that name as well as bylaws for their organization at its second regular meeting Thursday at the Barn. The bylaws were presented to the group by committee and quickly adopted.

The next meeting is 8 p.m. in the Barn January 12. All Master Masons in good standing are cordially invited to join. Further information may be had from Bob Binnie, CLearbrook 5-1282 or Norman Dierkes, CLearbrook 3-5225.

Junior Hi Fellowship Roster Grows Fast, Need Adult Help

Christmas plans for an active Junior Hi Fellowship club are growing rapidly.

In addition to community-wide caroling tours planned for December 18 and 22, the group will participate in a Santa Claus parade Saturday with at least 1 decorated car.

Final project for the club during the Christmas season will be a "Sunday Goin' To Meetin'" Christmas party December 23.

A final practice session for the club's caroling tours will be held at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the Barn. Carolers will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday for their first caroling adventure at 2304 Dove st. Youngsters will be transported by trailer and sing over a loud speaker.

They will be accompanied by Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus, who will accept voluntary donations from residents. These donations will be turned over to the hospital fund. A second caroling tour will be held December 22. Residents are urged to signal their desire to donate by flicking their porch lights as the group passes.

Plans for the club's Christmas party are still being made. Members will be dressed in their "Sunday-best," but pity has been taken on the poor males and ties will be optional if sport shirts are worn.

Refreshments for the party will be prepared and served by the mothers club. In addition to snacks, club members will enjoy a game-playing period as well as dancing to the latest hit tunes from their own records.

Repeat Movie Venture

The old-fashioned "Friday night at the movies" trip 2 weeks ago was so successful, the Rolling Meadows Junior Hi club has planned a similar outing tomorrow night.

The double feature will be "Sincerely Yours" and "Spy Chasers." Youngsters will meet at the corner of Wilke rd. and Campbell at 6:30 p.m. They will be transported by private cars to the Arlington theatre. Teenagers will be returned to their homes at the end of the show, which should be about 10:15 p.m. (RM

Don Moses Becomes 80th Member Of Club

The honor of becoming the 80th member of the Rolling Meadows Junior Hi fellowship has gone to Don Moses.

Termed a "top notch cornball" by club members and advisors, Don joined the group at the business meeting December 5.

Membership in the club is open to all youngsters in the area between the ages of 10 and 14. New members may sign up at the home of the club's executive advisor John Woods, 2304 Dove st., or at any of the club events.

Dancing classes are held for the young teen-agers each Tuesday night at the Barn and are good times to meet other club members and join the group.

Additional advisors are needed to work with their own children to work with the group. "It is urged that, for the good of their own children, parents not already active in other organizations, will consider work with the Junior Hi fellowship," said Wood. "They could do no better than to become active as adult advisors." A call to Woods at CLearbrook 5-3646 will bring additional information.

Junior Hi Fellowship Gives $25 To Hospital

Realizing the great necessity for a hospital in the community, the Rolling Meadows Junior Hi fellowship voted last week to donate $25 from their treasury to the local hospital fund.

This is in addition to funds already raised for this project through the club's "tricks or Hospital Pennies" solicitation at Halloween and sale of hospital concert benefit tickets. The $25 donation came Monday at the regular business meeting of the club at Kimball Hill school.

The suggestion was made by Ray Walker, chairman of the Youth Council, sponsor of the teen club.

The donation is the result of more work on the part of these 10 to 14 year olds than many adult organizations put into much larger donations. The club's generosity from its limited treasury is another reason for the pride parents and residents have in the Junior Hi fellowship. (RM

The second annual Little League dance ticket sale was successfully "launched" Saturday, December 10.

Fred Schultz, Little League president, said, "I wish to give a vote of thanks to all those who gave so unselfishly of their time and efforts Saturday."

A TENT was erected by John Setzer in front of the home of Doris and Tom Tatar. Doris kept 2 pots of coffee going all day, to help keep the ticket sellers warm. Ticket sellers were: George Mahoney, Harold Smith, Bill Hickey, Harold Newberg, John Ryback, and Mrs. Tatar.

The "Dreamland Cruise," official name for the 1956 dance, promises to be the outstanding event of the new year, carrying out a nautical (but nice) theme. Tickets, decor, and general atmosphere tend to give the "passengers" the feeling of "shipping" off on a pleasant cruise to the isle of "Dreamland."

Eddie Kaye's band will be "on board" and special entertainment is being "enlisted." Jean Mudloff and Tom Hoey, Harvest Moon winners will be "on deck" to perform. They will waltz, fox trot, rumba and samba, which should give incentive to the 2-steppers, to "aweigh anchor" and sway to the music of the band.

MISS MUDLOFF will have the honor of "christening" the 1956 Little League queen.

The orchestra will add to the reverie by playing tunes in keeping with the theme. At the suggestion of Lillian Carlson, "The band will not need to wear suits," the uniform of the day will be navy hats.

"Sailing date" for the "Dreamland Cruise," is February 25, 1956; "shove-off" time is 8 p.m. The "3 deck S. S. Dreamland' '(Edison Park Legion hall), is "docked" at 6684 Oliphant ave., Edison Park.

Ticket sellers will begin visiting as many homes as their number of tickets permit. All Rolling Meadows' families are urged to take advantage of this visit, to become acquainted with Little League, and it's purpose.

Voting for the queen began last Saturday, and will continue until Febraury 12, giving ample time to prepare for the coronation.

ANYONE desiring to be certain of getting their tickets in time to vote for a contestant, may contact any officer of the Litle League, or the auxiliary: Fred Schultz, George Mahoney, Ed Garrity, John Nash, Joel Meyer, Rudy Grimm or Mrs. Earl Kolb, Mrs. Harold Carlson, Mrs. Fred Kunz and Mrs. Bob Broderick.

The Shapiro Bros., of the Suburban Drug Co., who will soon be opening their store in "Thee Market" of Rolling Meadows, have notified Bob Binnie, queen contest chairman, that they wish to add to the prizes, with a deluxe cosmetic set, made to order, for the winner. (RM

Rolling Meadows Cubs Get Big Ideas, Expand

Rolling Meadows cub scouts have announced expansion of their scouting program.

The first cub scout to join the group from the Arlington Crest section has been welcomed to the pack. In addition, a den mother has been found in the Arlington Crest section, and a Den will be formed as soon as sufficient boys have joined the pack.

To facilitate the fast growing membership, a new parent contact chairman has been named. He is Jim Borel, 2705 Meadow dr. Parents interested in registering their boys in the cub pack or wish further information may call Borel at CLearbrook 3-8266 or Mrs. Ed Garrity, CLearbrook 3-8346.

The pack is now completing plans for a special Christmas meeting Wednesday. Main feature will be a "Christmas surprise" for parents. It is hoped the parent attendance at this pack meeting will be 100%.

An Ordinance Establishing Wheel Taxes

PASSED December 13, 1955

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ROLLING MEADOWS, ILLINOIS.

SECTION ONE: LICENSE REQUIRED

Every owner or operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle who resides within the city shall pay each year to the city clerk a tax or license fee for the use of each motor vehicle or motorcycle used on any public street or alley in the city, as provided in the following section.

SECTION TWO: LICENSE FEES:

The annual license fees to be paid for vehicle licenses shall be as follows:

For passenger vehicles	$ 3.00
For trucks not exceeding 1½ tons capacity	$ 7.00
For trucks of over 1½ tons under 3 ton capacity	$12.00
For trucks of 3 tons capacity	$20.00
Plus	$ 5.00
For each ton over 3 ton capacity
For motorbuses	$15.00
For motorcycles	$ 5.00

SECTION THREE: TRANSFER OF LICENSES

The license plates issued to dealers in motor vehicles for vehicles held for sale and used only for demonstrations may be transferred to any other vehicles so held and used by the same dealer; provided, that such dealer shall procure one license for each motor vehicle so held by him at any one time during the year, provided, however that this section shall not authori e any person, firm or corporation to become dealers in motor vehicles unless in compliance with all other applicable ordinances.

All licenses provided for herein shall be transferable by the holder of such license from one motor vehicle to another owned by such license holder upon application to the city clerk and upon payment to the city clerk of a transfer fee of one dollar. A ten-day grace period shall be allowed to any license holder after the acquiring of a different motor vehicle within which to make application for transfer as hereinabove provided, and a similar grace period shall be allowed to any new resident of the city within which to apply for a license.

SECTION FOUR: APPLICATION FOR LICENSE: ISSUANCE

Every owner or operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle desiring a license for such motor vehicle or motorcycle shall file an applicatin with the city clerk setting forth the name and address of the applicant and a description of the vehicle for which the license is desired and shall provide such other information as may be required. Upon payment of the fee herein provided the clerk shall issue or cause to be issued a license which shall be attested by the clerk, authorizing the use of such vehicle within the city until the expiration of the license.

SECTION FIVE: WHEN LICENSE FEE DUE AND PAYABLE: DURATION OF LICENSE

The license fee required by this ordinance shall be due and payable annually in advance on the 1st day of January of each year and the license shall be for one year; provided, that if the purchase of a vehicle is made later than six months after the start of the license year, then upon application being made to the city clerk a license shall be issued for the remainder of the year upon payment of one-half of the annual fee herein required. In the event that a license is not procured before the 1st day of any month following January within any license year the various fees shall be increased by the following amounts:

Passenger Vehicles	$1.00 extra for each month in violation
Trucks not exceeding 1½ tons capacity	$1.00 extra for each month in violation
Trucks of over 1½ tons under 3 ton capacity	$2.00 extra for each month in violation
Trucks of 3 tons capacity and over	$3.00 extra for each month in violation
Motorbusses	$3.00 extra for each month in violation
Motorcycles	$1.00 extra for each month in violation

Such increase in license fee shall not bar any action for failure to secure such license prior to January 1 of any year.

SECTION 6: PLATES AND STICKERS

The applicant for a license, under the provisions of this article, upon payment of the fee, shall be given a license plate or windshield sticker without charge, of such design and material as may be approved by the city council, which plate shall be fastened in a prominent and visible place on the front of the vehicle. If the sticker is provided it shall be attached to the windshield at all times that the vehicle is operated in the city.

SECTION 7: DISPOSITION OF FEES COLLECTED

All revenue derived from license fees, under the provisions of this article, except for the cost of issuing the licenses and plates and collecting the fees, shall be kept as a separate fund and used only for the purpose of improving, paving, repairing or maintaining the streets and other public roadways within the city and also for payment to any police pension fund as required by statute.

SECTION 8: PENALTY

It shall be unlawful for any person residing within the city to operate any motor vehicle in the city without having first paid the license fee and obtained the license provided for herein. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $2.00 nor more than $200.00.

SECTION 9

This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as required by law.

YEAS: Groves, White Westphal, Piekarski, Hickey, Roeing.
NAYS: Goodpasture.
ABSENT: Faber.

Passed and approved by the City Council of the City of Rolling Meadows, this thirteenth day of December, 1955.

JOHN S. NORTHCOTE
Mayor, City of Rolling Meadows

Melvin Gustafson

MELVIN F. GUSTAFSON

Melvin F. Gustafson, late resident of 407 S. Beverley lane, Arlington Heights, died December 6 at St. Luke hospital, Chicago, with a heart condition, following an illness of 8 days. Funeral services were conducted December 10 at 1 p.m. at Peterson's, Chicago, by the Rev. Edgar H. Behrens. Interment was in Glen Oak cemetery.

Mr. Gustafson had been an employee for Montgomery Ward and Co., for 21 years and at the time of his death was assistant division manager of building materials. Mr. Gustafson also spent 1 year in Detroit as manager of Strand Building Products Co. and was instrumental in developing that company.

Born April 3, 1905 in Chicago, Mr. Gustafson married Ruth H. Morgan June 30, 1934. In addition to his wife, he leaves 3 sons, Paul, a junior at Augustana college, Rock Island, Philip, eighth grade, Junior high school, Arlington Heights, and Mark, 3½; his mother, Mrs. Minnie H. Gustafson of Chicago, and his brother, Gunnar of Oak Park.

Mr. Gustafson and his family moved to Arlington Heights in October, 1946. He was a member of Faith Lutheran church.

Mothers Know The Way To Any Male's Heart

The newly-formed Junior Hi Mothers club was initiated to its many future duties and acquainted with the insatiable appetites of the youngsters Friday at the Barn, when the Junior Hi held their weekly "social."

Serving goodies were Virginia Borgardt, Shirley Johnson and Betty Bycroft.

Other mothers contributed to the food supply, too. Dancing was the main item on the agenda for the club, and more than 50 young teen-agers participated in the evening's fun. (RM

Villa Park Says No To Water Issue

A 690,000 water revenue bond issue for Villa Park was defeated last week. The proposal would have provided for the construction of two 500,000 gallon water tanks, a reservoir, and other improvements.

Land Price

Average price of Illinois land increased by $68 an acre to an average of $242 an acre between 1950 and 1954, according to the census of agriculture.

Basketball Game

Led by the sharpshooting of Jose Ortiz and Lester Landmeier, the Elk Grove Elks started their basketball season on a victory note. Fine defensive games were turned in by Jessie Ortiz, Armondo Palomo, Charles Mollenkamp, Manuel Ramirez and Kenny Anderson. The final score was Elk Grove 20, St. Peter 16. Saturday Elk Grove traveled to South school in Arlington Heights for a game with St. James. The cheerleaders made their first appearance in the St. Peter game and also cheered in the St. James game. Their red corduroy skirts, grey sweaters and red neck scarves lent a colorful atmosphere to the games and were a welcome addition to the team. Cheerleaders are Judy Wille, Carol Loeding, Anne Nunamaker, Linda Glassie, Patti Folkman, Sally Wichman, Charlotte Popp and Lois Landmeier.

Christmas Programs

Christmas programs were presented by the lower grades at the December Mothers club meeting, December 8. The stage was decorated with Santa Claus, a big candle, carolers and a fireplace. A Christmas tree, decorated by the upper grades was near the stage.

Mrs. McIntyre's first and second grade room sang "Jingle Bells" accompanied by Mr. Case, and presented a skit.

First grade was second on the program and gave a skit. Girls were the Elk Grove Wacs and boys were the Elk Grove GI's. A member of the class had inspection, and when the children turned, cards on their backs spelled out "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

Frances Shillington — CL 3-9521

Arlington Crest

Residents, adults and children alike, are urged to attend the Arlington Crest Civic association Christmas party to be held December 21 from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Palatine Masonic hall, corner of Plum Grove and Chicago ave. Help trim the tree and join the fun Santa will be there with gifts for all of the children. In addition, each child is asked to bring a gift, not to exceed 50 cents, with a "B" tag for boys and a "G" tag for girls, plus age, marked on the tags. Donations of cakes will be most welcome and anyone wanting to do so is asked to call Frances Shillington, CL 3-9521, Leona Stutz, CL 3-4381, or Helen Thome, CL 3-1706.

Welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Burda and their 5 daughters. The Burdas live at 1220 Wilke rd.

The Card club has 2 new members, Sue Wenzel and Mary Zirko. Their next meeting will be at Vivian Rogers Friday evening.

Richard Swan announced that the second grade would have "Sharing Time" as they have it in school. "Silent Night," "Away in a Manger" and "Up on the Housetop" were sung by the class.

Mrs. Runo's third grade sang "Jolly Old St. Nicholas" and motions with the song.

"Merry Christmas" was sung by Mrs. Klinger's third grade. Children stepped forward in pairs and recited verses about Christmas. Their program closed with another song, "What Can I Give Him."

Mrs. Spath accompanied her ungraded room as they sang "Silent Night" and "Away in a Manger."

The fourth and fifth grades closed the program with "We Three Kings," "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," "Jingle Bells," "Deck the Halls" "Joy To the World," "Away in a Manger" and "Lullaby." A Christmas skit acted out to "Twas the Night Before Christmas" was climaxed when Santa Claus emerged from the chimney to close the program.

Mr. Cavallo announced that school will close December 16 at 2 p.m. Vacation will end at 9 a.m. January 3. Previously vacation was scheduled to end January 2. Milk fees for January will be thirty two cents.

Mr. Cavallo also discussed the need of a gymnasium. The basketball team practices outdoors because of a lack of indoor facilities.

A short business meeting followed. Sponge cloths and Elk Grove tee shirts are still available and can be purchased at the next meeting.

Refreshments were served in the old lunchroom.

The table for the science room, which was purchased by the student council, has arrived and will be installed over the Christmas vacation. This is very modern equipment and parents are urged to take the opportunity to see it after the holidays. The student council is congratulated for providing such a functional and beautiful piece of equipment for the school.

Home economics students of grades 6, 7 and 8 are making Christmas cookies for their Christmas party Friday This will be the first junior high dress-up party. Dancing and punch and cookies, that the junior high made, will be featured at the party.

All other students will have a party in their classrooms from 12-2 p.m Friday afternoon. Friday the junior high will present "Strangers Came to Bethlehem" at 8 p.m. Parents are cordially invited to attend.

Two Christmas trees adorn the halls of the school. The lower grades decorated the tree in the hall by the office, while the tree in the auditorium was decorated by the junior high.

The eighth grade made a profit of $39.93 on the hot dog sale. The amount of money earned on the paper drive is not known yet. The eighth grade has received their class rings. The "Victory" and the "Senior" are the 2 rings chosen by the class.

Mrs. Grosche's class is making posters on safety rules for the primary grades.

Dierra Krieder and Patti Folkman took honors in the recent essay contest, "Bond Issue for Park District." Their essays will compete against the 2 winners from St. John school. Winners of the contest will receive a season pass to the swimming pool that will be built if the bond issue passes. Dierra will represent Elk Grove in the district spelling contest tonight at the Arlington Heights junior high school as will Lois Landmeier.

Tommy Heimsoth has been selected student of the month. He is president of his room, sports editor of "Voice of the Elks," a member of the basketball team and is one of the boys who run the movie projectors. Tommy also is alternate to the district spelling bee tonight.

The Christmas edition of the school paper, "Voice of the Elks" came out last week. The editors are to be commended for turning out one of the best issues the paper every had.

Boy Scout News

Boy scout troop 58 and the committeemen wish to remind residents about the "Father and Son" night Monday, Dec. 19. A movie on fishing in Alaska will be shown and refreshments will be served.

Wednesday the committeemen met at the home of Dick Adams for their regular monthly meeting. Problems of the troop are discussed at the monthly meetings.

4-H News

TNT 4-H club went on a tour of the Sugar Bowl in Des Plaines Saturday. A tour of the back of the shop showed how ice cream and candy are made. Particularly of interest was the machine that rotated and melted the 10 pound blocks of chocolate. The complete process of making candy was shown and explained. Free samples ice cream and candy were given to the members. The club is planning a Christmas party for December 22.

Personals

Two new pupils in first and second grade are Edward and Elizabeth Rohfes who will move into their new home on Higgins rd. in January. They are now living at Landmeier's motel.

Grade 6-1 has 2 new students, Ludimar Gomez and Frances Mesa.

Mrs. McFeeley visited the school Thursday and brought a lovely painting for her former class.

Bobby Walden and Sonya Teets plan to spend the Christmas holidays in Florida with their families.

Roger Mollenkamp celebrated his birthday December 7 by having a party. Harry Wille was 8 December 8 while Diane Campbell will be 9 December 18. Raymond Dierking celebrated his birthday December 12 and his brother, Roger, is going to have a birthday December 27. Mrs. Charles Malanik Jr. is going to celebrate her birthday December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frieden of Landmeier are having guests, Mr. Frieden's parents, who had just returned from a trip to Sweden there they visited the costume center of the world and Stockholm. After their visit with the Friedens, they plan to go to Panama.

To Aid Heart Fund

Mrs. Vaino Raag, 107 Addison Road, Addison, has been named chairman of the Northern Division of the Du Page county area in the 1956 Heart Fund drive of the Chicago Heart association. Mrs. Raag steps into this spot after serving during last year's campaign as chairman of the Addison committee. She is a member of the Memorial Hospital guild of Du Page county. Her husband is a physician practicing in Addison. Her brother, Dr. Paul Oberschneider, is a physician practicing in Roselle.

Committees throughout the Northern division of the county are being appointed, reports Chairman Raag, and their names will be announced shortly. The Heart campaign is conducted during the month of February, and is climaxed by Heart Sunday, Feb. 26, when 42,000 volunteer workers throughout the Chicagoland area will call on neighbors in their respective communities. To Aid Salvation Army

E. G. Miessler, 32 E. Lake st., cashier of Addison State Bank, has again been appointed chairman of the Salvation Army's service committee.

Long active in civic affairs Mr. Miessler has appointed Francis Laux, 102 North ave. and Paul Pfund, Lake st., to assist hi in the work of the service committee.

The service committee will represent the Salvation Army in rendering social welfare assistance to the needy of the Addison area. This help will include aiding victims of fires and other disasters, providing food, clothing, fuel, furniture, lodging and other emergency services for persons in distress, as well as medical, dental, surgical and optical care.

In addition to giving emergency and supplementary aid, the committee will also arrange for other traditional Salvation Army services such as hospitalization for unmarried mothers, rehabilitation of alcoholics and derelict men, vacations for needy mothers, children and golden agers at summer camp, work with prisoners and their families, aid to servicemen and hospitalized veterans, and any youth work in the community.

Mr. Miessler said that one of the service committee's forthcoming activities will be to assist the Salvation army in conducting its annual mail appeal for funds.

A portion of the funds raised in the mail campaign will remain with the treasurer of the committee to carry out the assistance program in Addison. (BB

Job Outlook For '56 Graduates Bright

Jobs for college graduates in 1956 will reach the highest peak in recent years and salaries will be higher than at any other time in history.

These statements, indicating continued industrial and business economic optimism, were contained in the tenth annual nation-wide college employment survey.

The employers reported they will seek about 30 per cent more college men than they hired last year. In engineering fields, the demand for college men is up 47 per cent, reflecting an increased backlog of unmet needs from previous years.

The demand in other fields is greatest for men with training in general business, sales, and accounting, Dr. Endicott said.

Jobs for women are fewer in business and industry but employers reported a need for women with secretarial training or with majors in chemistry or mathematics. (B

New Directors Of Arlington Federal

Donald F. Morton, 16 S. William St., Mt. Prospect, and Arthur J. Schaefer, Des Plaines, have been elected to the board of directors of the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The increase from six to eight in number of directors took place at the November meeting of Association officers in the Federal Savings offices, 11 N. State rd.

MORTON, who joined the Association ofice staff recently has been elected assistant secretary by the board of directors. He has been engaged in general contracting work in this area for the past eight years. Prior to this he was a foreman for the Illinois Tool Works, Chicago.

Born at Luck, Wis., Morton attended grade and high schools at Milltown. Wis.

He and his wife Ruby are members of St. Paul Lutheran church, Mt. Prospect. They have two children.

SCHAEFER is vice president in charge of public relations and development at DePaul university, Chicago. He received his bachelor's degree from DePaul University and took graduate study at the University of Chicago.

His professional affiliations include the Public Relations Clinic of Chicago, which he served for two years (1951-52) as secretary-treasurer. He is national membership chairman for the American College Public Relations association.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer have been active in the Cana Conference Movement in Chicago, serving as members of the executive board for four years (1950-54) and as board chairman in 1953-54.

They are members of St. Stephen's church, Des Plaines, and have three sons and three daughters.

Sales Congress

James Drake, agency manager of the Cook county IAA insurance service agency force, attended the All - American sales congress December 11 and 12 in Chicago. The conference, held annually, honors outstanding agents from Farm Bureau Insurance Companies throughout the nation. Drake was one of 22 Illinois agents who won the honor of attending the 2-day event.

Drake has served as agency manager of Cook county for the past 6½ years. He lives at 820 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

Industries Show Higher Profits

Industries heavily concentrated in the Midwest are scoring bigger profit gains in 1955 than those located in most other areas, according to the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. Writing in its monthly review, "Business Conditions," the bank says that this favorable profit showing reflects the "above average" business pickup noted here.

Steel, autos and railroads — all important Midwest industries — made January-September profit increases of 50 to 85 per cent over the same months last year. In contrast to this experience, net income of all U. S. corporations gained about 30 per cent.

WHAT'S MORE, Midwest producers of railroad equipment and industrial machinery appear to have most of their profit pickup ahead of them. Production gains in 1956, based upon their huge order backlogs, promise to reduce unit costs and boost earnings. These firms have been unable to increase output rapidly in recent months because of raw material shortages.

The boom in general business activity since 1954 is carrying pretax profits of U. S. corporations to the highest level in history. As in the past, corporate earnings are showing much larger changes than other economic measures. The nation's output of goods and services this year will exceed 1954 by about 7 per cent — far less than the expected pickup in net earnings. On the downswing, too, profits typically decline more rapidly than over-all business.

BUT NOT ALL firms have shared equally in the profit upsurge. Continued stiff competition has led to wide net income differences even within industries. Moreover, big firms are still faring better than smaller ones.

Profits of the 200 large manufacturers compiled by the federal reserve board, for xample, gained 39 per cent in the first half compared with a 31 per cent gain estimated for all producers. Large firms have done better partly because prosperity has especially benefited steel and auto lines which are heavily dominated by big companies. Nevertheless, even within these categories there is some tendency for the largest producers to chalk up higher earnings. (BB

Christmas Seals Coming In, But Many Are Still Lacking

Suburbanites, in the hustle of Christmas activities, were reminded by the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county not to forget to contribute to the gift of good health through Christmas Seals.

With a little over a week remaining in the 49th annual Christmas Seal Sale approximately 75 per cent of the 1954 total has been received at Seal headquarters. The Institute is hopeful 1955 contributions will top last year's Christmas Seal dollars.

Amounts credited to various communities of this area:

Arlington Heights, $4,988.57.
Bartlett, $436.50.
Des Plaines, $7,377.40.
Glenview, $4,554.05.
Morton Grove, $2,934.00.
Mt. Prospect, $2,090.25.
Northbrook, $2,718.08.
Palatine, $2,421,.41.
Prospect Heights, $409.76.
Wheeling $399.48.

Steel Production

Steel production in the six-county Chicago metropolitan area during the first 11 months of 1955 amounted to a record 19,774,300 tons.

Through November of last year, Chicago area mills produced 15,858,600 tons. The previous 11 month record was the 19,068,700 tons turned out from January through November in 1953.

Last month's steel production was 1,840,600 net tons as compared to 1,880,700 net tons in October, 1955.

Bits O' Business

Steel production crossed the 100 per cent mark, to register a weekly total of 2.4 million tons of ingots and castings . . . 136,781 tons of new rubber were used in October, an all-time monthly record. . . . Department stores in the week of November 19 showed a 6 per cent sales gain over the corresponding week of 1954.

TNT Tours Sugar Bowl Saturday

A tour of the Sugar Bowl in Des Plaines was made by the TNT 4-H club Saturday.

The group was escorted through the back of the shop where candy and ice cream are made. Free dixie cups and chocolate candy were given to the 4-Hers who were accompanied by Mrs. Harry Wille, one of the club's leaders. A tour of the front of the shop revealed paintings of Des Plaines in the 1800's and early 1900's.

Mary McClone will be hostess for the club's next meeting, December 22. Ice skating will preceede the meeting and caroling will follow the meeting.

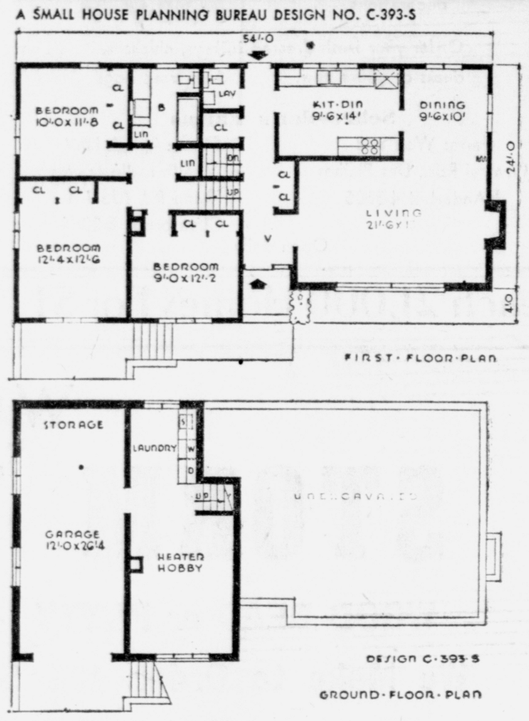
A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-393-S



DESIGN C-393-S. The lowest level of this three-level house contains storage, laundry and heater rooms and a garage with a front drive-in.

The ground level is built over a crawl space and consists of a living-dining room, a vestibule and coat closets.

Three bedrooms and a bath occupy the highest level. All bedrooms have liberal wardrobe closets.

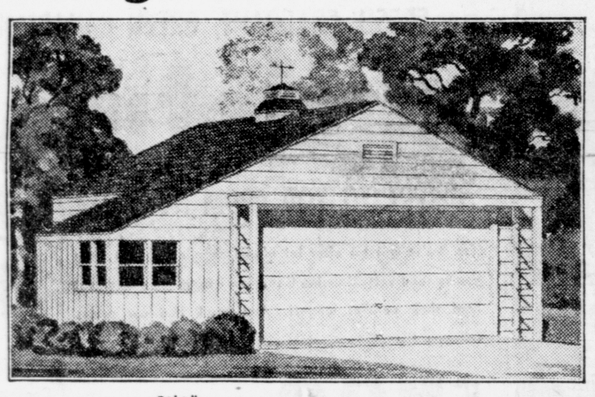
Dining space in the kitchen is in addition to the dining room which can be closed off from the living room by folding doors.

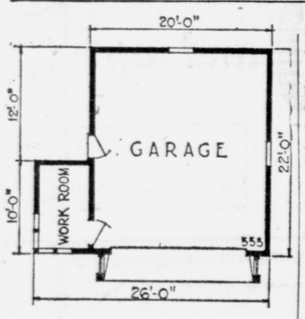
The excellent circulation revolves around a central hall reaching all rooms. Floor area on the ground is 1389 sq. ft. and cubage is 21,433 cu. ft.

The exterior living room wall is faced with stone; the balance is wide siding and plywood gable ends.

For further information about DESIGN C-393-S, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn. (DL

Garage of the Week





Designed to harmonize generally with any modern home, this 2-car garage features a tool storage and work room. Well lighted and ventilated, this practical storage and work space is especially suitable for the home mechanic or gardener.

Note the hooded entrance with trellis and the economical single door. For beauty, convenience and utility we recommend your giving this garage design careful consideration.

This is a National plan service garage design. Complete working blueprints are available from many local lumber dealers. (DL

Mt. Prospect Baby On TV Film 'It's Baby Time' Dec. 21

Two babies—a 5-month-old girl who flips around her "Jungle Jim" playpen like Tarzan, and a 9-month-old boy who kicks slats out of his playpen—will team up to show how babies should exercise on the television show "It's Baby Time" to be aired here.

Parents of both infants claim they are qualified to illustrate "How a Baby Should Exercise," the show's title. The program was filmed this week in Chicago.

THE GIRL BABY is Michele Ann Titus, born last July in the Great Lakes naval hospital at Great Lakes. Her father airman 2/c Donald L. Titus, 22, is now stationed at O'Hare field near Chicago.

Titus and his wife, Sheila, live with their baby in Crystal Lake Resorts northwest of Chicago.

Mrs. Titus, who lived in Mt. Prospect until she married the jet plane mechanic 2 years ago, said little Michele Ann's Tarzanlike feats are encouraged by her daddy.

"It surprises me how active the baby is, because I never went in for athletics. She must have inherited that tendency from her daddy. He applauds and cheers the baby's exploits."

TITUS WAS a football and basketball start at Manitou Springs (Colo.) high school, and was top scorer in cage in 1951 and '52. For his gridiron play he was selected on the Western States Who's Who in Sports — equivalent to all-regional honors.

Titus is scheduled for discharge a year from next February. He says he wants to return to Colorado and enroll at Colorado A. & M. They have good football and basketball there, he says.

"Also it gives a fellow the feel of the wide open spaces," Titus declares.

Airman Titus and his wife will be at her mother's home for a big party to watch Michele Ann on the "It's Baby Time" TV show, Wednesday, Dec. 21, on Channel 9. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCloud, live at 409 Hi Lusi rd., Mt. Prospect.

GI Bill Enrollments At Record Figure

Fall enrollments of Illinois veterans under the Korean GI bill have broken all past records of the three-year-old training program, and probably will pass the 35,000 mark before the end of the year, Robert D. Beer, VA's regional manager for Illinois, announced.

Incomplete reports from schools show that nearly 32,000 Korea veterans were in training November 1, Mr. Beer said. This represents a 48 per cent increase over the 21,586 enrolled a year ago, and also is well above the previous peak of 30,592 veteran-trainees, reached in May 1955.

GI college enrollments made the largest stride over the past year, Beer said, rising from 10,353 veteran students on November 1, 1954, to 17,700 this year — a 71 per cent increase. (WUS

At St. Joseph's

Richard F. Koch, a son of Mrs. Mary Koch of 117 Fairview, Mt. Prospect, is a student at St. Joseph's college at Rensselaer, Ind. this semester.

Koch, a freshman pre-engineering student at St. Joseph's, is a 1955 graduate of Maryville academy, Des Plaines, where he was active on the student newspaper.

Koch is one of 411 freshmen and transfer students who have swelled St. Joseph's enrollment to an all-time high of 804, an increase of 140 over last year. This increase has been accommodated largely by the two new residence halls, which were constructed at a cost of more than $500,000.

Skokie Says No To Proposed Hospital

Skokie plan commission has unanimously voted to deny a petition requesting rezoning on Cicero between Fargo and Jarvis for construction of a hospital. Home owners in the area fought the proposition.

Food Imports Twice Exports

The United States imports about twice as much food as it exports. More than $3 billion is spent abroad by Americans each year in purchasing coffee, sugar, tea and other food imports. U. S. exports in food amounted to about $1.6 billion in 1954.

The potential for growth in America's food exports is vast — if farmers are assured of regular, dependable, economical ocean transportation to world ports. An American merchant marine assures this service.

1956 Home Estimate

Contractors have predicted some 200 new homes for Libertyville next year. This is slightly below this year's construction volume.

At Westminster

Allan Wm. Ross, a senior this year at Westminster college, Fulton, Missouri, was one of 9 men elected to Who's Who Among Students in American universities and colleges. Who's Who is a national publication honoring college men of outstanding character and achievement.

Ross is editor of The Columns, Westminster college newspaper, having served as co-news editor 1½ years. He has also worked on the college yearbook as co-feature editor and is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism fraternity; Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity; Westminster military honor society and Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership society.

Ross, a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity, is the son of Paul H. Ross of 1535 S. State rd., Arlington Heights. (CC

In Louisiana

Army Cpl. William F. Hamilton, 20, son of Harold W. Hamilton, Route 1, Roselle, is participating in the largest joint army-air force maneuver since World War II, exercise sage brush, in Louisiana.

Some 110,000 army troops are testing the latest concepts of atomic, bacteriological, chemical and electronic warfare. The exercise ends Dec. 15.

Corporal Hamilton, a member of Company I of the 82d airborne division's 504th infantry regiment is regularly stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C. He entered the army in January 1954 and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. (WUS

At Case

George Laubenheimer, son of Mr and Mrs. George W. Laubenheimer, 115 N. Emerson, Mt. Prospect, has been elected to Alpha Chi Sigma, national professional chemical fraternity at Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, Ohio.

The fraternity endeavors to promote chemistry both as a science and as a profession, to bring true and lasting friendship to its members and to aid them in their profession throughout their lives.

George graduated from Arlington Heights high school in 1953. At Case he is a member of the student union board of directors and Phi Kappa Tau social fraternity. He is a junior majoring in chemical engineering. (CC

At Denver

Nancy Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Green, 221 South George Street, Mt. Prospect, is completing her first quarter at the University of Denver.

A pledge of Sigma Kappa social sorority she will be initiated in January after participating in the annual DU "Help Week," at which time each sorority pledge completes four hours of service work for the university.

Miss Green is a freshman modern languages major at DU.

At Illinois Wesleyan

Sandra Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Barr, 1212 Clarendon road, Arlington Heights, was recently initiated into the women's sports associaton at Illinois Wesleyan university, Bloomington. WSA provides recreation for women interested in sports. It is governed by a board elected by members and sponsors an extensive program of intramural athletics for women at Wesleyan.

A freshman at the university, Miss Barr is also a member of Sigma Kappa, national social sorority. She is majoring in elementary education. (CC

At Grinnell

Donald Moore of 634 S. Belmont Arlington Heights, has been promoted to cadet technical sergeant in the Grinnell college air force ROTC detachment. About 100 100 freshman and sophomoe cadets were promoted at this time as they assumed positions of leadership in the cadet corps.

Moore, a sophomore at Grinnell, is a 1954 graduate of Arlington Heights high school.

At Carleton

Robert Pearson, junior at Carleton college from Arlington Heights, has been elected sports editor of the Carletonian, weekly campus newspaper which recently won its 29th All-American award. Elected by members of the publications board of the Carletonian at a meeting last week, Bob takes over the sports department second semester and will continue until the second semester, 1957.

Pearson, a Union Carbide scholarship winner, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pearson 503 N. Haddow st., Arlington Heights.

At DeKalb

Eight soloists will be featured with the 310-voice college chorus and the college orchestra in the presentation of George Frederick Handel's oratorio "The Messiah" Thursday and Friday evenings, December 15 and 16, at Northern Illinois state college. The program —under the direction of Dr. Vernon Fay, associate professor of music at Northern—will be held in the college auditorium at 8:30 both evenings.

Student soloists Thursday night included Gilbert Haas of Mt. Prospect, bass. (CC

At Iowa State

Howard Heinrich of Itasca has been awarded his numerals in football at Iowa State college according to Louis E. Menze, director of athletics.

Satisfactory scholastic standing and participation in his chosen sport at Iowa State college were factors in his being awarded a numeral. The numeral sweaters will be presented to the athletes at ceremonies in the college armory on Saturday night during the intermission of the Iowa State-Tulsa basketball game.

College Teacher Demand Up 40% At Illinois

An increased call for college teachers, from 1,510 to 2,164 — suggests to Prof. J. Lloyd Trump, head of the University of Illinois teacher placement office, that the bulge in enrollment first felt in elementary schools, then high schools, has now reached colleges.

Openings for college teachers increased by more than 40 per cent over 1954-55.

Most of the 10,000 teaching job openings recorded by the office in 1954-55 were in the high schools, but the increase over the previous year was slight. (C

CHRISTMAS LIGHTING can be fun, colorful and add to the festive spirit in any home. Here's an example of what can be done with basic ideas and plenty of lights. The candles lining the approaching walk make the decorations different from most of the others.

"TOYS FOR TOTS" barrel at McCaskey's service station, Chicago ave. and Plum Grove ave., Palatine, has some toys, is begging for more. The drive for toys for the benefit of underpriviledged children of the area, is conducted by the marine corps reserve, with cooperation of local service stations serving as collection stations. Marine staff sergeant Robert D. Webb thanks Herbert McCaskey for pledging his cooperation. Drive for toys will run through Dec. 19.

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Careful speakers say, "Under these conditions,' 'and "in these circumstances."

Do not say, "Everyone of them know it is true." Say, "Everyone of them knows it is true."

Distinguish between "allusion" (an indirect reference) and "illusion" (a deceptive appearance).

Do not say, "I see her every once in awhile." Omit "every," or better still, say, "I see her occasionally."

Do not say, "His book treats on these subjects." Say, "treats of these subjects."

Do not say, "The house was surrounded on all sides by water." "On all sides" is redundant. Merely say, "The house was surrounded by water."

Mispronounced

Artiste, Pronounce ahr-teest, accent on second syllable.

Vermouth. Pronounce ver-mooth, oo as in moon, accent second syllable.

Patois (a dialect). Pronounce pat-wah, accent on first syllable.

Literature. Pronounce lit-er-a-tyur, in four syllables, and not lit-er-chur.

Lissome. Pronounce liss-um, accent first syllable.

Deficit. Pronounce deff-i-sit, accent on first syllable.

Misspelled

Dyeing (coloring); dying (expiring). Welfare, one l; well-being, two l's, and hyphenated. Acquit, one t; acquittal and acquitting, two t's. Cord (twine); chord (in music). Accidentally (not accidently). Acquaint, acq; aquarium, no c.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Banal; trite; ordinary. (Pronounce second syllable as in final). "The room had a banal appearance of a staid environment of banal conventionality."

Reconcile; to cause to be friendly again. "He was reconciled to his brother."

Pristine; belonging to the earliest time; primitive; uncorrupted. (Pronounce second syllable teen). "The foliage had a dustless pristine freshness."

Emolument; profit; earnings. "Some prefer to work for a stipendiary emolument rather than for a commission."

Oligarchy; a form of government in which the power is vested in a few or a state so governed. (Pronounce oll-i-gahr-ki, accent first syllable). "Hitler's Germany was an oligarchy."

EDWINA LINDBERG, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson of 511 See Gwun, Mt. Prospect, was a queen candidate for Northwestern university's military ball. Miss Lindberg, a freshman in the school of speech, will represent Alpha Phi sorority. The military ball, held in Chicago's Sherman hotel Dec. 2, is an annual event sponsored by the naval and air force ROTC units.

Realtors See Bright '56 Building

Business — and particularly the undertaking which supplies America with homes — has a bright future for 1956, talks at the recent New York convention of the national association of real estate boards indicate, according to Charles A. Hodlmair, president of the Northwest Suburban Real Estate Board.

Mr. Hodlmair noted these were among the predictions voiced to his fellow realtors during the annual conclave:

1. THE YEAR should be another one of high level home production to meet continued demands for home ownership and superior home standards, Henry G. Waltemade, New York NAREB president declared.

2. There should be ample funds for mortgage loans during the coming year, and the volume of funds should be at least as great as those available during 1955, according to Niles L. Colean, Washington D. C. economist and consultant.

3. In a long range view of housing needs, Dr. Neal Bowman, staff speaker of the National Association of Manufacturers, said there is a minimum need of 30 million new dwellings between now and 1975, and that this assures a strong market for the construction industry.

BESIDES these predictions at the convention, the Board leader said, there are good reasons for believing that business, generally, will continue strong during 1956.

Construction, for one thing, he noted, is expected to reach the record-breaking total of $44 billion, or 5 per cent above the $42 billion indicated for 1955, according to estimates of the Labor and Commerce Departments.

Gems Of Thought

CHRISTMAS

The deserts and the wilderness rejoice, and angels whisper, Peace, good will to earth.

—Robert Ellis Key

Men always have hope of a better world when they see the miracle of Christmas.

—Charles Wells

The basis of Christmas is love loving its enemies, returning good for evil, love that "suffereth long, and is kind."

—Mary Baker Eddy

It is good to be children sometimes, and never better than at Christmas, when its mighty Founder was a child Himself.

—Charles Dickens

He did not come to conquer by force of armies and physical weapons but by love planted in the hearts of individuals.

—W. W. Melton

Public Notice

Notice of Proposed Changes in Schedules

COMMONWEALTH EDISON COMPANY and its Public Service Company Division hereby give notice to the public that there has been filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on December 1, 1955, a revision in Schedule 8-R, Information and Requirements for the Supply of Electric Service, now effective in Chicago and in Public Service Company Division territory.

The Company is proposing, through the revision, to extend through the year 1956 its program of sharing installation expense of improved service entrance equipment with certain residential customers who purchase and install 240-volt, single-phase service. The size of the service entrance equipment conductors, the cost of which is to be borne by the Company, is being increased for single-family residences in order to provide greater wiring capacity.

Further information with respect to this change may be obtained either directly from the Company or by addressing the Secretary of the Illinois Commerce Commission in Springfield, Illinois.

A copy of the proposed change may be inspected by any interested party in any business office of this Company or of its Public Service Company Division.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday, December 18.

Man's God-given dominion over sickness of every kind will be emphasized in readings from the King James Version of the Bible including the following selections from Jeremiah (17:14): "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (189:25-27): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible."

Choose Color For House As You Pick Your Clothes

"Most home-owners today are no longer afraid of color," says Beatrice West, a leading decorator who has color-styled more than 100,000 houses.

"In the past," she says, "it was customary to find most every house in a neighborhood painted just about the same. It didn't matter that each house was different in size, shape, architecture and setting. Owners were timid, afraid of their own color preferences."

Miss West feels that in general women tend to be more sophisticated about color than men.

"Stout women rarely wear light colors," she says. "They know that light colors make them appear larger while dark colors tend to make them look slimmer. They know that large, bold fabric patterns also emphasize bigness while small, conservative ones make a woman seem smaller. Vertical stripes give the impression of height while horizontal ones emphasize width.

"Same with a house. Light colors make a small house look bigger. Dark colors make a big house look smaller. Color emphasis on horizontal features makes a top-heavy house seem lower and longer. Emphasis on vertical features, such as the roof, will make a low house look taller."

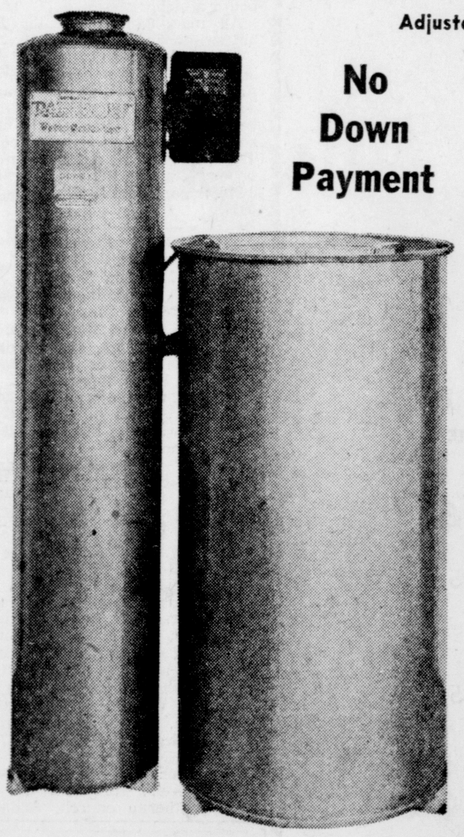
Rainbow Water Softeners

8 Models and 29 Combinations and Sizes to fit any family.

Fully Automatic Water Softener



No Down Payment

Adjustable, Up to 175,000 Grain Capacity Weekly

In the Rainbow Automatic, the nuisance of regenerating has been entirely eliminated. A simple, dependable, electric timer does this for you — while you are sleeping.

Regeneration occurs during the night once or oftener each week, depending on how much soft water is required and the use of a Rainbow Automatic is as convenient and automatic as an automatic water heater.

Needs salt only 2 or 3 times yearly. Softens - Filters - Removes Iron and Corrosive elements. This new air rise type of regeneration is the greatest advancement in water softening since its discovery. Our backwash method keeps tanks and zeolite clean and fresh for years.

We manufacture and service our own softeners.

Check Dunn & Bradstreet Financial Report before buying any softener

Fifty Years Ago

December 15, 1905

J. C. Hattendorf has a big business in Chicago. He employes 38 men, a lady stenographer, runs 26 wagons and has all the work 46 horses can do. He sells about 100 cars of wet and dry brewer's grain daily.

Henry Rickert got back Monday from Alabama where he has bought a farm. He will move there, where help is cheap, the soil rich, the weather mild and a man can get rich without hard work.

Bensenville is famous for handsome healthy women; and men from miles away come here to get good wives. Lake and Cook counties have already taken several of our superior girls and are well satisfied with their bargains.

H. E. Quindel says a nimble nickel is better than a slow dime. He believes in doing business lively. He don't hold property for the natural rise in the market but when he can make a fair profit, sells and watches for other bargains where he can buy cheap and make money on a trade.

I hereby announce another opportunity for home and land seekers to visit the Grand Prairie of Arkansas. Those who know both, say it is equal to California. Take the trip with me and be convinced that Arkansas leads the world for comfort, health, short winters, cool summers, even rainfall, largest growing section, richest soil, timber, the greatest markets, etc. No man has ever regretted taking this trip. The special excursion train leaves Chicago Dec. 19 over the Ill. Cent. R.R. to Memphis, thence over the C.R.I. arriving at Hazen, on the Grand Prairie of Arkansas. Cheap fare only $13 for round-trip. If you wish to join me on this trip, write or phone for further information. L. B. Scharringhausen, Des Plaines.

Duck feathers for sale. Apply to Fred Netz. Phone Palatine 16-R-1.

W. E. Schering has the cement floor laid in his garage and it is quite a commodious building.

Miss Elnora Arps has some of her china still unsold, which is on display at the Southside bakery.

A nice Christmas present of Bunte's Chocolates or a box of 25 cigars will be just the thing. Schweitzer has a good line of both.

We still have a number of boxes of cigars on hand that my father manufactured. Anyone desiring cigars, call 80-W by phone any evening. —Wm. Godknecht.

J. K. Orvis, who is known to the majority of our people, having assisted in the promotion of the local railraod is now interested in a manufacturing company which is seeking to locate at the Heights and incidently is asking the citizens of that place to subscribe for $10,000 worth of stock. J. K. has not lost any of his ability as a talker, so said a local man who chanced to hear him telling of the advantages of the new manufacturing company.

A smooth traveling salesman visited the Zinn drug store Wednesday afternoon and left with a $6 Kodak which he forgot to pay for. The man spent nearly an hour standing around the place and engaging the clerk Paul Pohlman in conversation, during which he told about what a smaooth guy he was. He not only told about his adeptness, but demonstrated it as well as the kodak disappeared with him. It was not until the next morning that the article was missed and the above is the only solution. It is not generally known but the coin box in the depot telephone booth was robbed about two months ago.

Thirty Years Ago

December 11, 1925

With the score 15-14 in the favor of Heights and less than a minute to go, Palatine pulled the game from the fire and won by one point on a basket by Gieseke. Crane and L. Bolte were high point men for Heights with five points apiece to their credit.

There will be plenty of outdoor sport at Deer Grove this winter, thanks to the Lions clubs of this section of the country. At a recent meeting of the Palatine Lions club, the civic committee, suggested that joint action be taken by the neighboring Lions clubs of Barrington, Palatine, Arlington Heights and Des Plaines for the purpose to secure action of county board that would assure good skating at Deer Grove the coming winter. The plans include completion of a log house.

Do you know the correct street number of your residence or business place? if you pay special assessment taxes, you will receive your number very soon. Village Collector E. H. Bolte has completed a survey of the village and has applied a number to every lot within the municipality. Several years, before Arlington Heights began to grow, Mr. Bolte made such a survey, but the village has grown so fast that the records in this regard were either lost or had become inadequate.

The village board authorized the numbering of houses a long time ago, and the post office has asked that persons receiving mail use them in their correspondence with their friends, but these efforts have not met with the response that they should. Arlington Heights is growing so fast and so many new people are moving into town that the house numbering is important. The business men's associations are spending over $600 to place attractive street signs upon every street intersection in Arlington Heights. The property owners are asked to do their part in attaching the numbers to the buildings.

Twenty Years Ago

December 13, 1935

Alderman George Schneberger is very much alive in spite of the fact that last Sunday some sorrowing friends came to his house expecting to pay their last respects. Instead they found a very much alive alderman, who admits having been ill, so much so that a nurse was needed, but he does not want his friends to start buying him flowers just yet, although he is a little inquisitive about the kind of an obituary that the editor already had in type.

Last Monday night the office board of St. John church met for a special meeting called by President Baumgartean. The board was in favor of repairing the church roof, painting the parsonage and renovating the church interior by painting and remodeling the altar and the walls, ceiling and woodwork — and by installing large comfortable pews. The total cost of the project amounting to approximately $1,250.00. The board considered asking the Ladies' aid society to loan the church $1,000 on a 2½ per cent interest rate.

Wide wave sound installed in Arlington theatre through the untiring and ambitious efforts of the manager, Mr. Godshaw, Tuesday night was "First Night" introducing this marvelous improvement. It was sponsored by the high school teachers and pupils, through the courtesy of the theater manager, who in his plain unaffected manner, explained the advantage of this newly installed sound wave system. This places Arlington Theatre in front rank, no longer need to expose yourself to the dangers of a midnight trip home from a Chicago theater, when we have the privilege of first class films here at home.

We're sorry to learn that one of the Rodewald brothers, who so faithfully attend to our requests for news — "News men" — on the corner, has and is now unwillingly entertaining some of Jobs comforters. One so troublesome as to reach carbunkle demands for space.

Ten Years Ago

December 14, 1945

Arlington Heights is in possession of the finest Christmas tree ever erected in this area. The tree was one of the show trees in Palatine until Tuesday morning when employees of the State Highway department at the request of the Northwestern railroad, removed the "traffic hazard." The railroad company stated that the evergreen had grown to such size that it obscured view of the flashers at Chicago Ave. and Hale st.

In some manner a little bird told George Schneberger, chairman of the Arlington Christmas decorating committee, about the tree. George acted quickly and purchased the tree which is now in place at the Arlington Christmas center.

A second fatal accident occurred last week at the intersection of Wilke rd. and Northwest hwy. The view of an autoist traveling north on Wilke rd. is obscurred by a railroad shanty and a woven wire fence. The accident was caused by a driver, who admitted at the inquest that he put on speed to beat a Northwestern railroad train to the Wilke st. crossing. He won the race with the train but an instance later collided with a southbound car, causing the death of one man and serious injury to others.

The Mt. Prospect Village Board believes in letting the public in on all facts regarding the suits that are in progress of foreclosure. A large map has been prepared in which is shown the particular lots covered by foreclosure resolutions that have received the approval of the municipality.

The Palatine village board Monday night authorized Attorney Thomas A. Mathews to file a preliminary request with the Illinois Commerce Commission for the installation of gates at the Paltine railroad crossings.

"PILGRIMS" of den 1, pack 251, Mt. Prospect, entertained parents and other dens by singing "America" at the organization's meeting November 15 in St. Mark church. Theme of the meeting was "America the Beautiful." Randy Gross and Allan Koehler are seated left to right in the first row. Kim Uhleman, Richard LaKaff and Lynn Nelson are in the back row.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

"Laughing is a good tonic," one of my patrons said to me concerning his neighbor, "as long as you are laughing with a person and not at him."

At first the words didn't sink in, but I kept turning them over in my mind and soon began to realize that much, too much of the laughing done in this world is at the other person's expense.

Ridiculing the other fellow and praising oneself seems to be our greatest national pastimes. Sometimes we receive more satisfaction than we should when the Jones lose their new car because, as the saying is, they "bit off more than they could chew." We laugh at the foreign person's accent, at a peculiar character trait in another person, poke fun at other people's clothes, eating habits, religion, points of view. We make fun of people who are fat or of others who are skinny. A car going by on a slushy street throws a generous sprinkling of mud or slush on a club lady's coat and we laugh at the expression on her face, the anger or concern that she shows. I have seen men tease another man about some pecularity of his until his face is red with anger and he goes into a rage.

GOOD NATURED kidding, enjoying a good joke with another person, seeing the funny side of our own misfortunes is good, even healthy for us; but when we carry it to the extent of maliciousness, it ceases to be good or funny. Getting pleasure out of another person's obvious embarrassment or their misfortunes is selfishness and

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

During the years we have had young in school, we are forced to listen to bleats of injury from one or the other of them periodically. The injury of which we speak and over which they moan is caused by the seeming unfairness and utter stupidity of one of their teachers.

Usually some teacher has had the temerity to give them some project that is just beyond their immediate comprehension This is a crime in their eyes that should be punishable by either the guillotine or at least life imprisonment. Anything that causes them undue exertion either physically or mentally is no challenge to them. It is an insult.

We have turned a deaf ear to these sufferings because it just so happens that we are on the teacher's side 9 times out of 10. We look upon teachers with the same awe that we accord the president of General Motors or Joan of Arc. They are underpaid and overworked. They have more time to mold the sterling characters of our young than we do. And, we are inclined to believe, they spend more time at it.

We have always thought that if the teacher looks after their academic development, it was up to us to take care of their character. We have assured all teachers that if ours present them with a personality problem, get in touch. This attitude seems to throw them back on their heels so that we are wondering if our point of view is uncommon. Well, uncommon or no, it is ours. Teachers, we salute you.

We saw the high school Christmas program. As is usual we were amazed at the professional manner of the presentation. Before we take off for the festivities each year we are filled with the spirit of seeing our duty and then doing it. After we have heard the music and seen the acts, we come to the conclusion that it is one of the best parts of Christmas.

We probably feel schoolish because it has been a week of report cards. Having looked over these bits of important information, we have reached the conclusion that all of ours are heading for fine careers of being homebodies. We just hope they retain enough knowledge to add up the grocery list and read the newspapers. We think they might if they just work a little harder.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

I saw one of the prettiest and most unusual Christmas decorations last night. It was our painting lesson night and we had all gathered at Irene's home. Irene is one of those very talented women who can do almost anything that has a connection with art or home decorating. She always, of course, has some hobby going. Last year she became interested in copper enameling and made the most beautiful jewelry and dishes I have ever seen of this kind.

This year she and her husband have been concentrating on the new, very contemporary room which they had built onto their home. Together, they painted several modern-design pieces black with streaks of white, which, when rubbed together, produced an "antiqued" black sort of finish. Irene covered cushions for the chairs with a bold black and white check material. For the corner bench and table combination, that her husband built, she covered foam rubber cushions in bright turquoise cordurory. Her latest addition to this room was a "study" for the wall.

INSIDE A LARGE white frame, she has arranged a black painting palette, half inside the frame and half out. From the small hole in the center of the palette, spring the three gilded paint brushes which lie across the palette. In the very middle of the "study," are four vertical lines of turquoise-painted clothesline and on the last strand is attached a large bunch of artificial, pink-violet colored grapes. It is a very effective touch to this room.

For her Christmas decoration in this modern room she made what you might describe as a free form-mobile sort of thing. She inflated a balloon and wrapped clothesline around it in no particular design, however, managing to criss-cross back and forth over and around the balloon, in a basket-fashion. This completed, she submerged the balloon, clothesline and all in a tub of wet plaster of Paris. Having covered it all completely, she set it out to dry.

IT TOOK SEVERAL days to dry hard and fast, but when it did, Irene popped the balloon and removed it and of course the stiff clothesline retained the unusual appearance of a round, cage like affair. Inside of this, she plans to arrange sprigs of evergreen (perhaps "frosted") and Christmas tree balls in the colors of her room. She intends to suspend it from the ceiling, probably in one corner of the room.

It's Irene, also, who has one of the nicest manger scenes I've ever seen. For her large figures, she needed a large manger — and the right size for her would have been too expensive. So, around the sides and back of a large box, she built up grey clinkers, discarded from some friend's furnace, which look for all the world like the boulders of a cave. She covered the top with evergreens "to add a little warmth and look pretty." It's a simple and lovely setting for her carved figures.

People like Irene are such fun to be with — their zest and enthusiasm for creating beauty, which adds richness to life, is marvelously contagious.

My love,
Patty

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Worried

I was amused and a little worried by "Homeowner's" letter in regard to the rezoning and proposed cement plant on Kleinschmidt's farm. Amused, because the writer wished to remain unknown to his neighbors, most of whom have definite views on the matter and don't care who knows what their opinions are. Worried, because the letter gave only our local problems.

We live in Bensenville Gardens, the area that will be next to the proposed industrial sites. Even the most desirable light industries will present problems in regard to noise, dust, dirt, traffic, de-valuation of property, and parking.

THESE PROBLEMS can be easily overlooked by the town if they feel the increase in revenue is better for the majority than the desires of the forty-five families in the minority.

But the increase in revenue might not be enough to pay for the increase in overhead and some very important questions must be asked:

Are the sewers adequate to handle the increased flow of industrial waste? Will the present method of disposal be taxed to capacity?

Can the storm sewers handle the watershed from that area now draining down into earth of the fields?

IS OUR POLICE force large enough to give the area protection? Will more men and cars be required?

Will the town be able to supply water to new industries without new wells? Do we have enough water to make the digging of new wells practical, or will be be necessary to ration water during a dry season?

Can we give fire protection to new industries without new equipment? These are added hazards in oil and chemical fires. Will the present firehouse location, west of the Milwaukee tracks, prevent certain desirable industries from locating in the new area? (Would their fire insurance premiums rise, one of our local problems?) Trains do take a while to get passed a crossing and a fire doesn't wait.

WILL THE NEW industries bring in employees who want to build homes and live and shop in our town (and can afford to) or will they employ low salaried, transit workers?

Will it be necessary to have a general tax increase or will the new industries be able to contribute enough to the revenue so that the tax burden is not made greater to the home owner?

Mrs. Harold Berg

Puzzled!

The workings of our Village Trustees are wondrous and incomprehensible to behold! Take, for instance, the announced annexation of the 40 acres adjoining Arlington Greens: months ago, the promoter of the project appeared before the board and after many arguments "pro and con" at several successive meetings, managed to secure a promise to consider the annexation, but only upon performance of certain conditions, the most vital of which were: one, a report from the village engineers as to the feasibility of connecting with our sewer and water facilities; two, to submit a certified check for the annexation fee.

At the Nov. 15 meeting the promoter appeared with a check for partial payment of the annexation fee, no report from the engineers, and was promptly refused the annexation. At the very next meeting, Dec. 6, he again appeared before the board, still minus the engineers' report, still minus the proper annexation fee, and, by golly, he put it over — the annexation was voted and the village attorney ordered to prepare the annexation papers!

A DELEGATION of Arlington Greens residents appeared at the meeting requesting the annexation, but, surely, that should not have swayed the board to waive the hard and fast conditions required of the promoter! Even the promised park seems to have evaporated into thin air!

If only our trustees would concentrate their efforts on seeing what can be done to reduce our water and sewer bills. It would seem that the newly elected trustees, of whom we expected so much, are sabotaging their announced plans for reducing our rates by approving these annexations, which inevitably will lead to higher sewer and water costs, whether by assessment or bonded indebtedness; or was this just an "idle campaign promise?"

Political Opinions

We are the greatest nation on earth because we have two strong major political parties and because we have wide differences of political opinions. Our Bill of Rights gives us the privilege of freedom of speech.

Those who opposed the village managership believed the stands they took were right and they had the courage to fight for their convictions. They are to be commended for being civic minded enough to fight for what they felt was right. Without good healthy opposition, democracy can be lost.

Arlington Heights is called the "City of Good Neighbors" —that covers a large field. We all have the right to stand up for what we believe. When grown men and women can no longer discuss the pros and cons of a basic issue without becoming insulting, they are emotionally immature.

Page 113 of December Reader's Digest reads in part: "Compassion is the hallmark of the civilized man. If we were all compassionate our most dangerous problems would be solved. Whatever our creeds and political dogmas, we would find a way to live and let live. There would be an end to man's disastrous 'inhumanity to man' and therefore to war."

Despite a serious illness, I've got enough red blood left in me to denounce "ala Peron" tactics.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. When it is necessary for a house guest to make a long-distance telephone call, how should this be handled?

A. The guest first, of course, asks permission of the host or hostess to use the telephone. Then, after the call has been completed, the guest immediately calls the operator, asks for the charges, and then remits this amount to the host or hostess.

Q. Should a woman thank the waiter who holds her chair while she is being seated in a restaurant?

A. This is not necessary.

Q. Is it proper to send formal invitations to a christening?

A. No; because only the family and a few intimate friends are supposed to be asked.

Q. Is it all right to answer a formal invitation by telephone?

A. Never. A written reply should be sent, and in the same style as the invitation — that is, in the third person.

Q. Is it all right to use a knife to open a muffin?

A. Never. Bread of all kinds should be broken open with the fingers, never cut.

Q. When the guests begin lighting cigarettes after a meal in someone's home, and you find there is no ashtray near you, is it all right to use one of the used dishes in front of you?

A. Never. Don't light your cigarette until you have asked your hostess if you may have an ashtray.

Q. When leaving a person to whom one has just been introduced, is it proper to say, "Good-by, Mr. Brown; I hope I shall see you again sometime soon?"

A. Yes, this is quite all right. Or, "Goodby, Mr. Brown; I am very glad to have met you."

Q. When taking food offered by a waiter, is it necessary to say "Thank you?"

A. This isn't considered necessary, but there most certainly is nothing wrong with it.

Q. Is a person really obligated to give his reason for declining an invitation?

A. While there is no obligation attached, surely it is more gracious to give some reason for your inability to attend an affair to which someone has been kind enough to invite you.

Q. Does the receipt of a birth announcement obligate one to send a gift to the baby?

A. There is no obligation, but, it is a nice gesture. If, however, one feels one cannot afford a gift or is not on intimate terms with the new parents, then a congratulatory card or hand-written note would be in order.

Q. What should a person say when about to be introduced to the person for the second time?

A. A suitable expression would be, "Thank you, but I have already had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Williams."

Fair Assn. Honors 4-H Club Leaders At Recognition Banquet

North Cook county 4-H fair association was host Friday evening to the leaders in 4-H club work. services in individual club work and support of the annual 4-H club fair last August. Their activities extend over a large area and include both home economics and agriculture.

Following invocation by Rev. Behrens, the ladies of the Faith church served one of their superb dinners. Entertainment was given by Doris and Brenda Rudolph and Diane Rakowski.

President L. W. Pohlman gave the welcoming address.

Ray Hecht, director from Hanover township, was toastmaster, introducing the speakers. George Menard, of TV fame, told his hearers that 4-H club work should mean a lot more than just the know-how of agriculture. It should train the boys and girls to stand on their own feet, preparing them to take over the reigns now held by their elders.

There are many men and women in North Cook county engaged in 4-H club work. With few exceptions they were all present. Mrs. R. A. Heinkle introduced the leaders in home economics. The response was given by Mrs. A. E. Schaefer senior in service with 13 years to her credit.

The home economic leaders are:

One year leaders — Mrs. C. Halat, Mrs. W. O. Patton, Bartlett Beavers; Mrs. Claude Kagel, Mrs. Wm. Tribke, Girls of Schaumberg; Mrs. Eva Preus, Mrs. Edith Bennett, Palatine Busy Bees.

Mrs. Wm. Zahorsky, Medinah Merry Maids; Mrs. William Ryan, Busy Fingers; Mrs. Larraine Kehe, Snappy 4-Hers; Mrs. Marvin Rodewald, Sewing Susies; Mrs. Frank Kassel, Seam and Simmer and Mrs. James Huck, St. Matthews club.

Two year leaders — Mrs. Harvey Pohlman, Mrs. Leonard Weise, Girls of Schaumberg; Mrs. Roy Nickel, Mrs. Robert Garrelts, Happy Hanover; Mrs. Noel Foss, Future Homes; Mrs. Ray Blazek, Medinah Merry Maids and Mrs. Robert Gartner, St. Matthews club and Mrs. H. E. Mahler, Mrs. Clara Krambeer, T N T.

Four year leader — Mrs. Emma Grewe, Snappy 4-Hers.

Five year leader — Mrs. Edwin Deeke, Up and Doing (club of the year).

Six year leaders — Mrs. Frank Kronn, Northbrook Clubs and Mrs. E. J. Ahmer Sewing Susies.

Seven year leader — Mrs. Blanche Kingsley, Country Cousns.

Nine year leader — Mrs. Edith Linneman, T N T.

Thirteen year leader — Mrs. A. E. Schaefer, Barrington Blue Birds.

Junior leaders — Judy Ahmer, Nancy Heimsoth, LaVonne Theis, Nancy Schubert, Lois VonBergen, Nancy Wichman, Sharon Meier, Judy Michehl, Betty Lou Shulse, Marlene Krambeer and Diane Deeke.

ART BUSSE, with 19 years, is the veteran leader in agriculture. Harold Bergman, Palatine, has 15 years to his credit. Other introduced by John H. Bicket, assistant farm adviser:

G. F. Klein Jr., Hanover; Albert A. Koskela, Palatine; Victor Pohlman, Junior Farmers; Dyoll Babbitt, Barrington Pioneers; Albert C. Drewes, Wheeling Do'ers; Ivan O. Reid, Washington; Edwin H. Benhart, Schaumburg and William Linneman, Elk Grove.

Don Linneman former 4-H member and leader, 4-H delegate to Club Congress is now stationed in Erwin, Pa.

Leaders — Pete Cirella, Arlington Ranchers; Eugene Daley, Maryville; Joseph Geers, Northview; Robert Hermann, Medinah view; Robert Hermann, Claire Neff, Medinah Ramblers; Mrs. Hugh Robinson, 4-H Scouts; Earl Saville, Golden Harvest; Herbert Plote, Palatine Twp.; Gene Hughes, Wheeling Do'ers; Harold Bergman, Palatine Twp. and Arthur Busse, Elk Grove.

Junior Leaders — Barbara Golden, Elk Grove; Sherman Schubbe, Hanover Hawks; Clark Foss, Junior Farmers; Harvey Hortik, Schaumburg and Ivan O. Reid Jr., Washington.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

In a dry year such as the one just passed we get many questions on soil treatment, yields, etc.

Recently I saw a comparison of corn root development in fertilized and unfertilized silt loam at Urbana, Illinois. During the moderately dry season of 1954, there was a greater root penetration and root growth and also a higher corn yield on the fertilized than on the unfertilized plot. Over a long period, the fertilized plot had received residue lime and rock phosphate, whereas the unfertilized plot had received only crop residue.

CORN YIELD was 79 bushels per acre on the fertilized plot and 66 bushels per acre on the unfertilized. Total root weight on the fertilized was 1846 pounds compared to 1398 on the unfertilized. Root penetration was 6 inches on fertilized compared to 48 on the unfertilized.

To this depth the soil was capable of storing 12.8 acre inches of water in the fertilized and 10.5 acre inches in the unfertilized.

From this data, one can readily see that good soil management plus a good fertilizer program is essential for top yield.

ALTHOUGH CORN fertilization has been getting the limelight, tests show that you get increases of 11 bushels an acre in soybeans by including legumes in the rotation and by treating the soil with the lime, phosphate and potash called for by soil tests.

Soybeans do not normally respond to direct fertilization at planting time, however profitable increases in yields will result from a good soil building program that includes clovers or alfalfa and plenty of organic matter in addition to the necessary lime, phosphate and potash.

Good Lighting Not Hit Or Miss Job— It Must Be Planned; Guide Is Given

BY IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Good lighting is not a hit or miss job. It must be planned. And this goes for the farm, particularly, where scores of after-dusk accidents happen regularly because of poor illumination:

A dark farmyard can be a pretty formidable place in which to take a walk. It becomes even more dangerous when the farmer is hurrying to wind up his chores following a long tiring day. All of us work better, faster and safer if we can see what we're doing, and where we're going.

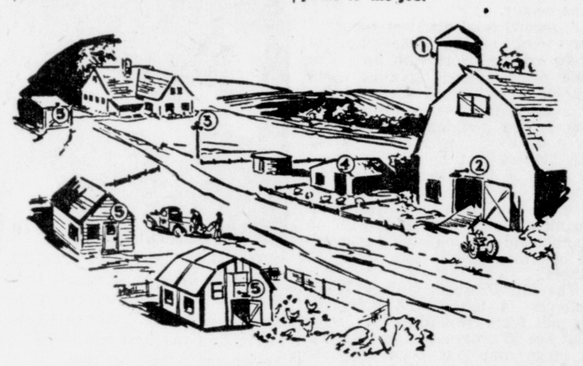
A combination of conventional yardlights and floodlights for locations over entrances to service buildings, and a cluster of floodlights on a yard pole to illuminate areas beyond buildings will do an adequate exterior illumination job. As a guide to how this can be accomplished we refer to the illustration below, which suggests:

Floodlights on side, near top of silo (1); cluster of three floodlights mounted on pole for three-directional general yard lighting (3);

Conventional yard lights over entrance to dairy barn (2), and over entrance to poultry house (5) — in foreground;

Floodlights or conventional yardlight fixtures, whichever is more efficient for individual farm layouts, at entrance to hog house (4); at the three other No. 5 locations shown—poultry house, utility building and garage . . . as well as entrances to such buildings as machine shed, farm shop, milk house, drive-through granary and storage structures.

The foregoing represent general recommendations only—but they are tied directly to nation-wide safety statistics that prove conclusively that injuries can be prevented and work speeded up if farmers will follow the simple practice of putting plenty of light on the job—and lighting their paths to the job.



Trade Barriers Lower Prices Of Fed Cattle

Lower prices for top grades of fed catle have been largely due to insurmountable trade barriers and a practically inelastic demand outlet for top weights and grades according to H. M. Conway director of research, National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

Most of the trouble in the cattle market has been confined to the top two grades and particularly to the heavier weights. It has been three decades since a comparable supply of top heavy beef has been produced. In the meantime, there has been a marked downtrend in the demand for heavy cuts and for top finish.

MANY TRADE barriers also limit distribution of such beef. Top weights and grades apparently do not have access to more than one-third of the retail shops in this country. The primary outlet for top grade beef is limited to hotels and restaurants and to the Kosher trade.

There is no flexibility in prices paid by the consumer a the hotel and restaurant level to allow for the increased beef supply. The Kosher demand is limited to the forequarter and there has been no reduction in prices that would be sufficient to move the supply.

CONSIDERING all of these factors, it is quite natural for most of the better grades of cattle and particularly the heavier weights to move through comparatively few central markets for processing by comparatively few packers.

Only One-Third Of All Rainfall Is Utilized

Lack of state laws governing priority rights on surface and underground water is holding up widespread use of supplementary irrigation by farmers.

Looking ahead to the 70th General Assembly which convenes in 1957, state senator Glen O. Jones of Harrisburg, a member of the Illinois Water Study Commission, said recomendations by the commission probably would be made in early 1957.

Jones said the commission will hold hearings in Illinois next year so that it can recommend to the state legislature a procedure for determining rights and ownership of water supplies.

RAY HUNTER, IAA director of natural resources, said about 40 inches of rainwater falls on Illinois each year.

"Of that rainfall, only 14 inches is utilized. This means that 65 per cent gets away in the forms of run-off and evaporation," he explained.

Surface storage consisting of many more lakes and ponds on individual farms is needed, Hunter said.

Hunter said two laws passed in the last state legislature should help farmers make better use of land and water.

"THE ILLINOIS soil conservation districts law was amended to provide for establishment of subdistricts on a watershed basis," he said.

Sub-districts furnish an opportunity for more adequate cooperation with the United States department of agriculture in establishing and improving watersheds, he pointed out.

Hunter said the state legislature displayed foresight in establishing a commission to study water ownership problems and recommend legislation aimed at solving these problems. (Fm

Law On The Farm

Life Estates

Many Illinois farms are held for life only, and quite a number of farm owners are thinking about creating life tenancies. Before doing so, there are important benefits and limitations they should consider.

Although a holder of a life estate is called a tenant, he is not a tenant in the same sense as a farm tenant. Actually he resembles an owner and has most of the rights of an owner. During his lifetime he may rent the land to others or farm it himself and take all the income.

A LIFE ESTATE is frequently created by a person who wants to make sure that a particular individual has a means of income for life—but wishes also to have the land go to certain other persons at the life tenant's death. For example, a farm owner might deed the farm to his children, reserving a life estate in himself—or a husband might make a will giving the land to his children subject to a life estate in his wife.

Another reason for using a life estate is that it reduces the cost of transferring property at the death of the life tenant. Both probate and tax costs are lower at had been given to the life tenant. had been given o the life tenant.

These are some of the reasons for and advantages of using life estates. But the limitations are just as imposing.

A LIFE TENANT cannot sell or mortgage the land, because he has only the use of the property and not a fee or title interest. Title belongs to the person who takes the land at the life tenant's death —known as a remainderman.

Even though a life tenant can be prevented from destroying buildings and timber or committing waste on the land, he cannot be compelled to use sound farming practices, such as contour farming, terraces, conservation measures or the application of fertilizers.

Coal, oil or other mineral deposits belong to the remainderman and not to the life tenant. This means that the life tenant has no right to develop such deposits unless he comes to some agreement with the remainderman.

Life estates have been criticized for contributing to the depletion of farm lands. This is not so likely to be true when the tenant and remainderman are related, although some difficult problems often appear withih families.

Before creating a life estate, consider the pros and cons carefully, and check with an attorney on the tax consequences. (Fm

University Breeds Large Colorful Chrysanthemums

Illinois Snowdrift . . . Illini Goldilocks . . . Illini Starflower . . . Illini Igloo.

These might be names of rocket ships to outer space. Or they might be names of purebred breeding animals. But they are neither.

They are the colorful names floriculturists at the University of Illinois have given to some of the many varieties of beautiful chrysanthemums they have developed.

IN 1908 University of Illinois professor Herman Dorner, now deceased, began a continuous breeding program to improve mums, according to J. R. Culbert, floriculture specialist at the University.

Years ago, says Culbert, mums were available only at their natural blooming time in the autumn. But, thanks to research like that being done at Illinios, they now grow and flower every day of the year.

The floriculture department has placed most of the emphasis in its improvement program on florist (greenhouse) mums. The more than 100 varieties developed by the University of Illinois in the past 47 years have been introduced to the florist industry.

MUMS are one of the 'best buys" in flowers. One reason is that they keep so long as cut flowers or as potted plants. Then, too, they come in a wide variety of colors and types.

Although more than 800 varieties are commonly listed in seed catalogues, Culbert says the search for more varieties continues. We still don't have all the kinds and colors of mums for certain seasons that we'd like to have he says.

Getting back to some of those colorful names, the Illini Snowdrift was introduced in 1949. It is grown from California to Florida and from Minnesota to Texas. At the moment Culbert and his associates are trying to produce a yellow and pink Snowdrift.

The Illini Igloo made its appearance in 1952 and is widely grown today. The Illini Starflower came along last year and her sister, Illini Goldilocks, made her debut this year. (Fm

Too Much Finish On Beef Cuts Feeders' Profits

Too much finish, or external fat, on choice and prime grades of beef cattle cut feeders' profits and create more waste for meat packers.

B. C. Breidenstein, University of Illinois meats specialist, believes cattle feeders today are trying to put too much finish on their fat cattle. This higher finish requires more time, labor and feed. It also reaches a point where the animal becomes "patchy fat."

Breidenstein believes beef cattle will follow the same pattern the swine industry has in the past few years. They'll go toward a type of animal that will hang a higher quality carcass on the rail, minus an overabundance of external fat, or finish, depending on your audience.

Ten years ago swine growers said this new meat-type hog would never be produced in large numbers, but today many meat packers are paying higher prices for the long, meaty type of hog. The progressive swine breeders are now switching their breeding stock to this type of hog.

Breidenstein says he doesn't know whether the longer bodied animal will replace the short, blocky type of beef cattle, as was the case in the hog industry, but that there will definitely be a trend toward high-quality beef with a minimum of outside finish. If a longer beef carcass will yield a higher cut-out value, then obviously breeders will need to select for greater length.

This change in beef cattle will not take place overnight. However, Breidenstein feels that within the next 15 years the housewife will be buying high quality beef, with less external fat, at more reasonable prices for choice and prime grades.

Control Both Humidity And Heat For Happy Hen Houses

Help your laying flock do its best in winter by ventilating the house and insulating it to cut down on heat loss.

Best laying house temperature is 50 degrees F., says Jim Curtis, agricultural engineer at the University of Illinois, College of Agiculture. You may have to settle for something less than that in very cold weather.

Below-freezing temperatures in the henhouse not only are hard on the chickens, but cause plenty of trouble with water supplies, Curtis says. And if the temperature gets down to 15 degrees the combs and wattles on the hens are likely to freeze and production will be severely cut.

FIRST SOLUTION to the heating problem is to build your house with the long side running east and west and with most of the windows on the south side to catch the winter sun. Insulate at least the ceiling and if possible the sides of the house to keep the body heat of the hens inside.

Then you'll need to combat the moisture problem caused by the chickens and by spillage from the waterers. The problem is to get the moisture out by ventilation without letting in too much cold air.

Forced ventilation with automatic electric fans is easiest to control, the agricultural engineer says. But you can also use natural ventilation through windows, doors and roof vents. The trouble with the second system is that you'll have to regulate the ventilation every time you need more or less fresh air. (Fm

Men Outnumber Women 11-1 On Danish Island Of Fejoe

by BILL DILLINGHAM

There just aren't enough men on Fejoe. For every unmarried (and eligible) girl on this Danish island, there are eleven bachelors.

This, finally, is the place where men still tip their hats, open doors and offer bus seats to ladies. Visitors to the island claim that this is chivalry's last outpost.

TO OFFER themselves consolation over the scarcity of women, the Fejoe bachelors association has been recently created. The general idea of this group is to convince its members that "Aw nuts, guess women are too much trouble, anyway!"

The association has planned a picnic to take place next summer just outside the capital, Copenhagen (Dyrehavsbakken). The president of the group has assured all members that during the picnic every man will have a girl friend. In addition to that, the association has a standing invitation to eligible ladies (young, middle-aged and elderly — there's room for everybody) to come to Fejoe at any time as guests and receive "gentlemanly attention by men of very honorable intentions."

THE ASSOCIATION, however, has warned all members that there will be a fine of twenty-five crowns (about $4) for each man who gets married.

The reason for this scarcity of women and wives, according to popular male opinion, lies with the constant state of indebtedness in which these fruit farmers find themselves. They buy farm machinery and have no money left over for ladies' hats. The eligible girls then depart for Copenhagen.

ANOTHER REASON, this time given by young ladies who intend to leave soon, is that Fejoe is too dead. The modern girl wants a naughty Don Juan with a broad outlook and an electric razor.

Fejoe, they say, is the center of unshaved men. Why should a girl stay in a community of unshaved farmers?

Why should a man shave asks the bachelor's association when there are no kisses waiting for a man when he returns home from work?

Both sides are adamant, and with the continuing disappearance of Fejoe's ladies, the Bachelor's Association keeps reminding its members: "Aw nuts, women are too much trouble anyway!"

Home Grown Holly For Yule Decor Thrives In North

Every day can be a holly-day - if you grow your own Christmas decoration.

Glamorous holly is not the "hothouse violet" popularly believed. Highly prized specimens are thriving in such cold weather areas as Buffalo, Detroit, Cleveland, Akron, Chicago and Des Moines, just to mention a few, points out J. J. Slocum, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

What's more, it is no longer necessary or even advisable merely to plant American holly and take your chance as to type and sex. They're now offered for sale in many varieties, pre-determined as to characteristics and sex. The male is needed for pollen - if you want a full crop of berries. Some of the better known varieties have such intriguing names as Old Cheerful, Yule, Bountiful and Christmas Carol. Your local nurseryman undoubtedly will be in a position to recommend the best varieties for your particular area and location.

In the South, hollies attain considerable size and are classed as "medium sized trees." They can be slower in the North. Holly can be planted where large shrubs are needed. They constitute a pleasant relief from the usual type of pine and spruce generally used for background material. And if kept closely sheared they can even be used for foundation plantings.

They're evergreen and have few insect enemies. Occasional spraying will be necessary for leaf miner.

So cut your own Christmas decoration. Holly requires an annual pruning, anyhow. And the berries make an excellent food for the birds. DL

In The Future

A new wallpaper cleanser, which is spread on from a folding metal tube, is removed simply by brushing after it dries to a powder. . . . Trailer owners can get a hitch car's bumper when not in use. . . . Newest Christmas toy is a reflecting telescope, powerful enough to show the craters of the moon. . . . Also for Christmas is a molded plastic accordion, with 52 reeds.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Certainly one of the year's best discs in our own humble opinion is Epic's 12-inch waxing of music by Roussel, Faure and Debussy, three of the greatest composers France ever produced. Roussel is perhaps the least known of this trio so far as American audiences are concerned — a condition easily remedied by lp. Indeed, only a few weeks ago Epic gave us a magnificent 12-inch disc offering his Piano Concerto, the piquant and colorful Sinfonietta and the vivid, exciting and eloquent Concerto for Orchestra, together with the "Petite Suite" which is the one work most played by American orchestras.

Roussel's idiom is highly sophisticated, extremely imaginative, and his orchestration is masterful in its achieving effects with sparse means.

He has the irony and wit and true Gallic flavor of Ravel; on this new Epic release, the two suites from his ballet "Bacchus et Ariane" will inevitable remind the listener of Ravel's own stunning "Daphnis et Chloe." We urge you to hear his music if you have not yet become acquainted with it; the experience will be rewarding.

In addition, this new Epic lp (Lc-3165) gives us the exquisite incidental music to Maeterlinck's "Pelleas et Melisande" by Gabriel Faure (Debussy wrote an opera on that drama), and Debussy's youthful "Petite Suite." One of the most enjoyable recordings we have ever heard, beautifully played, and accorded breathtakingly realistic reproduction!

For you "pops" fans, don't miss Mercury's 45-rpm platter of "And the Rains Came" with Patti Page warbling in her delectable and inimitable way. Lyrics are novel and clever — which in itself is praiseworthy in this era of hackneyed tunesmiths. Maybe we're old-fashioned, but we still like Rodgers and Hart.
